OLANDER, Patricia WARRICK, 1974 Science Fiction and the Dismal Science Gary Westfahl, Gregory Benford, Howard V. Hendrix, 2019-11-27 Despite the growing importance of economics in our lives literary scholars have long been reluctant to consider economic issues as they examine key texts This volume seeks to fill one of these conspicuous gaps in the critical literature by focusing on various connections between science fiction and economics with some attention to related fields such as politics and government Its seventeen contributors include five award winning scholars five science fiction writers and a widely published economist Three topics are covered what noted science fiction writers like Robert A Heinlein Frank Herbert and Kim Stanley Robinson have had to say about our economic and political future how the competitive and ever changing publishing marketplace has affected the growth and development of science fiction from the nineteenth century to today and how the scholars who examine science fiction have themselves been influenced by the economics of academia Although the essays focus primarily on American science fiction the traditions of Russian and Chinese science fiction are also examined A comprehensive bibliography of works related to science fiction and economics will assist other readers and critics who are interested in this subject Science Fiction and Speculative Fiction P. L. Thomas, 2013-09-03 Why did Kurt Vonnegut shun being labeled a writer of science fiction SF How did Margaret Atwood and Ursula K Le Guin find themselves in a public argument about the nature of SF This volume explores the broad category of SF as a genre as one that challenges readers viewers teachers and scholars and then as one that is often itself challenged as the authors in the collection do SF this volume acknowledges is an enduring argument The collected chapters include work from teachers scholars artists and a wide range of SF fans offering a powerful and unique blend of voices to scholarship about SF as well as examinations of the place for SF in the classroom Among the chapters discussions focus on SF within debates for and against SF the history of SF the tensions related to SF and other genres the relationship between SF and science SF novels SF short fiction SF film and visual forms including TV SF young adult fiction SF comic books and graphic novels and the place of SF in contemporary public discourse The unifying thread running through the volume as with

Pilkington, 2017-03-14 Science and science fiction have become inseparable with common stories interconnected thought experiments and shared language This reference book lays out that relationship and its all but magical terms and ideas Those who think seriously about the future are changing the world reshaping how we speak and how we think This book fully covers the terms that collected clarified and crystallized the futurists ideas sometimes showing them off sometimes slowing them down and sometimes propelling them to fame and making them the common currency of our culture The many entries in this encyclopedic work offer a guided tour of the vast territories occupied by science fiction and futurism In his Foreword David Brin says Provocative and enticing Filled with huh moments and leads to great stories That describes this volume

Capital in the Mirror Dan Krier, Mark P. Worrell, 2020-04-01 Aesthetic objects crafted as poetic reflections of the contradictory worlds that they inhabit are simultaneously theorized and theorizing In Capital in the Mirror eminent critical theorists explore the aesthetic dimension for reflective visions of capital that are difficult to obtain through even the most rigorous statistical analyses Chapters address inequality alienation ideology warfare and other problems of contemporary capitalism through the cultural prisms of Herman Melville Thomas Mann Charles Dickens J W Goethe Friedrich Hlderlin Walt Whitman Bertolt Brecht and science fiction cinema Famous narrative elements in their works such as Ahab s pursuit of the white whale in Melville s Moby Dick demonic production and perverse desire in Mann s Doctor Faustus socially electrified bodies of Whitman's Leaves of Grass and dystopian projections of current sci fi cinema are theorized as stylistically distorted reflections of social life within capital. The authors reveal theoretical powers latent within these condensed images that prefigure the dark dynamics of capitalism. Focusing on dark images of domination and also prophetic images of transformation, the book points the way toward emancipation, social regeneration and human flourishing.

Sociological Re-Imaginations in & of Universities Mohammad H. Tamdgidi, 2009-06-01 This Summer 2009 VII 3 issue of Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge is devoted to the theme Sociological Re-Imaginations in & of Universities. As part of the journal's continuing series critically engaging with C Wright Mills' sociological imagination, it is the proposition that the best way to theorize and practice sociology is via a continual conversation between the study of one's personal troubles and that of broader public issues. The present issue turns its attention to fostering sociological re-imaginings in and of universities. Several faculty, recent graduates or alumni, and current undergraduate students advance insightful critical perspectives about their own learning and teaching experiences and personal troubles and broader university disciplinary and administrative public issues that in their view merit immediate attention in favor of fundamental rectifications of outdated procedures and educational habits that continue to persist at the cost of more creative and in fact more scientific and rational approaches to production and dissemination of knowledge. Contributors include Satoshi Ikeda, Sandra J Song, L Lynda Harling, Stalker Jason Pridmore, Festus Ikeotuonye, Samuel Zalanga, Donald A Nielsen, Anne Bubriski, Penelope Roode, Belle Summer, E M Walsh, Ann Marie Moler, Minking Zheng, Andrew Messing, Jillian Pelletier, Christine Quinn, Trevor Doherty, Lisa Kemmerer, and Mohammad H Tamdgidi, also as journal editor in chief. Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge is a publication of OKCIR, The Omar Khayyam Center for Integrative Research in Utopia, Mysticism and Science. An invaluable reference resource, it contains classic books on a wide range of topics including religion and violence, religion and family life, religion and society, culture and class. Resources in Education, 1990-04 Sociological Theory in the Digital Age Gabe Ignatow, 2020-02-20 What is the role of sociological theory in the information age? What kinds of theories are best suited to analyzing the social uses of digital technologies and for using digital technologies in new ways to study the social? This book contributes to several ongoing conversations on how the social sciences can best adapt to contemporary information technologies and information societies. Focusing on practical or usable theory, it surveys the challenges and opportunities of conducting social science in the information age as well as the theoretical solutions that sociologists have developed and applied over the last two decades. With specific attention to three theoretical approaches in digital social research: critical theory, forensic theory, and Bourdieusian theory, the author provides an overview of the history and main tenets of each.

surveys its use in sociological research and evaluates its successes and limitations Taking a long term view of theoretical development in evaluating schools of thought and considering their productivity in analyzing and using contemporary digital communication technologies this book thus treats theory as a tool for empirical research and the development of theory as inseparable from research practice As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology and social theory with interests in research methods the development of theory and digital technologies
