The Community Of The School

Kronick, Robert F.

The Community Of The School:

Community Schools JoAnne Ferrara, Reuben Jacobson, 2019-05-24 Ferrara and Jacobson go inside community schools across the country to explore the different roles that make this collaborative education reform work. This book provides practitioners, policymakers, family members, youth, and local leaders a greater understanding of the different roles that make up a community school and tools for action. Built on years of practice, research, and continuous improvement, community schools are an innovative, effective, and grassroots strategy for bringing schools and communities together in order to improve outcomes for students, families, and communities. This education reform is growing as school site, local, and state leaders seek collaborative solutions to our schools' most persistent challenges. The contributors, experts in the field, represent a diverse group of people with longstanding commitments to the community school strategy. From principals to family members, from community partners to teachers, this book illustrates how together we all have a part to play in the development of successful community schools.

Building Community in Schools Thomas J. Sergiovanni, 1994 Sergiovanni documents cases of schools that have successfully reinvented themselves in order to establish a sense of community as the foundation for all curriculum and instruction decisions. Teachers, administrators, teacher educators, and communities seeking advice and motivation for restructuring schools for the 21st century would be well advised to consult this work. Choice Provides the practitioner with both a theoretical blueprint with which to build learning communities and a rich supply of benchmark illustrations to use as prototypes. Thought provoking and challenging. NASSP Bulletin. Both in and out of schools, people are experiencing a loss of community. In this book, Thomas J. Sergiovanni explains why a sense of community is so vital to the success of any school and shows teachers, parents, and administrators what they can do to rebuild it. Filled with case studies and other school examples, Building Community in Schools provides the necessary intellectual framework for understanding the need to create communities that are inclusive, meaningful, and democratic.

Community Schools in Action Joy G. Dryfoos, Jane Quinn, Carol Barkin, 2005-03-24 A community school differs from other public schools in important ways it is generally open most of the time governed by a partnership between the school system and a community agency and offers a broad array of health and social services It often has an extended day before and after school features parent involvement programs and works for community enrichment How should such a school be structured How can its success be measured Community Schools in Action Lessons from a Decade of Practice presents the Children's Aid Society's CAS approach to creating community schools for the 21st century CAS began this work more than a decade ago and today operates thirteen such schools in three low income areas of New York City Through a technical assistance center operated by CAS hundreds of other schools across the country and the world are adapting this model Based on their own experiences working with community schools the contributors to the volume supply invaluable information about the selected program components They describe how and why CAS started its community school initiative and explain how CAS community schools are organized integrated with the school system sustained and evaluated The book also includes several contributions from experts outside of CAS a city superintendent an architect and the director of the Coalition for Community Schools Co editors Joy Dryfoos an authority on community schools and Jane Quinn CAS's Assistant Executive Director of Community Schools have teamed up with freelance writer Carol Barkin to provide commentary linking the various components together For those interested in transforming their schools into effective child and family centered institutions this book provides a detailed road map For those concerned with educational and social policy the book offers a unique example of research based action that has significant implications for our society Emerging Perspectives on Community Schools and the Engaged University Kronick, Robert F., 2019-08-23 University involvement within their communities and the promotion of engaged scholarship is essential for the success of the learning institution as well as for providing students with opportunities to interact with various leadership roles and hands on interactions with the communities themselves Community schools employ strategic partnerships to expand the boundaries of school improvements and to increase the direct benefits gained by the community Emerging Perspectives on Community Schools and the Engaged University is an essential research publication that explores the importance of civic engagement in various school settings but especially in higher education settings Featuring a wide range of topics such as service learning charter schools and democracy this book is ideal for community organizers superintendents directors provosts chancellors education practitioners academicians administrators researchers and education policymakers Human Rights in the Community Colin Harvey, 2005-04-22 There has been a considerable focus in the last few years on the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998 and its real and potential impact on judges and lawyers Much has been written on the implications of the new legislation for a variety of areas of law With the rising level of case law the emphasis is now turning to the impact of the legislation on specific areas of social life In this volume the focus is on the practice of human rights and how they are enforced in reality There is much discussion in the literature of a human rights culture but how precisely is such a culture to be created and how do we make sense of human rights In order to address these questions this volume is in two parts Part I examines general issues surrounding the full and effective implementation of human rights Part II explores the implications of human rights standards in particular areas in order to test whether a human rights culture has emerged

Activist and Socially Critical School and Community Renewal John Smyth, Lawrence Angus, Barry Down, Peter McInerney, 2019-02-11 Activist and Socially Critical School and Community Renewal comes about at an incredibly important point in history and it offers a genuinely new paradigm This book attempts what few others have tried to bring together knowledge and literature around school reform and community renewal through authentic ethnographic stories of real schools and communities The book describes and analyzes a courageous struggle for a more socially just world around notions of relational solidarity that speak back to ideas that continue to privilege the already advantaged This book provides some desperately needed new storylines as a basis for school and community renewal for the most excluded groups in society It provides a new social imagination for doing school in contexts that stand to benefit from school and community voiced approaches
