Snapshots From The Life Of An African American Women:

Snapshots from the Life of an African-American Woman Rebecca Evans Carroll, 1997 Notable Black American Women Jessie Carney Smith, Shirelle Phelps, 1992 Arranged alphabetically from Alice of Dunk's Ferry to Jean Childs Young this volume profiles 312 Black American women who have achieved national or international prominence African American Female Leadership in Major Motion Pictures Tracy L.F. Worley, 2024-02-09 This book explores the factors contributing to the under representation of African American female directors in mainstream cinema leadership It also unmasks the potential strategies African American female film directors might pursue to reduce this inequity Author Tracy L F Worley draws on research around ethics to conclude that there are specific consequences of the male gaze on women in cinema leadership especially African American female directors of box office cinema Combining extensive analysis of ethics and ethical stance relative to the motion picture industry with perspectives from working African American female directors the text discusses the ethical considerations and historical inequities including the male gaze and uses those findings to define how the inequities can be opportunities The efficacy model for cinematic leadership is presented as a mechanism for viewing obstacles through the lenses of gender ethnicity and culture so they become drivers for African American women to achieve success Ideal for students of directing and filmmaking as well as aspiring professional filmmakers wishing to gain a better understanding of the industry as it stands today What's Black about It? Pepper Miller, Herb Kemp, 2005 At last in depth qualitative insights paint an eye opening picture of Black culture and the Black lifestyle and how to connect your products and services with Black consumers What's Black About It presents historical psychological and cultural influences that delve far deeper into the Black experience than the demographics that are at the heart of other ethnic marketing books and market research reports Now you will be able to break through stereotypes to better understand and relate to African American consumers Other ethnic marketing books may include a general chapter or two on Black consumers What's Black About It focuses on African American consumers and engages you with bold graphics pop culture sidebars insights from focus groups and examples from current advertising and marketing campaigns Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2005 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2009 Snapshot Americana Jeff Musillo, 2014-07-25 Snapshot Americana is creative non fiction that looks into the eyes of the disadvantaged with writings from 2006-2008 It's about witnessing the privileged roll up their sleeves to make sure the less fortunate eat It's about watching people battle for their values while those who mock stand no more than five feet away Most importantly it's about leaving that zone of comfort and exploring unfamiliar areas and circumstances situations involving gentrification infestation police harassment ways of self governing conversations with those who have suffered and are still suffering due to the destruction caused by Hurricane Katrina laborers on strike and a unique discussion concerning the possibilities of global destruction with a woman who has been living on the street across from the White House since the Reagan Years among many other things Pictures of Girlhood Sarah Hentges,2015-01-09 Although the coming of age story has been a popular film plot for decades producers have only recently realized the commercial potential of targeting films to adolescent girls Movies like Clueless Legally Blonde and Mean Girls have been successfully marketed to teenage girls as have several well known independent films Important as both cultural indicators and catalysts these films simultaneously demonstrate pop culture s influence on girls films and the ability of girls films to affect pop culture and perceptions of girlhood This critical survey of film and the modern girl concentrates largely on films of the last two decades addressing key themes for girls within coming of age films the changing but not always improving young feminine paradigm and the ways these films can be powerful determinants of culture The first chapter explores the ways in which girls films construct reinforce challenge and dismantle mainstream conceptualizations of sexuality race and power The second chapter discusses mainstream limitations of coming of age narratives including recycled plots and stars treatments of parental and male authority and adult conceptualizations of adolescence The third chapter describes girls experiences within these narratives through such conventions as attitude teen fashion music and dance unsanctioned rites of passage and race The fourth chapter covers the negotiation of sex and sexuality virginity and sexual empowerment Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Pictures and Progress Maurice O. Wallace,Shawn Michelle Smith,2012-06-19 Pictures and Progress explores how during the nineteenth century and the early twentieth prominent African American intellectuals and activists understood photography s power to shape perceptions about race and employed the new medium in their quest for social and political justice They sought both to counter widely circulating racist imagery and to use self representation as a means of empowerment In this collection of essays scholars from various disciplines consider figures including Frederick Douglass Sojourner Truth Ida B Wells Paul Laurence Dunbar and W E B Du Bois as important and innovative theorists and practitioners of photography In addition brief interpretive essays or snapshots highlight and analyze the work of four early African American photographers Featuring more than seventy images Pictures and Progress brings to light the wide ranging practices of early African American photography as well as the effects of photography on racialized thinking Contributors Michael A Chaney Cheryl Finley P Gabrielle Foreman Ginger Hill Leigh Raiford Augusta Rohrbach Ray Sapirstein Suzanne N Schneider Shawn Michelle Smith Laura Wexler Maurice O Wallace

Memory Work Mary E. Triece,2024-10-23 In the early twentieth century white controlled magazines and Black magazines told very different stories about the dynamics of race sex and power in the United States Memory Work White Ignorance and Black Resistance in Popular Magazines 1900 1910 examines how popular magazines employed rhetorical strategies to remember forget and frame America s racist past White controlled magazines such as the Independent Outlook Arena and McClure s carried stories of southern nostalgia union reconciliation and white purity Relying on willful ignorance to misremember past experiences of suffering these texts severed violent histories from present day policies and often simply remained silent Meanwhile in Black magazines such as the Colored American Magazine and the Voice of the Negro women writers leveraged countermemory Bringing Black women s accomplishments into focus these writers inverted popular white narratives that erased and obscured Black women s experiences including those of sexual violence Mary E Triece traces how white and Black magazines often in dialogue with one another differently engaged memory work to either reinforce or upend white supremacy during a period of both Black advancement and white backlash Further the book suggests lines of connection between the construction of public memory in the past to those taking place today across an array of media platforms Popular debates whether appearing in early 1900s magazines or on twenty first century social media sites shape a culture s collective knowledge of what counts as true important and worthy of attention Pictures Through the
