The Communicators Commentary:

The Communicator's Commentary Gary W. Demarest, 1984 The Communicator's Commentary Myron S. Augsburger, Lloyd John Ogilvie, 1982 Each volume has the title proper Communicator's commentary followed by its part title Matthew etc Includes bibliographies v 1 Matthew Myron S Augsburger v 2 Mark David L McKenna v 3 Luke Bruce Larson v 4 John Roger L Fredrikson v 5 Acts Lloyd J Ogilvie v 6 Romans D Stuart Briscoe v 7 1 2 Corinthians Kenneth L Chafin v 8 Galatians Ephesians Philippians Colossians Philemon Maxie D Dunnam v 9 1 2 Thessalonians 1 2 Timothy Titus Gary W Demarest v 10 Hebrews Louis H Evans Jr v 11 James 1 2 Peter Jude Paul A Cedar The Communicator's Commentary Series, 1986 The Communicator's Commentary Mark D. Roberts, 1993 Ezra and Nehemiah address issues that make the front pages of our newspapers and they speak to the yearnings of our hearts This is why the author of this volume Dr Mark Roberts enthusiastically encourages Christian communicators to explore these somewhat obscure Old Testament texts For much the same reason the author believes modern pastors and Bible students can benefit from careful study in the often maligned book of Esther He emphasizes the book's contemporary relevance stating Esther encourages us to grapple with pressing moral issues in light of God's wisdom As a pastor with a passion for communicating God's truths to young people and to the unchurched in our world Dr Roberts shares his personal success in using the books of Ezra Nehemiah and Esther to address contemporary needs Not only is this commentary well written and carefully researched but as an added plus Dr Roberts deep faith and his dynamic relationship with Christ shine through every page As Dr Lloyd Ogilvie says in the editor's preface the author of this fine volume is vulnerable open and honest about how the Scriptures he explains have impacted his own life Marked by the excellence you have come to expect in the Communicator's Commentary series this latest volume wrestles with difficult questions such as the rightful place of Esther in the canon and the puzzling roles of Sheshbazzar and Zerubbabel provides a wide range of quotations and anecdotes from modern and classical sources to help us communicate God's message today and offers balance of exegetical historical and literary analysis along with penetrating applications of the truths reflected in these texts As communicators Dr Ogilvie says we all long for those magnificent moments in our preparation when we are gripped with an inspired insight into a passage of Scripture that prompts us to exclaim that will preach We are filled with excitement and enthusiasm to share what we've discovered This is exactly what will happen as you study this commentary It is power packed and brimming over with new insight into familiar passages The Communicator's Commentary Leslie C. Allen, 1987 Communicator's Commentary Myron S. Augsburger, 1991-05 Communicator's Commentary Gary W. Demarest, 1991-05 The Communicator's Commentary, Psalms 1-72 Donald M. Williams, 1986 The Communicator's Commentary Don Williams, 1989 The Navy Chaplain, 1990 The Gospel of Matthew John Nolland, 2005-11-01 Having devoted the past ten years of his life to research for this major new work John Nolland gives us a commentary on the Gospel of Matthew that engages with a notable range of Matthean scholarship and offers fresh interpretations of the dominant Gospel in the history of the church Without neglecting the Gospel's sources or historical background Nolland places his central focus on the content and method of Matthew's story His work explores Matthew's narrative technique and the inner logic of the unfolding text giving full weight to the Jewish character of the book and its differences from Mark's presentation of parallel material While finding it unlikely that the apostle Matthew himself composed the book Nolland does argue that Matthew's Gospel reflects the historical ministry of Jesus with considerable accuracy and he brings to the table new evidence for an early date of composition Including accurate translations based on the latest Greek text detailed verse by verse comments thorough bibliographies for each section and an array of insightful critical approaches Nolland's Gospel of Matthew will stimulate students preachers and scholars seeking to understand more fully Matthew's presentation of the gospel narrative

Selflessness: The Forgotten Christian Virtue Joseph "Skip" Frazier, 2024-04-15 Selflessness The Forgotten Christian Virtue is the result of a life spent working and interacting with thousands of people over a forty five year career My experiences blessed me with an understanding of the human tendency to be selfish as I witnessed the need for self denial This is not a theological book rather it demonstrates our need for the practical use of God's Word in our lives Scripture is meant to be lived every day We are most happy when we yield to our Savior by submitting to His will My motivation is to show the incredible benefits of a practical application of God's Word It is my sincere wish to benefit your life specifically It is essential for Christians to live for Jesus The selfless life will help you to bring people to Christ and understand it is God not self who is able to pilot our life Finally it is my goal to always apply God's Word in the way it was intended This book has four objectives to wit to demonstrate how detrimental the self oriented way of life is to people to show the importance of selflessness in this life to emphasize the commandment and example of Christ to deny self and to disclose the remarkable benefits of a selfless way of life My sincere hope is that you will eliminate selfishness from your life as you strive to follow the Lord Jesus Christ Joseph Skip Frazier
