The Outlook Lyman Abbott, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Ernest Hamlin Abbott, Francis Rufus Bellamy, 1927 Book Presence in a Digital Age Kiene Brillenburg Wurth, Kári Driscoll, Jessica Pressman, 2018-06-28 Contrary to the apocalyptic pronouncements of paper media s imminent demise in the digital age there has been a veritable surge of creative reimaginings of books as bearers of the literary From typographic experiments Mark Z Danielewski s House of Leaves Steven Hall s The Raw Shark Texts to accordion books Anne Carson s Nox from cut ups Jonathan Safran Foer s Tree of Codes to collages Graham Rawle s Woman s World from erasures Mary Ruefle s A Little White Shadow to mixups Simon Morris s The Interpretations of Dreams print literature has gone through anything but a slow inevitable death In fact it has re-invented itself materially Starting from this idea of media plurality Book Presence in a Digital Age explores the resilience of print literatures book art and zines in the late age of print from a contemporary perspective while incorporating longer term views on media archeology and media change Even as it focuses on the materiality of books and literary writing in the present Book Presence also takes into consideration earlier 20th century moments of media transition developing the concepts of presence and materiality as analytical tools to perform literary criticism in a digital age Bringing together leading scholars artists and publishers Book Presence in a Digital Age offers a variety of perspectives on the past present and future of the book as medium the complex relationship of materiality to virtuality and of the analog to the digital The Bookseller, 1918

The Publishers Weekly, 1875 Speaking in the Past Tense Herb Wyile, 2006-12-15 Speaking in the Past Tense participates in an expanding critical dialogue on the writing of historical fiction providing a series of reflections on the process from the perspective of those souls intrepid enough to step onto what is practically by definition contested territory

Herb Wyile from the Introduction The extermination of the Beothuk the exploration of the Arctic the experiences of soldiers in the trenches during World War I the foibles of Canada's longest serving prime minister the Ojibway sniper who is credited with 378 wartime kills these are just some of the people and events discussed in these candid and wide ranging interviews with eleven authors whose novels are based on events in Canadian history These sometimes startling conversations take the reader behind the scenes of the novels and into the minds of their authors Through them we explore the writers motives for writing the challenges they faced in gathering information and presenting it in fictional form the sometimes hostile reaction they faced after publication and perhaps most interestingly the stories that didn't make it into their novels Speaking in the Past Tense provides fascinating insights into the construction of national historical narratives and myths both those familiar to us and those that are still being written

Safe Book Paul E. Lingel, 2025-09-18 Safe Book is the story of an aspiring writer and the obstacles and struggles he encountered in his quest for recognition His journey took many turns and detours from the dangers of working the night shift in a convenience store in a crime infested neighborhood to a security guard in a hospital where the trauma unit was always filled His journey mirrors those of many who are trying to make ends meet while still pursuing their creative endeavors always hoping that the next mail delivery will bring the long awaited letter that his stories will be published After many rejections one day that letter did indeed arrive His many disappointments faded into the background whenever he stepped off the train and onto the platform at Penn Station On those days he was rejuvenated by the excitement of New York City and found peace wandering through the Metropolitan Museum of Art At the end of the day he was able to head back to his life across the Hudson River Share the joy he felt when his long awaited vacation arrived each year and he would rent a car and roam the shores of Long Island finding the waves of the ocean a tranquil quiet for his soul Follow his search for a soulmate after his wife gets on a bus over Christmas and never returns home leaving him with many unanswered questions This is a story of an unfulfilled dream to be able to support a home and a family with his writings A dream never realized in his lifetime

Globaletics and Radicant Aesthetics in Australian Fiction Salhia Ben-Messahel, 2018-01-23 This book focuses on the issues of space culture and identity in recent Australian fiction It discusses the work of 15 authors to show that in Australia the meaning of country remains critical and cultural belonging is still a difficult process Interrogating the definition of Australia as a post colonial nation and its underlying extension from Britain it applies Nicolas Bourriaud's concept of the Radicant to examine Australian writing beyond the post of post colonialism The book shows that some authors are engaged in writing about the country and the time in which they live but that they also share common critical views on the definition of multiculturalism the belonging to place and integration in the nation The volume suggests that theories of cultural hybridism presented as a decolonising methodology in fact dissolve singularity in the same way that globalisation creates standardisation It argues that 21st century Australian fiction depicts the subject as a radicant and that Australian culture constitutes a mobile entity unconnected to any soil

David

Cronenberg David Schwartz, 2021-03-01 From his early horror movies including Scanners Videodrome Rabid and The Fly with their exploding heads mutating sex organs rampaging parasites and scientists turning into insects to his inventive adaptations of books by William Burroughs Naked Lunch Don DeLillo Cosmopolis and Bruce Wagner Maps to the Stars Canadian director David Cronenberg b 1943 has consistently dramatized the struggle between the aspirations of the mind and the messy realities of the flesh I think of human beings as a strange mixture of the physical and the non physical and both of these things have their say at every moment we re alive says Cronenberg My films are some kind of strange metaphysical passion play Moving deftly between genre and arthouse filmmaking and between original screenplays and literary adaptations Cronenberg s work is thematically consistent and marked by a rigorous intelligence a keen sense of humor and a fearless engagement with the nature of human existence He has been exploring the most primal themes since the beginning of his career and continues to probe them with growing maturity and depth Cronenberg s work has drawn the interest of some of the most intelligent contemporary film critics and the fifteen interviews in this volume feature remarkably in depth and insightful conversations with such acclaimed writers as Amy Taubin Gary Indiana David Breskin Dennis Lim Richard Porton Gavin Smith and more The pieces herein reveal Cronenberg to be one of the most articulate and deeply philosophical directors now working and they comprise an essential companion to an endlessly provocative and thoughtful body of work

Strange Voices in Narrative Fiction Per Krogh Hansen, Stefan Iversen, Henrik Skov Nielsen, Rolf Reitan, 2011-10-27 From its beginnings narratology has incorporated a communicative model of literary narratives considering these as simulations of natural oral acts of communication This approach however has had some problems with accounting for the strangeness and anomalies of modern and postmodern narratives As many skeptics have shown not even classical realism conforms to the standard set by oral or natural storytelling Thus an urge to confront narratology with the difficult task of reconsidering a most basic premise in its theoretical and analytical endeavors has for some time been undeniable During the 2000s Nordic narratologists have been among the most active and insistent critics of the communicative model They share a marked skepticism towards the idea of using natural narratives as a model for understanding and interpreting all kinds of narratives and for all of them the distinction of fiction is of vital importance This anthology presents a collection of new articles that deal with strange narratives narratives of the strange or more generally with the strangeness of fiction and even with some strange aspects of narratology
