The Concise Cambridge History of English Literature George Sampson, Reginald Charles Churchill, 1970-02-02
Based on The Cambridge history of English literature      Studying Transcultural Literary History Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, 2012-03-12 In our globalised world literature is less and less confined to national spaces Europe centred frameworks for literary studies have become insufficient academics are increasingly called upon to address matters of cultural difference In this unique volume leading scholars discuss the critical and methodical challenges that these developments pose to the writing of literary history What is the object of literary history What is the meaning of the term world literature How do we compare different cultural systems of genres How do we account theoretically for literary transculturation What are the implications of postcolonial studies for the discipline of comparative literature Ranging in focus from the Persian epic of Majnun Layla and Zulu praise poetry to South Korean novels and Brazilian antropofagismo the essays offer a concise overview of these and related questions Their aim is not to reach a consensus on these matters They show instead what is at stake in the emergent field of global comparatism      How to Write Anything John J. Ruszkiewicz, Jay T. Dolmage, 2010-07-08 Click here to find out about the 2009 MLA Updates and the 2010 APA Updates Designed to be clear and simple How to Write Anything re imagines how texts work with support for students wherever they are in their writing process The Guide in Parts 1 and 2 lays out focused advice for writing common genres while the Reference in Parts 3 through 9 covers the range of writing and research skills that students need as they work across genres and disciplines Intuitive cross referencing and a modular chapter organization that s simple to follow make it easy for students to work back and forth between the chapters and still stay focused on their own writing Now also available in a version with 50 fresh additional readings from a wide range of sources organized by the genres covered in the guide The result is everything you need to teach composition in a flexible highly visual guide reference and reader Introducing Author Talk Watch our video interview with Jay Dolmage      How to Write Anything with 2009 MLA and 2010 APA Updates John J. Ruszkiewicz, 2010-07-15 Click here to find out about the 2009 MLA Updates and the 2010 APA Updates Designed to be clear and simple How to Write Anything combines the thoughtfulness of rhetorics with the efficiency of brief handbooks Through memorable visuals and honest talk John Ruszkiewicz shows students how to write in any situation wherever they are in their writing process With everything you need to teach composition the Guide lays out focused advice for writing common genres while the Reference covers the range of writing and research skills that students need as they work across genres and disciplines An intuitive visual cross referencing system and a modular chapter organization that s simple to follow make it even easier for students to work back and forth between chapters and stay focused on their own writing      The Cambridge History of English Literature Sir Adolphus William Ward, Alfred Rayney Waller, 1907      Out Here Tomasz Basiuk, Dominika Ferens, Tomasz Sikora, 2009-03-26 Out Here originates from a series of queer studies conferences which took place in Poland between 2002 and 2004 and includes essays an autobiographical account and two short stories Their authors are of eight nationalities Canadian Belgian Flemish German Hungarian Polish Spanish Ukrainian and U S American The academic papers represent a wide range of disciplines philosophy literature ethnography cultural and gender studies Some combine theoretical insights and critical analysis with suggestions for activism The short stories explore the formative moments of a queer adolescence in Anglophone Canada The eclecticism of Out Here reflects the cauldron like mix of concerns taken up locally in places considered peripheral in relation to the centers of queer theory in British and American academia It is out here or back then often within the context of rampant homophobia that queer methodologies prove especially productive Out here queer theory is alive and kicking Whether the authors write about sexual awakenings in Sri Lanka and Canada or heterosexism in contemporary Ukraine Hungary Belgian parks and 1970s Britain or racial exclusion in American gay bars or the veiled homophobia of Polish textbooks what connects them is the commitment to questioning the limitations placed on queer desire

The Cambridge History of English Literature: From the beginnings to the cycles of romance Sir Adolphus William Ward, Alfred Rayney Waller, 1920      Living British Literature David Jacobo Viveros Granja, María Catalina Caro Torres, María Alejandra Velasco Velandia, 2021-07-30 This book offers intermediate learners of English as a Foreign Language an original and stimulating learning experience It introduces them to the beginnings of British literature starting from the Anglo Saxon world and continuing up to the beginning of the Renaissance The texts chosen cover the development of poetry narrative and the theatre and the historical and social context from which they are drawn No attempt has been made to offer an encyclopaedic survey of all authors and their works Rather a representative selection has been made from the various historical periods including many classic works      A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This text is an introduction to the full range of standard reference tools in all branches of English studies More than 10 000 titles are included The Reference Guide covers all the areas traditionally defined as English studies and all the field of inquiry more recently associated with English studies British and Irish American and world literatures written in English are included Other fields covered are folklore film literary theory general and comparative literature language and linguistics rhetoric and composition bibliography and textual criticism and women s studies      Writing in Nonstandard English Irma Taavitsainen, Gunnel Melchers, Päivi Pahta, 2000-02-15 This book investigates linguistic variation as a complex continuum of language use from standard to nonstandard In our view these notions can only be established through mutual definition and they cannot exist without the opposite pole What is considered standard English changes according to the approach at hand and the nonstandard changes accordingly This book offers an interdisciplinary and multifaceted approach to this central theme of wide interest The articles approach writing in nonstandard language through various disciplines and methodologies sociolinguistics pragmatics historical linguistics dialectology corpus linguistics and ideological and political points of view The theories and methods from these fields are applied to material that ranges from nonliterary writing to canonized authors

