Complete Poems Cecil Day-Lewis, 2012-03-31 Together with Auden Spender and MacNeice C Day Lewis was one of the leading young poets who in the 1930s broke away from the poetic establishment of those days Day Lewis started writing poetry very young and despite an active career which embraced schoolmastering journalism publishing academic lecturing and the writing of detective stories his devotion to poetry never wavered Always prolife he continued to write to the end of his days so that when he died in 1972 having held the Chair of Poetry at Oxford from 1951 and 1956 and having been appointed Poet Laureate in 1968 he left behind a very large and varied body of work Here for the first time are all the poems Day Lewis wrote including the vers d occasion which have never previously appeared in book form and a number of works which have only been published in a limited edition before now

Falling Out of the Sky Deborah Pope, 1999-03-01 While the poems of Deborah Pope s latest collection are rooted in the here and now the place where tables are set children play and empty cans collect they are also suffused with a spirit of transfiguration and the miraculous They map an earthy palpable yet oddly luminous landscape that embraces our most intimate relationships with lovers with relatives and with the body itself Ranging over this terrain that is at once familiar and fearsome Pope engages difficult questions and complex emotions hard truths and fierce connections Pope employs plain yet sensuous language lyrical intensity and startling images to deal with both the commonplace Age How to think of it and the extraordinary An angel has begun to speak to me These poems are not passive in their perceptions or their passions There is the anger of children the clutch of illness the rawness of love and grief alike the strangeness of revelation At times they literally wrestle with angels In this mature powerful collection Pope boldly reveals her own grief fears and regrets as well as the grace mercy and love she shows and is shown Falling Out of the Sky beautifully communicates the profound and enigmatic relationship between love and desire hate and betrayal despair and hope
