The Contemporary Family In Singapore:

The Contemporary Family in Singapore Eddie C. Y. Kuo, Aline K. Wong, 1979 Twelve essays on the sociology of the family in Singapore in the modern period Intercultural Variation in Family Research and Theory Roma S Hanks, Marvin B Sussman, 2014-05-12 Intercultural Variation in Family Research and Theory sets forth 23 critical reviews in a 2 volume set that document the development of family research and theory in various societies around the world Focusing on modern research while drawing on the historical roots of theoretical and methodological approaches employed in the study of family this collection not only increases your knowledge about the status of family research in various countries but also inspires cross national research among researchers and scholars The societies being studied have been grouped by region Volume I contains the set s Introduction and contributions from the Far East the Baltic region Australia and South Africa Volume II covers the Middle East Western Europe Scandinavia and also includes the Index The materials in these two volumes are the result of the charge given to scholars of 23 societies to review the development of family theory and research in their homelands Their obligation was to provide an analytic report telling a story from their perspective of reality The book s editors now present some of the commonality of experiences and trends of the researchers and interpret country differences and similarities from their writings Intercultural Variation in Family Research and Theory holds numerous suggestions for your investigations into the family field You ll find that the set adds to the body of knowledge on comparative family analysis and raises concerns and issues for future research The questions addressed in this book include how gender of the investigator influences choice of research topics how funding sources shape the research agenda what influence a researcher s career trajectory has on research topics methods and procedures why psychological and sociological frameworks and methodologies are commonly used in family research how political policy influences and dictates theory development and research what to do about the multitude of new questions that inevitably arise from such intercultural research

Confucianism and the Family Walter H. Slote, George A. De Vos, 1998-07-10 An interdisciplinary exploration of the Confucian family in East Asia which includes historical psychocultural and gender studies perspectives Family and Population Changes in Singapore Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, Shu Hu, 2018-04-17 This book depicts the evolution of Singapore s family and population landscape in the last half a century the related public policies and future challenges Since the country gained independence in 1965 family and population policies have been integral to her nation building strategies The chapters discuss the changes in population compositions family structures relations and values among major ethnic groups They also discuss policies for vulnerable populations such as female headed households cross cultural families same sex partnering the elderly and low income families Singapore Malay/Muslim Community, 1819-2015 Hussin Mutalib, Rokiah Mentol, Sundusia Rosdi, 2016-06-29 Singapore s Malay Muslim community constituting about 15 per cent of the total population and constitutionally enshrined as the indigenous people of Singapore have had its fair share of progress and problems in the history of this country While different aspects of the vicissitudes of life of the community have been written over the years there has not been a singularly substantive published compendium specifically about the community in the form of a Bibliography available This academic initiative fills this obvious literature gap The scope and coverage of this Bibliography is manifestly comprehensive encompassing the different sources of information print or non print about the many facets of life of the Republic s Malays Muslims such as education economy politics culture history health language religion arts and more The result is a Bibliography that is arguably the most expansive if not exhaustive treasury collection about the community ever available anywhere Scholars and researchers in particular and the public in general should find this Bibliography a highly valuable indispensable source of information about the rich and varied life of Singapore s Malay Muslim community stretching a period of two centuries from the time of Stamford Raffles in 1819 until today The Editors Hussin Mutalib Ph D a senior academic with the National University of Singapore Rokiah Mentol and Sundusia Rosdi former senior librarians with Singapore s National Library Board are assisted by professional and experienced librarians