Dialects regional varieties and worldwide Englishes are also addressed      Lafcadio Hearn in International Perspectives Sukehiro Hirakawa, 2007-03-29 The East West controversy over the significance and relevance of Lafcadio Hearn as a writer thinker and interpreter of Japan continues unabated Not surprisingly the centenary of his death in 2004 presented an occasion for renewed debate and discussion by both sides of the divide This volume edited by one of Hearn s leading contemporary apologists in which he is also a significant contributor presents twenty two diverse essays drawn from over seventy papers delivered at conferences held in four cities in Japan in 2004 as well as at other international conferences that took place earlier The contributors are Joan Blythe John Clubbe Susan Fisher Ted Goosen George Hughes Yoko Makino Peter McIvor Hitobe Nabae Cody Poulton and Masaru Toda Their contributions range from Sukehiro Hirakawa s A Reappraisal to Joan Blythe s Enduring Value of Lafcadio Hearn s Tokyo Lectures      Thomas Tomkins: The Last Elizabethan Anthony Boden, 2017-07-05 Thomas Tomkins 1572 1656 a major figure of the Golden Age of British music was arguably the greatest of all Welsh born composers Living through one of the most revolutionary periods in British history his professional life was spent in the service of the Crown and the Church at both the Chapel Royal and Worcester Cathedral Surviving the Civil War the suppression of the music of the English Church the closure of the Chapel Royal the destruction of his organ at Worcester and the devastation of the city Tomkins was able to find the strength and inspiration to continue composing secular music of fine quality Much of Tomkins s output has survived including his collection of music for the Anglican rite Musica Deo Sacra published posthumously in 1668 His work embraced both sacred and secular vocal music pieces for keyboard and for viol consort thereby proving him to be one of the most versatile figures of English Renaissance music The first part of the book provides an absorbing biography of Tomkins setting his life into fascinating historical context The second and third parts include major essays on Tomkins by Denis Stevens Bernard Rose Peter James and David Evans all authorities on the music of the period with each providing perceptive insights into Tomkins s music The result is a successful piece of collective work that properly places Tomkins and his achievements in his time and enables readers to reassess him properly in relation to his elders and contemporaries Tomkins has still not reached the household name status of his great teacher William Byrd or of his close friend and colleague Orlando Gibbons but he is undoubtedly worthy of much greater recognition The book complements the increasing number of live performances and recordings of Tomkins s music both sacred and secular and such a comprehensive account of the man and his work should appeal to early music scholars performers and music lovers alike      Biographical Dictionary of English Literature John William Cousin, 1910      ENGLISH LITERATURE

ADVANCING THROUGH HISTORY 4 - The Eighteenth Century Petru Golban, 2022-12-28 It appears that literary work possesses eternal temporal validity due to its autonomous aesthetic value whereas criticism provides points of view having temporary and transitory significance Despite such claims the vector of methodology in our series of books dealing with the history of English literature relies on Viktor Shklovsky T S Eliot Mikhail Bakhtin and especially Yuri Tynyanov whose main reasoning would be that literature is a system of dominant central and peripheral marginalized elements to us tradition centre versus innovation margin engaged in a battle for supremacy demarginalization and the right to form a new literary system and the development or historical advancement of literature is the substitution of systems Roman Jakobson and French structuralism on the whole later Linda Hutcheon with her system and constant and Bran Nicol with the dominant to say nothing about Itamar Even Zohar and his theory of polysystem to a certain extent Julia Kristeva and even Homi Bhabha as well as our humble contribution we would like to believe maintain Tynyanov's line of thinking and concepts alive which have developed and emerged nowadays more like a kind of neo formalism Focusing on literary practice applying critical theory and emerging from within our own teaching experience the books in the present series are theoretical and surveyistic like a monograph whereas their more practical and text oriented aspect should appeal as a student handbook for didactic purposes in which certain literary works belonging to various writers of different trends movements and periods are analysed and compared with regard to their source form thematic arrangements ideas motifs character representation strategies intertextual perspectives structural or narrative techniques and other aspects

ENGLISH LITERATURE ADVANCING THROUGH HISTORY 3 - The Seventeenth Century Petru Golban, 2021-12-24 The present book is third in a series of works which aim to expose the complexity and essence power and extent of the major periods movements trends genres authors and literary texts in the history of English literature Following this aim the series will consist of monographs which cover the most important ages and experiences of English literary history including Anglo Saxon or Old English period the Middle Ages the Renaissance the Restoration neoclassicism romanticism Victorian Age and the twentieth century and contemporary literary backgrounds The reader of these volumes will acquire the knowledge of literary terminology along with the theoretical and critical perspectives on certain texts and textual typology belonging to different periods movements trends and genres The reader will also learn about the characteristics and conventions of these literary periods and movements trends and genres main writers and major works and the literary interaction and continuity of the given periods Apart from an important amount of reference to literary practice some chapters on these periods include information on their philosophy criticism worldview values or episteme in the Foucauldian sense which means that even though the condition of the creative writing remains as the main concern it is balanced by a focus on the condition of thought as well as theoretical and critical writing during a particular period Preface Introduction Approaching Literary Practice and Studying British Literature in History Preliminaries Learning Literary Heritage through Critical Tradition or Back to Tynyanov Genre Theory for Poetry The Intellectual Background 1 1 The Period and Its Historical Social and Cultural Implications 1 2 The Philosophical Advancement of Modernity 1 2 1 Francis Bacon and the New Method 1 2 2 The Advancement of Classicism French Contribution 1 2 3 The Social and Political Philosophy Thomas Hobbes and Leviathan 1 2 4 Rationalists and Empiricists 1 3 The Idea of Literature as a Critical Concern in the Seventeenth Century 1 3 1 The English Battle of the Books
