The Conciliar Evangelical Debate The Crucial Documents 1964 1976:

The Conciliar-Evangelical Debate, 1977 The Conciliar-evangelical Debate: the Crucial Documents, 1964- 1976: Expanded Edition of Eye of the Storm, The Great Debate in Mission, Including Documents on Bangkok and Nairobi Donald McGavran, The Great, 1977 From Crisis to Creation Mark T. B. Laing, 2012-09-05

Lesslie Newbigin 1909 1998 was one of the seminal theologians of mission in the twentieth century and perhaps the most important in the English speaking world His thinking was anchored in the practice of mission he was a missionary in India a bishop of the Indian church and a leader in emerging international mission structures In his late years he pioneered research on how the gospel could engage with Western culture For many he is the founding father of the missional church movement This book is the first to address the crucial role Newbigin played in shaping ecumenical thinking on mission during the twentieth century filling an important gap in our knowledge of the development of twentieth century missional theology It does so by seeking to answer a central question in Newbigin's thinking How does mission relate to church Taking the integration of the International Missionary Council with the World Council of Churches as its central focus this book provides a unique history of crucial events in the ecumenical movement But more importantly through a study of Newbigin's role in the theological debate this book demonstrates how missional theology evolved during the postwar period when there was a sea change in understandings both of mission and church

Religious Pluralism in America William R. Hutchison, 2003-01-01 In this groundbreaking and timely history an eminent historian of religion chronicles America's struggle to fulfill the promise of religious toleration enshrined in our Constitution William Hutchison shows that as Catholics Mormons Jews Muslims Hindus and others emerged to challenge the Protestant mainstream we have expanded our understanding of what it means to be a religiously diverse country This landmark study addresses a topic that is both central to American history and relevant to pressing current debates Stimulating illuminating and provocative Mark Noll A fascinating account of how religious pluralism a pluralism that now accepts the most distant stretches of religious diversity has become institutionalized in the United States Nathan Glazer Rich and engaging Thomas C Berg Christian Century Hutchison's history is learned and accessible In its use of cultural evidence including political cartoons gospel lyrics portraits and photographs it is even entertaining More importantly at all points it is clear Erin Leib New York Sun

Good News and Good Works Ronald J. Sider, 1999-03-01 Concerned to promote an authentic biblical faith this book suggests ways to combine evangelism with social action for effective witness in today's world

The Good News of The Kingdom Charles E. Van Engen, Dean S. Gilliland, 1999-09-17

A Case Study in Contextualization Fred W. McRae, 2014-01-30 The content of the gospel never changes however communicating it constantly fluctuates Conveying the gospel to a homeless hungry woman may include providing a hot bowl of chili while an agnostic co worker might be open after several rounds of golf The message is the same but the method of communicating it is as wide and varied as life itself Finding the correct method is like hitting the sweet spot on a tennis racket or golf club It takes time study and practice but once you find it you have more success The sweet spot in missions is called contextualization and involves much more than learning a new language It means knowing a country's religious political and social conditions Correct theology financial backing and language acquisition are meaningless without contextualization This book tells the story of a German organization struggling to contextualize the gospel in a very hostile environment Its mission was to revive a dying church characterized by centuries old religious pride and pluralism This study details the challenges of faithfully communicating the gospel in a post Christian culture and serves as a study to enable missionaries to recognize and respond to cultural issues affecting the contextualization process

Errand to the World William R. Hutchison, 1987 In this comprehensive history of American foreign mission thought from the colonial period to the current era William R. Hutchinson analyzes the varied and changing expressions of an American sense of mission that was more than religious in its implications His account illuminates the dilemmas intrinsic to any venture in which one culture attempts to apply its ideals and technology to the supposed benefit of another Donald McGavran, His Early Life and Ministry: Vern Middleton, 2011-06-28 This biography is more than one man's interpretation of another person's life it has numerous traits of an autobiography Donald McGavran His Early Life and Ministry An Apostolic Vision for Reaching the Nations includes insights gleaned from archives as well as hours of discussion with both Donald and Mary McGavran about the interpretation applied to particular events FAITH ADRIFT CHRISTIANITY Cecil W.

