Social Change in South East Asia Jacques Hersh, Johannes Dragsbaek Schmidt, Niels Fold, 2018-10-08 Provides a comprehensive and in depth examination of the ongoing process of development and societal transformation in a dynamic region of the Third World Written by a team of specialists from the fields of development studies sociology and political economy the book looks at some of the fundamental problems facing South East Asia by addressing the following issues the social constellations class culture and political legitimation and industrialisation and labour regulation      Sociology of South-East Asia Hans-Dieter Evers,1980      Uneven Development in South East Asia Chris Dixon,David Drakakis-Smith,2019-03-25 First published in 1997 this volume responds to the rapid change in mid 1980s South East Asia exploring the uneven distribution of development within the region and providing broad coverage of different aspects of this unevenness at both the regional and national levels Specialists in economics geography planning and South East Asian studies contribute on issues including ethnicity and development in Malaysia disadvantaged groups in Singapore and the impact of social and historical forces on uneven development in the region      Syed Hussein Alatas and Critical Social Theory ,2022-11-21 Known for his most famous works such as The Myth of the Lazy Native 1977 and The Problem of Corruption 1986 as well as his concept of the captive mind Syed Hussein Alatas 1928 2007 has made significant contributions to decolonization theory social theory and other forms of thought critical of the current neo colonial and neoliberal world Although Edward Said acknowledged his debt to Syed Hussein Alatas work especially its influence on Edward W Said s most famous book Orientalism Syed Hussein Alatas work has long been overlooked by Western academia trapped in its Eurocentric perspective Spurred by the commitment to continue the development of Syed Hussein Alatas work this edited volume attempts to demonstrate the relevance of Syed Hussein Alatas to numerous academic fields and the potential for his thought to be transformative in the international socio political realm Twenty authors from various disciplines and countries have contributed to Syed Hussein Alatas and Critical Social Theory Decolonizing the Captive Mind in the hopes of bringing his work to the forefront of social and political theory Contributors are Mona Abaza Joseph Alagha Masturah Alatas Sharifah Munirah Alatas Syed Farid Alatas Syed Imad Alatas Hira Amin Dustin J Byrd Zawawi Ibrahim N Jayaram Teo Lee Ken Habibul Haque Khondker Victor T King Jo o Marcelo E Maia Seyed Javad Miri Carimo Mohamed Chandra Muzaffar Norshahril Saat Mostafa Soueid and Esmaeil Zeiny      Connecting South-South Communities Muhammed Haron,2019-01-03 In addition to offering a comprehensive overview and fair insight over more than twenty five years into the relations between two South Middle Powers namely South Africa and Malaysia this book also discusses them within their respective regional structures and evaluates their respective diplomatic and commercial connections It also explores issues that have generally be neglected by International Relations specialists and in this regard it gives attention to cultural contacts that bring to the fore the critical role of non state actors in international affairs Since the ideas espoused by South Africa and Malaysia s political leaders are rooted in their specific national and broad regional philosophies the study also unpacks the notions of the African ways vis vis the Asian ways in maintaining and sustaining state to state relations within the two regions This book which uses Critical Theory as an appropriate framework that takes full cognisance of various developments in International Relations will be of interest to scholars and researchers in both the Social Sciences and the Humanities      Democracy and Authoritarianism in Indonesia and Malaysia S. Alatas,1997-10-29 The fact that the Malaysian state has managed to maintain a relatively democratic regime while an authoritarian regime came to power in

Indonesia has never been the focus of historical and comparative analyses despite certain cultural social and historical affinities between these two countries This book takes a look at contrasting class structures and alliances elite cohesion state strength as well as differences in political challenges to the state in order to understand two different paths to post colonial state formation

