Bulletin Nottingham (England). Public Libraries, 1910 Guide to Reprints, 2009 Revival: A History of Modern Culture: Volume I (1930) Preserved Smith, 2019-07-16 The best excuse for writing the history of anything is the intrinsic interest of the subject Most men of past generations have thought and many men still think of politics as the warp and woof of social life History for a long time therefore treated chiefly politics Then came the economists to arouse the interest of scholars and of the public in the production and distribution of wealth Economic history rightly absorbs much attention for it illumines with its new searchlight many a dark corner of the past and explains many features of present day society But to many men today the most interesting thing about society is its culture just as the most interesting thing about an individual is his thought Indeed it has begun to be suspected that even politics and economics each sometimes worshipped as a First Cause are but secondary effects of something still deeper namely of the progress of man's intellectual life The present volume aims to exhibit as a unified whole the state and progress of modern culture The Nottingham Library Bulletin Nottingham Free Public Libraries, 1910 The Statesman's Year-Book J.
