Solidarity Solitude:

Solidarity, Solitude Adam Zagajewski, 1990 THE UNHEARD CRY OF THE IGBO PEOPLE KENNETH

CHIGBO, 2011-03-21 In this book which itself is the outcome of an Award winning research work Fr Chigbo utilized the resources in Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel's Meta psychology of the Meaning of Human Life to study the Phenomena of the proliferation of prayer and healing ministries in Igboland. He states The religious and spiritual world outlooks of Ndi Igbo predisposed them to seek for meaning of life in a religious spiritual setting. The double assaults of the invasive colonialism and Christian Missionary exploits as well as these catastrophes slavery and slave trade the Nigerian Biafran war Neo Colonialism the exploitation marginalization and oppression of the Igbo people motivated them to raise questions about the fundamental quality of being human who am I and what is the meaning of my life. The economic hardship political instability and the attack on fundamental Igbo cultural heritage also joined forces with the other factors mentioned above to cause existential frustration and existential vacuum within the Igbo population. The author developed and explored what he calls Heschelian Diagnostic Tool as well as the ten psycho pastoral phases in the search for the meaning in Human life. He proposed a new vision for prayer and healing ministry which is centered on the empowerment of each individual person to respond responsibly to the demand quality of life to engage in actions that are responses to the questions life poses before each unique individual. This is an invaluable resource for all those involved or interested in the diverse field of pastoral care.

I Am Who Loves the Prophets Marc H. Ellis, 2022-08-11 I Am Who Loves the Prophets is a beautiful and haunting meditation on exile a central experience in the history of the Jewish people but now experienced by diverse peoples and faiths around the world. For Jewish theologian Marc H. Ellis exile began when he found his voice of dissent after the Holocaust and after what Israel has done and is doing to the Palestinian people. In these meditations Ellis brings us to an intimate encounter with God as his exile deepens and he finds meaning in the everyday joys and anxieties of life. Ellis's meditations are also conversations with exiles of all stripes an eclectic group of writers Franz Kafka Albert Camus Samuel Beckett Adrienne Rich and spiritual guides Thomas Merton Dietrich Bonhoeffer Simone Weil Shunryu Suzuki. Shall we join the conversation?

Another Beauty Adam Zagajewski, 2002 This brilliant memoir is Adam Zagajewski's recollection of 1960s and 1970s communist Poland where he was a fledgling writer student of philosophy and vocal dissident at the university in Krakow Poland's most beautiful and ancient city. The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph Greene, 2017-08-01 In The End of Divine Truthiness Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love. With urgent resolve Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr's pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power. Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty. Wielding Stephen Colbert's word truthiness as a scalpel Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love Supported by three world religions Buddhism Christianity and Taoism he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities Greene s call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love Through the Poet's Eye Bozena Shallcross,2009-02-20 Though best known as poets Adam Zagajewski born 1945 Zbigniew Herbert 1924 98 and Joseph Brodsky 1940 96 wrote some of the most original prose of this century It is this prose remarkable for its cross cultural complexity and interdisciplinary richness that concerns Bozena Shallcross in Through the Poet s Eye The travels undertaken by these Eastern European poets who each journeyed to the West under different circumstances give Shallcross her point of departure as she explores the connections between the sensory experience of travel and the revelatory perception of the visual arts manifest in their writings Book Jacket Come with Me Ignacio Larrañaga,1994 Now and Then Robert Hass,2010-05 When a simple case turns into a treacherous and politically charged investigation Spenser faces his most difficult challenge yet keeping his cool while his beloved Susan Silverman is in danger Spenser knows something s amiss the moment Dennis Do Negotiating Ageing Simon Biggs,2017-11-15 The world is growing older and this is a historically unprecedented phenomenon Negotiating such change personally socially and for governments and international organisations requires an act of cultural adaptation Two key questions arise What is the purpose of a long life and How do we adapt to societies where generations are of approximately the same size A number of pre existing narratives can be identified however it is argued that contemporary policies have produced a premature answer which may eclipse the potential arising from lifecourse change In this book Simon Biggs discusses ways of interrogating these questions and the adaptations we make to them Four major areas all of which have been suggested as solutions to population ageing are critically assessed including work as an answer the relationship between work ageing and health narratives of spirit belief and wisdom the body and the natural anti ageing medicine critical approaches to dementia plus family and intergenerational relations This book is particularly useful for those trying to make sense of population ageing and negotiate solutions It describes a number of concepts that can be used to assess what we are told about a long life and how generations can adapt together With the cultural landscape moving away from traditional interpretations of old age the question of adult ageing is of growing interest to a number of groups This book is essential reading for social and health care workers other helping professionals policy makers social scientists and all who encounter the prospect of a long life Memory Piano Charles Simic,2006 This title examines not only other writers works with a critical eye but also breaks boundaries in Simic s exploration of the outer and inner reaches of the human condition Included here are essays on April Bernard Robinson Jeffers Donald Justice Pablo Neruda Gerald Stern Richard Wilson and more The People's Bible Joseph Parker,1901 A General Index to Parker's People's Bible Henry P. Practicing Exile Marc H. Ellis, Faith and struggle pain and promise As a post Holocaust Jewish thinker Marc Ellis inhabits the land between homes that we call exile In this intensely personal work he explores how the religious landscape looks from the perspective of an exile and how religious searching continually leads away from the domestic comforts of received Jewish and Christian platitudes and into new struggles for religious authenticity At once a memoir and an examination of conscience Ellis s autobiographical starting points spark reflections on Jewish Christian relations liberation theology religion and politics and issues of justice in Israel and Palestine His experiences also occasion meditations on solitude and solidarity gratitude and alienation memory and responsibility They exemplify how religiously committed persons though exiled forever from yesterday s certitudes can yet practice covenantal fidelity In the end for Ellis and for the reader there is no going back Exile is not simply a fact it is a religious imperative At stake is the integrity of the religious search as a truly ecumenical adventure
