The Political Economy of Evaluation Jerker Carlsson, Gunnar Koehlin, Anders Ekbom, 2016-07-27 Examines the economic impact of aid but not in the sense that it questions the relevance of this objective or tries to measure whether aid works or not The focus of this book is on the evaluation process itself Can aid evaluation be improved in order to increase the effectiveness of aid Violence Through Environmental Discrimination Günther Baechler, 2013-03-09 Since all out interstate wars for the time being seem to belong to the past conflict studies focus more and more on domestic conflicts This is a broad field not only because the arbitrary line between war and sub war violence disappears and the analyst is confronted with phenomena reaching from criminal violence and clashes between communities to violent conflicts of long duration and civil wars with massacres and genocides as their characteristics It is also because there are so many different types of conflicts to be analyzed so many different types of behavior to be studied whereas there is often little information available on what is really going on Against the background of internal conflicts which tend to be as protracted as diffuse in terms of time intensity actors and their goals this study aims to follow a specific pathway through the current thicket of violent circumstances It focuses on causation patterns by exploring the causal role of the environmental factor in the genesis of violent conflicts occurring today and probably even more so tomorrow This approach which for once does not focus on a specific level of the conflict system on one area in the conflict geography or on a specific category of actors analyzes causation dynamics The Vegetarian Handbook Gary Null, 1996-05-15 Shows how a vegetarian diet can improve health control the appetite for weight loss and expand endurance and provides creative vegetarian recipes Proceedings, High Altitude Revegetation Workshop No. 10, Colorado State University, Fort Collins, Colorado, March 4-6, 1992, 1992
