How We Write Now Jennifer C. Nash,2024-06-28 In How We Write Now Jennifer C Nash examines how Black feminists use beautiful writing to allow writers and readers to stay close to the field s central object and preoccupation loss She demonstrates how contemporary Black feminist writers and theorists such as Jesmyn Ward Elizabeth Alexander Christina Sharpe and Natasha Trethewey mobilize their prose to ask readers to feel undo and reassemble themselves These intimate invitations are more than a set of tools for decoding the social world Black feminist prose becomes a mode of living and feeling dreaming and being and a distinctly affective project that treats loss as not only paradigmatic of Black life but also an aesthetic question Through her own beautiful writing Nash shows how Black feminism offers itself as a companion to readers to chart their own lives with and in loss from devastating personal losses to organizing around the movement for Black lives Charting her own losses Nash reminds us that even as Black feminist writers get as close to loss as possible it remains a slippery object that troubles memory and eludes capture Official Proceedings of the Pacific Coast Railway Club ,1920

Social Sciences Lawrence Boudon,Katherine D. McCann,2003-09-01 The one source that sets reference collections on Latin American studies apart from all other geographic areas of the world The Handbook has provided scholars interested in Latin America with a bibliographical source of a quality unavailable to scholars in most other branches of area studies Latin American Research Review Beginning with volume 41 1979 the University of Texas Press became the publisher of the Handbook of Latin American Studies the most comprehensive annual bibliography in the field Compiled by the Hispanic Division of the Library of Congress and annotated by a corps of more than 130 specialists in various disciplines the Handbook alternates from year to year between social sciences and humanities The Handbook annotates works on Mexico Central America the Caribbean and the Guianas Spanish South America and Brazil as well as materials covering Latin America as a whole Most of the subsections are preceded by introductory essays that serve as biannual evaluations of the literature and research under way in specialized areas The Handbook of Latin American Studies is the oldest continuing reference work in the field Lawrence Boudon of the Library of Congress Hispanic Division has been the editor since 2001 and Katherine D McCann has been assistant editor since 2000 The subject categories for Volume 59 are as follows Anthropology Economics Geography Government and Politics International Relations Sociology Electronic Resources for the Social Sciences The Prism of Race David Lehmann, 2018-07-12 How race quotas and their public perception reflect Brazil s complicated history with racial injustice Catalog of Copyright Entries. Pastoral Care and Counseling in Large/Mega Congregations Jean Beedoe, 2016-08-04 Church growth in metropolitan communities motivated a short study concerning the pastoral care and counseling of immigrants specifically Black Caribbean congregants in large mega congregations Culture denomination history and interpretations of scripture enter into the dynamics of defining not only the pastoral office of leaders but their perception of care The phenomenological cycle of care is said to exist as an exchange happens between caregivers and care receivers Such an exploration of three congregations opened up rare concepts of the psycho social and spiritual nature that guide interpersonal relationships of family systems across cultures Large mega congregations desire women s as well as men s style of nurturing and of fellowship that form the characteristics of a sharing caring congregation The study implicated a need for more comprehensive interdisciplinary teaching methods to train church leaders and clergy It signals for an approach in practical theology to develop curricula for spiritual health of cultural plurality in congregations and community Productivity, Professionalism, and Parenting in Academia Christine E. Tulley, 2025-04-30 Drawing on time use diary analysis this unique and detailed study fills in the larger narrative about what it takes hour by hour to navigate academic motherhood with a rhetoric and composition career Looking specifically at the intersections between parenting and writing for publication in order to find out how and when writing for career advancing tasks such as publication occur but also through the lens of disciplinary time constraints including heavy grading and administrative workloads the book examines support systems noted within diary entries that make combining motherhood and a career in rhetoric and composition possible Using both quantitative analysis of hours and qualitative coding of time use diaries from rhet comp moms this book answers questions about publishing professionalism and parenting This book will interest scholars and graduate students working in the discipline of rhetoric writing and composition particularly those working on labor and professional issues on gender and equality within the discipline and anyone working in all fields looking for ways to foster a better work life balance
