Pearls of Wisdom Stephen G. Haines, 2004

Preparing Better Consultants Susan Adams, Alberto Zanzi, 2011-12-01 This volume focuses on a relatively neglected area of management consulting the education of consultants In today s business world we find training programs provided by consultancies certification programs provided by professional organizations on the job training of consultants with formal or informal supervision self taught professionals and some academic programs and courses Is that enough No better consultants are needed to handle the complexity and changing nature of business Academe is in the best position to provide the critical thinking preparation necessary Yet academic institutions have been slow in embracing this challenge The role of academia needs to grow in magnitude and in certain directions that educate consultants beyond industry training practices Chapter authors provide examples of innovative programs topical approaches for courses and thoughtful reflections on the role academia can play in preparing better consultants There are lessons for business schools consultancies and aspiring and practicing consultants
