The Complete Poetry Of Ben Jonson The Norton Library Seventeenth Century Series:

The Complete Poetry of Ben Jonson Ben Jonson, 1968 Letters of Rainer Maria Rilke, 1892-1910 Rainer Maria Rilke, 2014-04-07 This representative selection from Rilke's large and extraordinary correspondence provides a kind of spiritual autobiography of the poet. The period here covered reflects all the great experiences of Rilke's early adult life: his difficult beginnings, his relationships with Lou Andreas Salome and with his wife Clara, his two journeys to Russia, his contact with the Worpswede artists, the influence of Paris, the revelation of Cezanne. Many of the letters are psychologically revealing, many touch upon characteristic themes or freshly transcribe experience that sooner or later passes into the poetry.

Letters of Rainer Maria Rilke, 1910-1926 Rainer Maria Rilke, 2014-04-07 This volume of Rilke's letters covers the years from the completion of The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge to Rilke's death in December 1926, nearly five years after he had written the Duino Elegies and the Sonnets to Orpheus, his last major works. There are important letters here to Muzot, Lou Andreas Salome, to Princess Marie of Thurn and Taxis, Hohenlohe, and many others. The most significant of the Wartime Letters, 1914-1921, are also included. An Introduction briefly traces the development of Rilke's work during these years; the Notes provide the necessary framework of biographical details and point up significant references to the poetry.

The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1886 The Wakefield Mystery Plays Martial Rose, 1951 The Virginia Quarterly Review, 1968 Monographic Series Library of Congress, Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980 Works Thomas Campion, 1970 Women, Reading, and the Cultural Politics of Early Modern England Edith Snook, 2017-07-05 A study of the representation of reading in early modern Englishwomen's writing, this book exists at the intersection of textual criticism and cultural history. It looks at depictions of reading in devotional works, maternal advice books, poetry, fiction, and manuscripts for evidence of ways in which women conceived of reading in sixteenth and early seventeenth century England. Among the texts considered are Katherine Parr's Lamentation of a Sinner, Anne Askew's The Examinations, Dorothy Leigh's The Mothers Blessing, Elizabeth Grymston's Miscelanea, Meditations Memoratives, Anne Cornwallis's commonplace book Folger MS V a 89, Aemelia Lanyer's Salve Deus Rex Judaeorum, The Death and Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ (Bodleian MS Don e 17), and Mary Wroth's The First Part of The Countess of Montgomery's Urania. The Nature of the Page Joshua Calhoun, 2020-01-24 An innovative study of books and reading that focuses on papermaking in the Renaissance. In The Nature of the Page, Joshua Calhoun tells the story of handmade paper in Renaissance England and beyond. For most of the history of printing, paper was made primarily from recycled rags, so this is a story about using old clothes to tell new stories about plants used to make clothes and about plants that frustrated papermakers' best attempts to replace scarce natural resources with abundant ones. Because plants like humans are susceptible to the ravages of time, it is also a story of corruption and the hope that we can preserve the things we love from decay. Combining environmental and bibliographical research with deft literary analysis, Calhoun reveals how much we have left to discover in familiar texts He describes the transformation of plant material into a sheet of paper details how ecological availability or scarcity influenced literary output in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries and examines the impact of the various colors and qualities of paper on early modern reading practices Through a discussion of sizing the mixture used to coat the surface of paper so that ink would not blot into its fibers he reveals a surprising textual interaction between animals and readers He shows how we might read an indistinct stain on the page of an early modern book to better understand the mixed media surfaces on which readers writers and printers recorded and revised history Lastly Calhoun considers how early modern writers imagined paper decay and how modern scholars grapple with biodeterioration today Exploring the poetic interplay between human ideas and the plant animal and mineral forms through which they are mediated The Nature of the Page prompts readers to reconsider the role of the natural world in everything from old books to new smartphones Bread Scott Cutler Shershow, 2016-07-28 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things Bread is an object that is always in process of becoming something else flower to grain grain to dough dough to loaf loaf to crumb Bread is also often a figure or vehicle of social cohesion from the homely image of breaking bread together to the mysteries of the Eucharist But bread also commonly figures in social conflict sometimes literally in the bread riots that punctuate European history and sometimes figuratively in the ways bread operates as ethnic religious or class signifier Drawing on a wide range of sources from the scriptures to modern pop culture Bread tells the story of how this ancient and everyday object serves as a symbol for both social communion and social exclusion Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic Sir Philip Sidney, Cultural Icon R. Hillyer, 2010-04-12 This study analyzes Sir Philip Sidney's reputation from his own day to the present by discussing his reception in the work of authors as diverse in time and type as Sir Fulke Greville Christopher Hill Charles Lamb Edmund Waller and Thomas Warton the elder Darke Hieroglyphicks Stanton J. Linden, 2014-07-11 The literary influence of alchemy and hermeticism in the work of most medieval and early modern authors has been overlooked Stanton Linden now provides the first comprehensive examination of this influence on English literature from the late Middle Ages through the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Drawing extensively on alchemical allusions as well as on the practical and theoretical background of the art and its pictorial tradition Linden demonstrates the pervasiveness of interest in alchemy during this three hundred year period Most writers including Langland Gower Barclay Erasmus Sidney Greene Lyly and Shakespeare were familiar with alchemy and references to it appear in a wide range of genres Yet the purposes it served in literature from Chaucer through Jonson were narrowly satirical In literature of the seventeenth century especially in the poetry of Donne Herbert Vaughan and Milton the functions of alchemy changed Focusing on Bacon Donne Herbert Vaughan and Milton in addition to Jonson and Butler Linden demonstrates the emergence of new attitudes and innovative themes motifs images and ideas The use of alchemy to suggest spiritual growth and change purification regeneration and millenarian ideas reflected important new emphases in alchemical medical and occultist writing This new tradition did not continue however and Butler's return to satire was contextualized in the antagonism of the Royal Society and religious Latitudinarians to philosophical enthusiasm and the occult Butler like Shadwell and Swift expanded the range of satirical victims to include experimental scientists as well as occult charlatans The literary uses of alchemy thus reveal the changing intellectual milieus of three centuries Books in Print, 1991
