So-- how Does the Rope Get Up There Anyway? Kathy Myers, Mark Blanchard, 1997 Folktales of Newfoundland
Pbdirect J.D.A. Widdowson, Herbert Halpert, 2015-02-20 This collection of Newfoundland folk narratives first published in 1996 grew out of extensive fieldwork in folk culture in the province The intention was to collect as broad a spectrum of traditional material as possible and Folktales of Newfoundland is notable not only for the number and quality of its narratives but also for the format in which they are presented A special transcription system conveys to the reader the accents and rhythms of each performance and the endnote to each tale features an analysis of the narrator's language In addition Newfoundland has preserved many aspects of English and Irish folk tradition some of which are no longer active in the countries of their origin Working from the premise that traditions virtually unknown in England might still survive in active form in Newfoundland the researchers set out to discover if this was in fact the case Thinking Out Loud Through the American West Pete Sinclair, 1999 Caught in the Crossfire Alan Gibbons, 2010-12-23 Set in a Northern town where right wingers are determined to stir up hatred and racial prejudice CAUGHT IN THE CROSSFIRE is about six teenagers whose lives are woven together by a series of shocking and tragic events A British Muslim brother and sister two Irish brothers who take different sides and two lads out looking for trouble all of them get caught in the crossfire Inspired by the Oldham riots and the events of September 11th this is a book that needed to be written It is a chilling account of what is happening in Britain today but as always Alan Gibbons writes with humour and understanding and is utterly on the wavelength of his many readers Nasha Bil Hoga, He Who Walks Alone Mike Wyant, 2013-02-22 An eleven year old Navajo boy is taken by force from his Arizona reservation home and bussed to Fort Sill Indian School near Lawton and Fort Sill Oklahoma in 1949 The U S law requires the Navajo children to attend school in a federally operated boarding school The boy is treated roughly at his capture and on the bus trip He vows to escape from the school and walk run back the eight hundred miles back to his home realizing he has no money and does not trust the white man He is forced to rely on his survival skills He makes several friends at the school However in the spring he leaves at night and starts his journey home The challenges he faces at the school and also his journey and how he overcomes those challenges are detailed When he finally reaches his home area he hears crying from several people and creeps through the sagebrush to see what is happening The same government agents who seized him are trying to wrestle an eight year old girl from her mother and grandmother and put her on the bus But while that happens the boy slips unnoticed on to the bus and invites all the children to follow him and he will hide and protect them until the agents have gone and stopped looking for them Twenty one of the children come with him and he hikes for two days covering his trails until he reaches an old unknown cliff dwelling that he and his family had stayed at many times It is well hidden For close to a year the children survive in the cliff dwelling learning Indian skills from the boy and school skills from a twelve year old girl Meanwhile a large political battle takes place for many months and finally the law is changed so the Navajo children can stay on the reservation to learn the white mans ways and education When all the papers have been signed by the Congress and the president the childrens group is able to return home A large dinner is planned by the tribal council for their return At this dinner the boy Jeff White Cloud has his name formally changed by the tribal leaders to Nasha Bi Hoga He Who Walks Alone Traditions of the Skidi Pawnee George Amos Dorsey,1904 American Boy ,1913