Stalnaker, 2022-07-27 Faith Adrift Christianity is a biblical response to a devastating form of Christianity that has gripped the heart and soul of many Christians and their churches namely that of nominal Christianity This form of Christianity is counterfeit at its best and is one of the greatest challenges facing the church today whether Protestant Catholic or Orthodox It is estimated that an alarming 75% of professing Christians are living lifeless forms of their faith Although so many identify as Christians something is strangely wrong Sadly wavering in the Christian faith is more common than not Millions of professing Christians in America and Europe are adrift spiritually and indifferent to Jesus Christ and his church This deceptive form of Christianity is not only personally detrimental to the Christian but devastating to the life of the local church Being a weak form of Christianity the church loses its saltiness and its light dims It nullifies its penetrating and powerful outreach into society If not countered Christians will continue to drift toward the sea of nominally having nothing but a token relationship with God For this reason Faith Adrift Christianity is an indispensable guide because it reveals counters and provides answers from a biblical perspective to churches regarding those who profess Christ yet live lapsed Christian lives The uniqueness of Faith Adrift Christianity is its biblical analysis as to why people manifest an aloofness regarding God Yet it does not merely cite the problems and leave the reader adrift for it offers effective means to combat this very troublesome challenge Transforming Mission Theology Charles Van Engen, 2017-10-01 Missiology Permeated with Theological

Reflection This volume is the culmination of Van Engen's teachings but takes us to an even deeper level Since mission is first and foremost God's mission theological reflection must be permeated by missiological understanding and our missiology must be permeated with theological reflection Mission theology is an activity of the Church of Jesus Christ seeking to understand more deeply why how when where and wherefore the followers of Jesus may participate in God's mission in God's world

Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live

Handbook on Postconservative Theological Interpretation Ronald T. Michener, Mark A. Lamport, 2024-10-24 Postconservative theology may be said to parallel with postliberal theology at its best Orthodox biblical but open to new insights about how to interpret Scripture But the new insights must be faithful as well as fresh Postconservative theology is not the same as progressive theology which tends to lean toward indeterminant faith expressions whereas postconservative allows for particular faith commitments and expressions but understands that the constructive task of theology is never finished Authors emphasize various interpretive theological lenses used for doing theology among various postconservative theologians rather than emphasizing the philosophical background to hermeneutical theory present in other works such as past influential thinkers including Gadamer Grondin Ricoeur Heidegger etc This resource could also function as a companion to Evangelical Theological Method Five Views 2018 This emphasis of the chapters will not be on the nuts and bolts of how to interpret but rather on the theological impulses that govern various lenses Bible cultural context etc for doing theology and the way Scripture functions with respect to the practice of interpretation

African Pentecostalism in Catholic Belgium Joseph Bosco Bangura, 2025-09-18 This book explores the recent rise of African Pentecostalism and its rejuvenation of the Protestant Evangelical minority religion in a secular and liberal Flemish Belgium Beginning with an overview of developments within African Pentecostalism the author discusses how after arriving in Belgium African Pentecostals are using pneumatic mission theologies to establish migrant churches that interculturally engage the needs of the African diaspora in a secular Flemish Belgium The author argues that despite their position of marginality followers of African Pentecostalism have attempted to dialogue with a heterogeneously diverse minority Protestant Evangelicalism through implementing a myriad of liturgical practices reflective of the African Christian imagination By deploying Pentecostal mission theologies the author pivots the intercultural contributions that African Pentecostalism makes towards solidifying peaceful coexistence respect and dialogue in a secular plural and liberal Flemish Belgium

