Nyanto,2024-11-19 The first historical account of the dramatic growth of Christianity in Western Tanzania during the twentieth century and of the role of former slaves in this process Examining the intersection of post slavery and evangelism this book shows the ways that former slaves from a variety of linguistic and cultural backgrounds came together to create new communities in the Christian missions of western Tanzania It shows how converts adapted to Christianity and at the same time shaped it through their translations of the Bible and other religious texts into the Kinyamwezi language integrating concepts from their own cultures and experiences of slavery Working as teachers pastors and catechists former slaves and their descendants laid the basis for the growth of African Christianity in the region and the book pays particular attention to women s agency in creating spaces for negotiating kinship ties and mutual relations with the wider communities It also delves into the range of missionary sources to show the experience of lay Christians who opposed religious authority in Catholic and Moravian missions examining the division caused by catechists demands for equality of status recognition and appropriate pay in the context of ujamaa and the turmoil brought about by the revival movement Through narratives of religious experience from multiple missions and village outstations the book shows how former slaves created a Kinyamwezi speaking Christian culture taking inspiration both from European missionaries and neighbouring African villagers and became part of evolving rural communities in the inter war period enabling their descendants to achieve a significant degree of social mobility Slave Trade Profiteers in the Western Indian Ocean Hideaki Suzuki,2017-10-12 This book

Mbogoni, 2012-11-20 Aspects of Colonial Tanzanian History is a collection of essays that examines the lives and experiences of both colonizers and the colonized during colonial rule in what is today known as Tanzania Dr Mbogoni examines a range of topics hitherto unexplored by scholars of Tanzania history namely excessive alcohol consumption the sundowners adultery and violence among the colonial officials attitudes to inter racial sexual liaisons especially between Europeans and Africans game poaching European settler vigilantism radio broadcasting film production and the nature of Arab slavery in Zanzibar A particularly noteworthy case related to European vigilantism is examined the trial of Oldus Elishira a Maasai for the murder of a European settler farmer in 1955 The victim Harold M Stuchbery was speared to death when he attempted to arrest a group of Maasai young men who were passing through his farm The event highlighted the differences in the concepts of justice held by Maasai and the imported justice systems from the colonizers It also raised vexing questions about the colonial judges acquittal of Oldus Elishira while the Maasai who should have been satisfied with that decision decided to take it upon themselves to mete out an appropriate punishment to Elshira instead of total acquittal and to compensate Mrs Stuchbery for the death of her husband by giving her a number of heads of cattle
