daughter's finger lands becomes the theme of that Friday night's dinner. International Night is brimming with recipes for fifty-two special meals: appetizers, a main course, side dishes and dessert for each one for every week of the year. Some are old favorites from Mark's repertoire and others have been gleaned from research. Always they are his own version drawn from techniques he learned as a professional chef and from many years of talking to chefs, producers and household cooks around the world. Despite these insights, every recipe is designed to be carried out easily by any amateur chef and to be completed with the assistance of children. Mark and Talia invite you and your family into their kitchen, outfitted with overflowing packets of exotic spices and aromas of delicacies from Tanzania and Kazakhstan to Cuba and Norway. From there, recipes and toothsome morsels of cultural and historical information will fill your bellies and your minds and transport you to countries all around the world.

Eat Live Love Die Betty Fussell, 2017-10-10 Betty Fussell is an inspiring badass. She's not just the award-winning author of numerous books ranging from biography and memoir to cookbooks and food history, not just a winner of the James Beard Foundation's Journalism Award who was inducted into their Who's Who of American Food and Beverage in 2009 and not just an extraordinary person whose fifty years' worth of essays on food, travel and the arts have appeared in scholarly journals, popular magazines and newspapers as varied as The New York Times, The New Yorker, The Los Angeles Times, Saveur and Vogue. This is a woman who at eighty-two years old and despite being half-blind went deer hunting for the very first time in the Montana foothills with her son Sam as described in her 2010 essay for the New York Times Magazine. She got her deer. This is a woman who declared in a 2005 essay for Vogue that she had to teach herself Latin and German from scratch on top of teaching herself how to cook as a young twenty-one-year-old bride because housewifery wasn't enough. Indeed, for Fussell, one subject is never enough. Counterpoint is thrilled to be publishing this selected anthology of her diverse essays.

"We used to eat people" R.M.W. Dixon, 2018-01-13 Living in a reed hut on Taveuni, the garden isle of Fiji, the author studied the native language and carefully observed their traditions until he was accepted as a somewhat unusual member of the village. Despite five cyclones, the summer of 1985 daily life was idyllic. Cannibalism has been abandoned reluctantly at the behest of the new Christian God. But the old religion survived beneath the facade and priests danced naked on the beach beneath the full moon. The village pulsed with factions and feuds resolved by the stern but benevolent chief whose word was law. Legends told of a princess born as a bird who was killed and thus became a comely maiden, but the murderer had to be cooked and eaten.

Mystery Cities Thomas William Francis Gann, 1925 Mystery Cities of the Maya Thomas Gann, 1997 A book of archaeological adventure in Central America. Gann's book discusses devil dances, Mayan religion, exotic flints and has lots of photos, maps and diagrams from the 20s.