Mission Continues Claudia Wahrisch-Oblau, Fidon Mwombeki, 2010-09-01 In May 2009 thirty five theologians from Asia Africa and Europe met in Wuppertal Germany for a consultation on mission theology organized by the United Evangelical Mission Communion of Thirty five Churches in Three Continents The aim was to participate in the 100th anniversary of the Edinburgh conference through a study process and reflect on the challenges for mission in the twenty first century We decided not to invite renowned experts but to have an open invitation through a call for papers so that practicing mission experts not yet well known would have an opportunity to share their expertise We decided not to predetermine a theme or motto for the consultation but to allow various themes on mission to emerge from the papers themselves and thus to allow wide ranging discussions Indeed the papers were varied each drew strong reactions lively and even controversial debates We were able to discover common concerns transcending very different contexts The collection of papers in this book has been taken from the papers delivered at the Wuppertal consultation In some cases short responses by one or two of the consultation participants were added to highlight the discussions that followed The very varied voices collected in this anthology nevertheless have much in common Even where they are most theoretical it is obvious that all contributors come from missionary practice and bring in their contextual experiences

The Practice of Mission in Global Methodism David W. Scott, Darryl W. Stephens, 2021-04-19 This book brings together Methodist scholars and reflective practitioners from around the world to consider how emerging practices of mission and evangelism shape contemporary theologies of mission Engaging contemporary issues including migration nationalism climate change postcolonial contexts and the growth of the Methodist church in the Global South this book examines multiple forms of mission including evangelism education health and ministries of compassion A global group of contributors discusses mission as no longer primarily a Western activity but an enterprise of the entire church throughout the world This volume will be of interest to researchers studying missiology evangelism global Christianity and Methodism and to students of Methodism and mission

World Christianity, 1970-2000 Winston Crawley, 2001 In World Christianity 1970 2000 Dr Winston Crawley seeks to continue the overview and analysis of current progress in world Christianity contained in Dr Ralph Winter's work Twenty Five Unbelievable Years 1945 1969 and Kenneth Scott Latourette's History of the Expansion of Christianity Crawley examines the final thirty years of the millennium using Latourette's criteria of numerical growth geographic expansion vitality as shown by new initiatives and influence in society This summary of recent world Christian history provides a great backdrop for believers to face the new

millennium with hope determination and an expectation of seeing God work in the world in even greater ways Provided by the publisher Azusa Street & Beyond, 1986 Azusa Street and Beyond Grant McClung, 2005-12 A collection of essays by men and women who help shape the modern day Pentecostal Movement Contributors include Jack Hayford Wayne Warner David du Plessis Maynard Ketcham Gary McGee Vinson Synan and David Yonggi Cho among others The Conciliar-evangelical Debate Donald Anderson McGavran, 1977 The Church is always struggling to achieve and maintain her integrity And the fundamental issue in the struggle is always the same Will she submit to the authority of her Lord as revealed in Holy Scripture Will she follow his example of contending for truth by defining it against error and embodying it in her confession and practice John R W Stott has written Dislike of dogmatism hatred of controversy love of tolerance the call to close our ranks and the spirit of ecumenism these are some of the modern tendencies which are unfriendly to the Church's God given task to be a confessional Church holding the truth firm so that it is not moved and holding the truth aloft so that all may see it In these days the tendency among its leaders to decry this shift as the new mood of traditionalism Lukas Vischer They urge a reluctant Church to take further steps along the ecumenical road while denigrating the Evangelical emphasis as a preoccupation with Inherited truth nothing less than the sin of taking the relatively recent past as binding authority This call is to go back to the true source of tradition to hear the word God addresses to the Church today Hidden in the call however is the assumption that the word God addresses to his people today may be in sharp contrast to what he has spoken in the past This book seeks to set this debate in the only perspective that really matters the Word of God given in many and various ways of old to our fathers by the prophets and spoken to us by his Son Hebrews 1:1-2 The reader is asked to judge whether in their efforts to be obedient to Scripture Evangelicals are resisting contemporary challenges In their concern to be Scriptural have they really lost touch with this generation Or is their understanding and performance of mission most consonant with our Lord's commission to his Church to make disciples of the peoples of this generation
