Modernist Parasites Sebastian Williams, 2023-08-22 Modernist Parasites Bioethics Dependency and Literature Post 1900 analyzes biological and social parasites in the political scientific and literary imagination With the rise of Darwinism eugenics and parasitology in the late nineteenth century Sebastian Williams posits that the parasite came to be humanity's ultimate other a dangerous antagonist But many authors such as Isaac Rosenberg John Steinbeck Franz Kafka Clarice Lispector Nella Larsen and George Orwell reconsider parasitism Ultimately parasites inherently depend on others for their survival illustrating the limits of ethical models that privilege the discrete individual above interdependent communities The Day of the Locust - Nathanael West Nathanael West, 2024-06-21 Nathanael West originally named Nathan Weinstein 1903 1940 was an American writer primarily known for his satirical novels of the 1930s His best known works are The Day of the Locust and Miss Lonelyhearts Published in 1939 The Day of the Locust is a novel about the mythologies of Hollywood and the American Dream Enigmatic and disconcerting this work narrates the experience of a set designer in a semi hallucinatory and artificial Los Angeles itself resembling a movie set inhabited by a parade of eccentric characters and a crowd bewitched by the magic of cinema and promises of abundance and happiness Both apocalyptic and moving violent and absurdly comic The Day of the Locust is in the opinion of many the best novel ever written about Hollywood Literature and the Grotesque Michael J. Meyer, 2023-04-12 The Complete Works Nathanael West, 1971 Fiction of the Modern Grotesque Bernard McElroy, 1989-07-31 Hollywood and Anti-Semitism Steven Alan Carr, 2001 This book examines the role of American Jews in the entertainment industry from the turn of the century to the outbreak of World War II Eastern European Jewish immigrants are often credited with building a film industry during the first decade of the twentieth century that they dominated by the 1920s In this study Steven Carr reconceptualizes Jewish involvement in Hollywood by examining prevalent attitudes towards Jews among American audiences Analogous to the Jewish Question of the nineteenth century which was concerned with the full participation of Jews within public life the Hollywood Question of the 1920s 30s and 40s addressed the Jewish population within mass media This study reveals the powerful set of assumptions concerning ethnicity and media influence as related to the role of the Jew in the motion picture industry The Comedy of Entropy Patrick

O'Neill, 1990-12-15 Entropic comedy is the phrase coined by Patrick O'Neill in this study to identify a particular mode of twentieth century narrative that is not generally recognized. He describes it as the narrative expression of forms of decentred humour or what might more loosely be called black humour. O'Neill begins his investigation by examining the rise of an essentially new form of humour over the last three hundred years or so in the context of a rapid decay of confidence in traditional authoritative value systems. O'Neill analyses the resulting reorganization of the spectrum of humour and examines the implications of this for the ways in which we read texts and the world we live in. He then turns from intellectual history to narratology and considers the relationship in theoretical terms of humour, play and narrative as systems of discourse and the role of the reader as a textualizing agent. Finally, he considers some dozen twentieth century narratives in French, German and English with occasional reference to other literatures in the context of those historical and theoretical concerns. Authors of the texts analysed include Celine, Camus, Sartre and Robbe-Grillet in French; Heller, Beckett, Pynchon, Nabokov and Joyce in English; Grass, Kafka and Handke in German. The analyses proceed along lines suggested by structuralist, semiotic and post-structuralist narrative and literary theory. From his analyses of these works, O'Neill concludes they illustrate in narrative terms a mode of modern writing definable as entropic comedy and he develops a taxonomy of the mode. Mapping