Analyzing the Relationship between Corporate Social Responsibility and Foreign Direct Investment Ojo, Marianne, 2016-08-30 The decisions a corporation makes affect more than just its stakeholders and can have wide social environmental and economic consequences The notion of corporate social responsibility CSR describes the relationship between a business and society as a whole considering all tangential effects of business This facilitates a business environment built around practical regulations and transparency necessary to ensure ethical and responsible business practice Analyzing the Relationship between Corporate Social Responsibility and Foreign Direct Investment explores the relationship between ethical and environmental standards and foreign investment on the international market As certain jurisdictions are hesitant to comply with these standards this publication elucidates the benefits of practicing CSR as a means of sustainable economic growth and to mitigate devastating negative consequences especially in the developing world This book is a key reference source for professionals economists students of business and finance policy makers and government agencies

Economic Development in Southeast Asia Brajendra Kumar, 2007 The Java that Never was Hans Antlöv, Jörgen Hellman, 2005 This book is about how cultures and societies on Java over the past century have been perceived and socially constructed by scholars inside and outside of Indonesia It is a reflective book how on the one hand academic theories have shaped our view of Java and on the other hand how the study of Java has influenced theoretical developments within a number of disciplines including anthropology development studies religious studies political science gender studies and the arts

Liberation from Liberalization Roksana Bahramitash, 2013-07-18 Liberation from Liberalization challenges the neo liberal claim that free market policies bring prosperity and economic development Bahramitash focuses particularly on Southeast Asia where expansion of free markets has led to high GNP per capita growth over the past few decades Focusing on this region the book examines the economic policies adopted in Taiwan Indonesia and the Philippines Drawing upon state centred theories the author argues that limiting the role of the state has been responsible for growing poverty especially among women Seventy percent of those earning less than a dollar a day are women and poverty among rural women is growing much faster than it is among men In order to reverse economic liberalization the state has to be brought back into the economy as a major player and become responsible for providing welfare for its citizens This volume argues in favour of a system that incorporates women s groups into the decision making process of the state while ensuring that the state remain both transparent and subject to the political advocacy of its citizens Bahramitash argues that ultimately the only way to stop liberalization which is trapping millions in poverty is to limit the role of markets through an elected and responsible state with embedded members of civil society such as women s groups

Development Without Freedom Songok Han Thornton, 2016-12-05 Thanks to the inroads of IMFism and the war on terror America has lost much of the soft power it enjoyed in Asia during the early 1990s The winners by default are some of the world's most undemocratic development models such as Sino globalism Asian values took a hard blow from the Asian Crash but have returned in this even more virulent form The West is left sitting on the sidelines of a distinctly Asian contest of development with or without freedom Development Without Freedom explores this crucial trial by development which will define the politics of globalization for decades to come

Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council's international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region

Tracks and Traces Philip Hirsch, Nicholas Tapp, 2010 This volume traces the threads that tie together an understanding of Thailand as a dynamic and rapidly changing society through an examination of the work of one major scholar of the country Andrew Turton Turton's anthropological studies of Thailand cover a wide spectrum from politics and economy to ritual and culture and have been crucial in shaping evolving understandings of Thai society In this collection ten leading specialists on Thailand from a variety of disciplines critically consider aspects of Turton's work in relation to the changing nature of different aspects of Thai society The book tracks the links between past and present scholarship examines the contextuality of scholarship in its times and sheds light on the current situation in Thailand

The Post-Colonial State in the Era of Capitalist Globalization Tariq Amin-Khan, 2012-03-12 State formation in post colonial societies differed greatly from the formation of the Western capitalist state The latter has been extensively studied while a coherent grasp of the post colonial state has remained elusive Amin Khan provides a critical historical and contemporary understanding of post colonial state formations in Asia and Africa and suggests how this process differed from the formation of states in Latin America In distinguishing between the post colonial state and the Western capitalist state the author argues that the unitary colonial state left a strong legacy on the decolonized states of Asia and Africa reinscribing their subordination vis vis Western states transnational corporations and multilateral institutions The indigenous elites decision at the time of decolonization to retain colonial state structures meant the readaptation of capitalism imperialism nexus to suit new post colonial realities which enabled the formation of clientelist relationships This post colonial reality and exploration of the contemporary context provides the basis of analyzing two post colonial state forms the capitalist and proto capitalist varieties which are examined using the case studies of India and Pakistan
