Slave of the Huns Géza Gárdonyi, Andrew Feldmar, 1969 Despite the certainty of death should his love for a high born Hunnish girl be discovered a freed slave willingly returns to slavery in Attila's camp to be near her Slave of the Huns

Géza Gárdonyi (Schriftsteller), 1969 The World of the Huns Otto J. Maenchen-Helfen, 2023-11-10 An extensive study of the origins and culture of the mysterious Huns and the civilizations affected by their invasions The first part of the book deals with the political history of the Huns however they are not a narrative The second part of the book consists of monographs on the economy society warfare art and religion of the Huns What distinguishes these studies from previous treatments is the extensive use of archaeological material This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1973 Worse than Death Mamtimin Ala, 2021-02-08 Uyghurs are descendants of Turkic peoples currently facing genocide committed against them in their homeland East Turkistan This land has been colonized by the Chinese Communist Party CCP in 1949 creating a police state and renamed Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region XUAR In his book Worse than Death Reflections on the Uyghur Genocide Mamtimin Ala explains how Uyghur rights have been diminishing under the authoritarian rule of the CCP which has recently escalated into the cultural genocide of Uyghurs Since Xi Jinping became President of the People's Republic of China in 2013 he has clearly defined his political agenda towards Uyghurs of implementing the Four Breaks intended to break their lineage break their roots break their connections and break their origins The situation has now rapidly deteriorated at an alarming rate Millions of Uyghur families have been separated with an estimated more than one million Uyghurs being indiscriminately placed in concentration camps under the guise of re education Xi has justified this as a fight against the Three Evils terrorism separatism and religious extremism Uyghurs are subject to forced thought reform torture rape organ harvesting slave labor and ultimately death in the shrouded secrecy of the camps in the very eyes of the world For Uyghurs in exile they face an endless uncertainty cut off from their families back home without knowing whether they are alive or dead and are harassed by Chinese security agents with threats against their family back home if they speak out against these atrocities The world has to date largely remained silent over this genocide due to economic ties with China in the era of globalization In reflecting upon this situation the question remains Who has the courage to speak up and act against this totalitarian regime of the Chinese Communist Party which is committing one of the worst genocides of the twenty first century before it is too late to repeat the chilling warning of Never Again The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, 1899 Aetius Peter Keating, 2024-08-06 Aetius is a thrilling historical novel that tells the story of Flavius Aetius the last great Roman general who fought against the barbarian invasions that threatened the empire in the fifth century The book follows his rise to power his battles and alliances with various peoples and his final showdown with Attila the Hun at the Battle of Chalons Aetius is a captivating and well researched book that brings to life a fascinating and heroic figure who deserves more recognition in history History of the decline and fall of the Roman Empire Edward Gibbon,1875 Encyclopedia of Barbarian Europe Michael Frassetto,2003-05-23 The first comprehensive reference work devoted exclusively to this dark but critical period in the history of Western civilization In the Encyclopedia of Barbarian Europe medieval expert Michael Frassetto amasses the evidence for the defense and prosecution of this little understood transition era in the history of Western civilization Covering nearly 1 000 years of history from the late ancient period through the first centuries of the Middle Ages this concise but thorough reference work examines the key figures places events and ideas of barbarian Europe This title chronicles the ancient Visigoths the rule of Benedict and the sacking of Rome The easy to access alphabetical entries and essays offer more than a mere chronicling of kings and battles and explore the social and cultural history of the era with special attention played to the role of women The Cambridge Companion to the Age of Attila Michael Maas,2015 This book considers the great cultural and geopolitical changes in western Eurasia in the fifth century CE It focuses on the Roman Empire but it also examines the changes taking place in northern Europe in Iran under the Sasanian Empire and on the great Eurasian steppe Attila is presented as a contributor to and a symbol of these transformations Ottoman Harem Ahmed Akgunduz,2015-06-26 Thirty years ago we have published The Ottoman Harem in Turkish and I have given a copy to kran Vahide Mary Weld to evaluate and to translate to English She has translated the Risale-i Nur Collection completely and is a native in English When she had completed the translation she told me Dr Akgunduz I have enjoyed translating this book and I think that this book is very important in historical and religious sense I have spent five years preparing this work Male and Female Slavery in Islam and the Ottoman Harem The product of those five years work has now been published in English The subjects discussed in this book are as follows Part One the distortions and misrepresentations of male and female slavery and the harem together with some examples Part Two male and female slavery in non Muslim societies and in other religions Part Three the institutions of male and female slavery in Islamic law Part Four aspects of the practice of slavery male and female in the Ottoman state Part Five an investigation of the question what is the harem Part Six a lady governess's memoirs of the harem Part Seven the replies to a number of important questions on these subjects My request of readers is that they read the sections they are interested in and particularly that they study Parts One Five and Seven I realize that Part Two is a slight digression but I am of the opinion that the comparison is necessary in order to illuminate slavery in Islam and in the Ottoman state Ahmed Cevdet Pasha says To own slaves in Islam is to be a slave What should be realized here is that Islam did not introduce slavery So how was slavery practised in other societies and religions How did other religions and peoples act towards slaves Since Everything is known through its opposites it is essential to know this in order to understand male and female slavery in Islamic law and the harem in Ottoman society The women in the Sultan's harem lived under very strict discipline They lived an enclosed life in their apartments just as they paid great attention to these matters when they were out on trips or travelling Since it was thus does it conform to historical fact to show them to be immodest and overly free and easy as in the films made recently Does this reflect history as it was lived or is it make belief This should be pondered over fairly and reasonably The Times Literary Supplement ,1982 The Early Medieval World Michael Frassetto,2013-03-14 This book examines a pivotal period in ancient human history the fall of the Roman Empire and the birth of a new European civilization in the early Middle Ages The Early Medieval World From the Fall of Rome to the Time of Charlemagne addresses the social and material culture of this critical period in the evolution of Western society covering the social political cultural and religious history of the Mediterranean world and northern Europe The two volume set explains how invading and migrating barbarian tribes spurred by raiding Huns from the steppes of Central Asia contributed to the fall of the Western Roman Empire and documents how the blending of Greco Roman Germanic and Christian cultures birthed a new civilization in Western Europe creating the Christian Church and the modern nation state A Z entries discuss political transformation changing religious practices in daily life sculpture and the arts material culture and social structure and provide biographies of important men and women in the transitional period of late antiquity The work will be extremely helpful to students learning about the factors that contributed to the decline of the Roman Empire an important and common topic in world history curricula Láthatatlan ember.