Reality Geoff King, 1996-04-12 An original and wide-ranging study of the mappings used to impose meaning on the world. Mapping Reality argues that maps create rather than merely represent the ground on which they rest. Distinctions between map and territory questioned by some theorists of the postmodern have always been arbitrary. From the history of cartography to the mappings of culture, sexuality and nation, Geoff King draws on an extensive range of materials including mappings imposed in the colonial settlement of America, the Cold War, Vietnam and the events since the collapse of the Soviet bloc. He argues for a deconstruction of the opposition between map and territory to allow dominant mappings to be challenged, their contours redrawn and new grids imposed. Daughter of the Dragon: Anna May Wong's Rendezvous with American History Yunte Huang, 2023-08-22 One of the Atlantic's Books to Get Lost in This Summer. Best Books of August 2023. New York Times Book Review. Christian Science Monitor. InsideHook. BookRiot. WNET. AllArts. Arlington Magazine. A trenchant reclamation of the Chinese American movie star whose battles against cinematic exploitation and endemic racism are set against the currents of twentieth century history. Born into the steam and starch of a Chinese laundry, Anna May Wong, 1905-1961, emerged from the turn of the century Los Angeles to become Old Hollywood's most famous Chinese American actress, a screen siren who captivated global audiences and signed her publicity photos with a touch of defiance: 'Oriental, yours.' Now, more than a century after her birth, Yunte Huang narrates Wong's tragic life story, retracing her journey from Chinatown to silent era Hollywood and from Weimar Berlin to decadent prewar Shanghai and capturing American television in its infancy. As Huang shows Wong's rendezvous with history, features a remarkable parade of characters including a smitten Walter Benjamin and an equally smitten Marlene Dietrich. Challenging the parodically racist perceptions of Wong as a Dragon Lady.

Madame Butterfly or China Doll Huang's biography becomes a truly resonant work of history that reflects the raging anti-Chinese xenophobia unabashed sexism and ageism toward women that defined both Hollywood and America in Wong's all too brief fifty six years on earth Sweet and Lowdown Lloyd Michaels, 2017-03-07 Over a career that has spanned more than six decades Woody Allen has explored the emotion of regret as a response to the existentialist dilemma of not being someone else Tracing this recurrent theme from his stand up comedy routines and apprentice work through classics like Annie Hall Manhattan The Purple Rose of Cairo Hannah and Her Sisters and Bullets Over Broadway as well as less esteemed accomplishments Another Woman Sweet and Lowdown Cassandra's Dream this volume argues that it is ultimately the shallowness of his protagonists regret their lack of deeply felt sustained remorse that defines Allen's pervasive view of human experience Drawing on insights from philosophy theology psychology and literature the book discusses nearly every Woody Allen film with extended analyses of the relationship films including Alice and Husbands and Wives and Children the murder tetralogy including Match Point and Irrational Man the self reflexive films including Stardust Memories and Deconstructing Harry and the movies about nostalgia including Radio Days and Midnight in Paris The book concludes by considering Allen's most affirmative resolution of regret Broadway Danny Rose and speculating about the relevance of this through line for understanding Allen's personal life and prospects as an octogenarian auteur Camera-cut-composition Aaron Sultanik, 1995 According to author Aaron Sultanik the viewer's response to a film derives from three visually ascertained dramatically realized cognitive elements 1 the multiple points of view of a camera's placement angle and mobility 2 the dynamic spatiotemporal assemblage of a film's editing 3 and the final meaning of a film through the story's pictorial stylization The Faith of a Heretic Walter A. Kaufmann, 2015-06-09 Originally published in 1959 The Faith of a Heretic is the most personal statement of the beliefs of Nietzsche biographer and translator Walter Kaufmann A first rate philosopher in his own right Kaufmann here provides the fullest account of his views on religion Although he considered himself a heretic he was not immune to the wellsprings and impulses from which religion originates declaring it among the most vital and radical expressions of the human mind Beginning with an autobiographical prologue that traces his evolution from religious believer to heretic the book touches on theology organized religion morality suffering and death all examined from the perspective of a quest for honesty Kaufmann also subjects philosophy's faith in truth reason and absolute morality to the same heretical treatment The resulting exploration of the faiths of a nonbeliever in a secular age is as fresh and challenging as when it was first published In a new foreword Stanley Corngold vividly describes the intellectual and biographical milieu of Kaufmann's provocative book
