New York ,1973 Ruler of the Rink L.S Smith, Lombardi Dies, Orr Flies, Marshall Cries Brad Schultz, 2015-11-05 The year 1970 was grim in the United States and worldwide Vietnam continuing civil and political divisions a fear of growing lawlessness all seemed to point to a bleak future The 70s were also a time when traditional boundaries were being challenged from the color of skin to the length of hair Sports events issues and athletes from the very first year of this tumultuous decade reflect the dramatic changes that were taking place around the country Nowhere was this more evident than in college football where the University of Texas became the last all white national champion in 1970 even as a freshman still ineligible to play was standing by to bring about integration In Lombardi Dies Orr Flies Marshall Cries The Sports Legacy of 1970 Brad Schultz covers the most significant and momentous sports stories from this single year in American history reflecting on the deeper impact of these events both on the sporting world and on society as a whole Integration homosexuality drugs lawsuits and tragedy all crossed the sporting landscape in 1970 including pivotal moments such as student athlete protests against racism in college football the debut of Monday Night Football a challenge to baseball's reserve clause and the plane crash carrying Marshall University's football team that killed everyone on board Schultz tells these stories and more thoughtfully placing them within the context of the political social and cultural events taking place across the country and around the world Many of the athletes from 1970 may no longer be with us their records may have been broken and younger athletes may have taken their place but forty five years later it is time to look back and reflect on the significance of the events that took place in this unforgettable sports year Chronicling a remarkable time in the history of American sports this book will interest historians sports fans and those wanting to learn

DeVoe, 2010-05-07 DYLAN LAWSON IS a typical 13-year-old boy growing up in a small rural community in the northern Adirondacks of New York, a community that provides a lifestyle rich in outdoor adventure and homespun values. Together with his best friends Brennan and Kennedy, Dylan finds adventure and excitement in what always turns out to be anything but a typical day. But Dylan lives in a different world than everyone else. Dylan is the world's biggest daydreamer, and he lives his life in both the real world and his dream world. Worlds that often collide, causing struggles and challenges that also provide valuable lessons learned. It begins with a harrowing experience when the boys find themselves lost on Titus Mountain in the midst of the season's worst snowstorm and ends with the kids taking on the challenge of solving the great murder mystery when they stumble upon a dead body while out kayaking. In between, they become entrepreneurs of a successful start-up business, as a result of a school project, compete for the state championship on the school's hockey team, attempt to win a national contest to bring a superstar singer to perform at the school's spring dance, confront a terrorist attack at school, and become entangled in many more adventures. Dylan's daydreaming often causes him to be absent-minded, disengaged, and irresponsible, but with the help of his adult mentors, he ultimately uses his vivid imagination to become a real-life hero.

Daydreamer is an entertaining and enlightening adventure story with comic-book-like superhero excitement and unexpected twists, as Dylan's world moves from reality to fantasy. The action-packed suspense within each story and adventure will keep you riveted and guessing, but is it real or just another Dylan Lawson daydream? This book is dedicated to all my family and friends in hopes that it encourages them to always dream big and to use the power of imagination to find peace, contentment, and joy in their lives. JAMES E. DEVOE lives in Rochester, New York, with his wife. Both he and his wife were born and raised in northern New York and own summer cottages on Indian Lake. He has two adult children, four grandsons, and a yellow lab named Jessi Plot. When Jim Lawson, Dylan's father and a sergeant with the New York State Police, is put in charge of investigating a smuggling ring suspected to be running contraband across the U.S. and Canada border on Native American Indian territory, a clash of cultures and economic greed confronts the normally quiet surrounding Adirondack towns. The conflict grows more intense when the young grandson of a tribal chief is kidnapped, followed by the discovery of two mysterious murders Dylan and his two best friends Brennan and Kennedy find themselves in the middle of it all when their own life adventures intersect with the murder mysteries Theme Dylan Lawson is a typical 13 year old boy but he lives in a different world than everyone else Dylan is the world s greatest daydreamer and he lives his life in both the real world and his dream world In his dream world Dylan lives a comic book super hero like life but his dream world often collides with his real world when his daydreaming leaves him inattentive absent minded and irresponsible Dylan struggles with the conflicts between his two worlds but with guidance from various mentors he learns valuable life lessons from every daydream conflict and adventure Ultimately Dylan uses his imagination and dream world to become a real life hero Story Lessons It s not the quantity that counts most in life it s the quality Dylan wants it all but ultimately learns the value of making choices and limitations in his life Revenge is what you inflict on others but redemption is what you gain for yourself Dylan is tempted to get even with an opponent but learns to seek self redemption rather than revenge against others Loyalty friendliness and non judgmental unconditional love are key traits to aspire to Dylan comes
