The Lincoln Story Thomas E. Bonsall, 2004 Lincoln's heritage is as rich as that of any car built anywhere in the world and more impressive than all but a few Generations of Americans have known it as the Car of Presidents since the days of Franklin Roosevelt the White House has exhibited a marked preference for Lincolns This comprehensive illustrated history describes in detail the successes and failures of the Lincoln from World War II up to the present day Aviator It discusses the forces in the market and in Ford Motor Company that have affected the Lincoln and is a must read for anyone interested in this classic marque

The Improbable First Century of Cosmopolitan Magazine James Landers, 2010-11-01 Today monthly issues of Cosmopolitan magazine scream out to readers from checkout counters and newsstands With bright covers and bold sexy headlines this famous periodical targets young single women aspiring to become the quintessential Cosmo girl Cosmopolitan is known for its vivacious character and frank explicit attitude toward sex yet because of its reputation many people don't realize that the magazine has undergone many incarnations before its current one including family literary magazine and muckraking investigative journal and all are presented in The Improbable First Century of Cosmopolitan Magazine The book boasts one particularly impressive contributor Helen Gurley Brown herself who rarely grants interviews but spoke and corresponded with James Landers to aid in his research When launched in 1886 Cosmopolitan was a family literary magazine that published quality fiction children's stories and homemaking tips In 1889 it was rescued from bankruptcy by wealthy entrepreneur John Brisben Walker who introduced illustrations and attracted writers such as Mark Twain Willa Cather and H G Wells Then when newspaper magnate William Randolph Hearst purchased Cosmopolitan in 1905 he turned it into a purveyor of expos journalism to aid his personal political pursuits But when Hearst abandoned those ambitions he changed the magazine in the 1920s back to a fiction periodical featuring leading writers such as Theodore Dreiser Sinclair Lewis and William Somerset Maugham His approach garnered success by the 1930s but poor editing sunk Cosmo s readership as decades went on By the mid 1960s executives considered letting Cosmopolitan die but Helen Gurley Brown an ambitious and savvy businesswoman submitted a plan for a dramatic editorial makeover Gurley Brown took the helm and saved Cosmopolitan by publishing articles about topics other women s magazines avoided Twenty years later when the magazine ended its first century Cosmopolitan was the profit center of the Hearst Corporation and a culturally significant force in young women s lives The Improbable First Century of Cosmopolitan Magazine explores how Cosmopolitan survived three near death experiences to become one of the most dynamic and successful magazines of the twentieth century Landers uses a wealth of primary source materials to place this important magazine in the context of history and depict how it became the cultural touchstone it is today This book will be of interest not only to modern Cosmo aficionadas but also to journalism students news historians and anyone interested in publishing More Than They Promised Thomas E. Bonsall, 2000 This lavishly illustrated book 86 integrated illustrations is the complete story of the Studebaker company from its beginnings to its end in 1966 The New Domestic Automakers in the United States and Canada A.J. Jacobs, 2015-12-16 Over the past forty years state provincial and local governments in the United States and Canada have provided foreign automakers with approximately 4 80 billion in incentives in order to lure light vehicles assembly plants to their areas This has included tax abatements infrastructure construction land giveaways job training programs and other subsidies As of early 2015 ten foreign vehicle makers operated 20 light vehicles in developed North America Despite the fact that all ten of these automakers have pursued a similar pattern first exporting vehicles into the United States and Canada before launching vehicle plants in developed North America each has followed its own specific historical development path and has created its own unique growth trajectory This book provides a unique historical and qualitative review of these ten vehicle makers from their early beginnings to their export entry into the United States and or Canada through early 2015 In addition it chronicles the histories of more than a dozen former automakers and potential future foreign light motor vehicle assembly plants in the United States and Canada This includes the first foreign automaker to build its cars in the United States De Dion Bouton of France in July 1900 the early 20th Century endeavors of Fiat Mercedes and Rolls Royce and the present day hopes of Chinese and Indian automakers In the process the text also provides an assessment of the top competing states and sites for any future plants the possible incentives packages governments may offer to attract such facilities and an estimated incentive value for each automaker Overall the goal of this book is to expand the knowledge of policymakers at all tiers of government in the United States and Canada and to help them take a more holistic look at the pros and cons of attracting Automobile Manufacturing FDI It is hoped that this will enable them to make more informed decisions when pursuing a new foreign motor vehicle assembly plant Its findings should also prove informative to urban and regional planning political science sociology economics labor and international development
