The Compact History Of The American Newspaper:

The Compact History of the American Newspaper John William Tebbel, 1966 The Compact History of the American Newspapers John Tebbel, 1963 Newswriters Hanno Hardt, Bonnie Brennen, 1995 Focusing on the period from the 1850s through the 1930s the contributors show how issues of labor and class have been far more important in the formation of media institutions than previous accounts concede These essays recover the history of ethnic and cultural diversity including the contributions of women that have enriched the process of communication A Thousand Deadlines: The New York City Press and American Neutrality, 1914-17 K.J. O'Keefe, 2012-12-06 This study is an attempt to chronicle and analyse the attitudes of the New York press in connection with the events of the period from 1914 to 1917 relating to American neutrality It is based primarily on a day to day study of sixteen daily newspapers in New York City for the period of American non participation in the First World War The research involved not only editorial opinion but also news items feature articles letters to the editor book reviews and special commentary The files of the major New York newspapers of the period naturally constituted the basic sources In addition to this use was made of the memoirs diaries and private papers of editors publishers and other public figures the Congressional Record 1914 1917 Congressional hearings and reports 1915 1919 1936 and 1937 certain British and German materials books articles and other secondary sources The author also drew upon the recollections of New Yorkers active in journalism during the period The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Daily Life in America Randall M. Miller, 2008-12-30 The course of daily life in the United States has been a product of tradition environment and circumstance How did the Civil War alter the lives of women both white and black left alone on southern farms How did the Great Depression change the lives of working class families in eastern cities How did the discovery of gold in California transform the lives of native American Hispanic and white communities in western territories Organized by time period as spelled out in the National Standards for U S History these four volumes effectively analyze the diverse whole of American experience examining the domestic economic intellectual material political recreational and religious life of the American people between 1763 and 2005 Working under the editorial direction of general editor Randall M Miller professor of history at St Joseph s University a group of expert volume editors carefully integrate material drawn from volumes in Greenwood s highly successful Daily Life Through History series with new material researched and written by themselves and other scholars The four volumes cover the following periods The War of Independence and Antebellum Expansion and Reform 1763 1861 The Civil War Reconstruction and the Industrialization of America 1861 1900 The Emergence of Modern America World War I and the Great Depression 1900 1940 and Wartime Postwar and Contemporary America 1940 Present Each volume includes a selection of primary documents a timeline of important events during the period images illustrating the text and extensive bibliography of further information resources both print and electronic and a detailed subject index Henry R. Luce and the Rise of the American News Media

James L. Baughman, 2001 A solid account of Luce's life and legacy A concise readable volume Journalism Quarterly

Media, Sports, and Society Lawrence A. Wenner, 1989-08 Media Sports and Society provides a foundation for research on the communication of sports The volume is framed by a seminal article outlining the parameters of the communication of sports and pointing to major issues that need to be addressed in the relationship between sports and media Contributors examine the theoretical cultural and historical issues the production of media sports programming its content and its audience Individual chapters include a discussion of the spectacle of media sports a comparison of Super Bowl Football and World Cup Soccer a consideration of the spectators enjoyment of sports violence the rhetoric of winning and the American dream and a fascinating examination of gender harmony and sports in Historical Phases of the New York Herald-Tribune

Heinz-Dietrich Fischer, 2022-07-06 This volume concentrates on the history of the acclaimed New York Herald Tribune 1924 1966 and its two forerunners the New York Herald 1835 1924 and the New York Tribune 1841 1924 and the Pulitzer Prizes won by them In addition a look is also given to the International Herald Tribune the newspaper's European Edition published in Paris Heinz Dietrich Fischer EdD PhD is Professor Emeritus at the Ruhr University of Bochum Germany The Republic Afloat

Matthew Taylor Raffety, 2024-05-31 In the years before the Civil War many Americans saw the sea as a world apart an often violent and insular culture governed by its own definitions of honor and ruled by its own authorities The truth however is that legal cases that originated at sea had a tendency to come ashore and force the national government to address questions about personal honor dignity the rights of labor and the meaning and privileges of citizenship often for the first time By examining how and why merchant seamen and their officers came into contact with the law Matthew Taylor Raffety exposes the complex relationship between brutal crimes committed at sea and the development of a legal consciousness within both the judiciary and among seafarers in this period The Republic Afloat tracks how seamen conceived of themselves as individuals and how they defined their place within the United States Of interest to historians of labor law maritime culture and national identity in the early republic Raffety's work reveals much about the ways that merchant seamen sought to articulate the ideals of freedom and citizenship before the courts of the land and how they helped to shape the laws of the young republic

The Norwegian's Diary Daniel Pawley, 2024-10-17 In the closing days of the 20th century author Daniel Pawley discovered a Norwegian American immigrant's diary from a century earlier while browsing for old books at a Minnesota garage sale With fascination he read the diary from cover to cover turned the experience into a prize winning magazine article and then filed it away in memory More than two decades later however as an immigrant himself from America to Portugal he rediscovered the diary and his original notes marveling at topics and themes all immigrants have in common Both the excitement and insecurity of transitioning to a new culture and way of life stood out to him even though the original diary told the story of a man whose life was characterized by far greater problems experienced by immigrants to America in earlier times The daily torture of pre labor union industrial life as well as the tragedies of family rearing amid poor economic conditions stand out in this regard raising questions about America's past present and perhaps future too This is a story worth revisiting by all who have interests in America or immigration and by anyone who has felt trapped by circumstances but energized by life changing journeys of hope and promise The Sun and the Moon Matthew Goodman, 2010-05 On August 26 1835 a fledgling newspaper called the Sun brought to New York the first accounts of remarkable lunar discoveries A series of six articles reported the existence of life on the moon including unicorns beavers that walked on their hind legs and four foot tall flying man bats In a matter of weeks it was the most broadly circulated newspaper story of the era and the Sun a working class upstart became the most widely read paper in the world An exhilarating narrative history of a divided city on the cusp of greatness and tale of a crew of writers editors and charlatans who stumbled on a new kind of journalism The Sun and the Moon tells the surprisingly true story of the penny papers that made America a nation of newspaper readers
