Cartland,2018-03-07 Lucy Lady Wymonde reluctantly agrees to her husband's request that she would chaperone his innocent orphaned young niece Ina for her first Season as a debutante. It was infuriating to have to take another guest with her to Chale Hall, the Marquis of Chale's majestic stately home in the country, but that it should be a lovely young girl made it worse. It was not a question of her being a rival; that was not what Lucy feared. It was that Ina would be completely out of place in what was to be her party, given her by the Marquis whom Lucy has become infatuated with, and it is only a matter of time before they begin an affaire de coeur. Little does she know what an innocent threat the beautiful Ina will soon become. Having reluctantly left her Bohemian background and a family friend's villa near Nice with her devoted lady's maid, Ina is bewildered by the sophisticated Society world of London and rather in awe of the handsome Marquis. But soon to Lucy's fury, the Marquis is smitten by Ina's untainted beauty and the almost clairvoyant perceptiveness by which she seems to see deep into his soul. Ina too is entranced, and despite her aunt's attempts to pair her off with over-eager and unattractive suitors, she too is falling in love. Wish For Love Barbara Cartland, 2013-04-01. Queen's Ford, built in the reign of Queen Elizabeth and home to the noble Forde family for centuries, is crumbling into ruin. Devastated by the reduced circumstances in which he finds himself due to the outlandish spending of his late father, the current Lord Fordcombe simply cannot afford to repair it. With only a few loyal servants to serve the family, even the once beautiful gardens and stables are shabby and unkempt. In fact, the Forde family, blue-blooded and aristocratic, who have entertained more than one English Monarch during their illustrious past, are now so poor that they struggle to find money for food. Driven beyond endurance and crushed by the monotony of poverty, Jeremy, the handsome twenty-one-year-old son of Lord Fordcombe, decides that something desperate must be done. Artfully persuading his eldest sister Mariota to sacrifice her principles and go along with his daring plan, she joins him in holding up a coach, masquerading as highwaymen. But as the usually honest and kind Mariota catches a glimpse of the terrified woman they are robbing, she knows that this is something she should never have allowed. About to call off Jeremy, who is wild-eyed with excitement and oblivious to the upset he is causing, she suddenly sees a gentleman taking aim with his gun behind her brother. In a split second, she fires, blinded to the consequences of her actions through her love for her brother. As the dust settles on the lonely road, she realises that the handsome Earl of Buckenham is injured and eager to avoid the gallows; the subdued siblings bring him to their home to heal. Desperately sorry by the trouble they have caused, Mariota proceeds to nurse him, better praying for forgiveness and willing the Earl to improve. But the unforeseen dramas that arise from that one action alter the lives of everyone involved forever.

Love is Dangerous Barbara Cartland, 2014-06-16. Employed by the beautiful but mean Mrs Schuster as a lady's companion on her trip to Morocco, Melina Lindsay is thrilled to at last visit the beautiful land of which her late father had talked with such fondness. But when jealous of the attention Melina's beauty and youth attract, Mrs Schuster peremptorily sacks her; she finds herself alone and helpless in a strange country. Suddenly, a dashing stranger, disguised as an Arab, appears on her balcony seeking refuge. And when Melina hides him from his murderous pursuers, it transpires that he is an English agent on a desperate mission to save a young boy who has been kidnapped by evil subversives and whom they will surely murder. Joining the handsome Bing Ward on his perilous mission she puts her life in his hands and very soon he will also possess her heart but only if they survive. The Temple of Love Barbara Cartland, 2019-02-14. Desperate to avoid being trapped into marriage by the lovely but scheming Lady Charlotte Denington the handsome young Duke of Ingleby is relieved to be sent on a special secret mission for the Viceroy of India Lord Curzon. He is to find and if he is in time to save an ancient Buddhist Temple on the island of Java from desecration and looting by the Dutch who are the Rulers of the country at the time. Travelling incognito and posing as an English tourist keen to photograph the delightful scenery of Java the Duke unexpectedly meets a beautiful and ethereal young woman called Sarida at the Temple's portal. Although clearly English Sarida bears this Javanese name and is attuned to Javanese culture. Indeed she believes fervently in the Buddha. The Duke is entranced and then enthralled when he discovers that he and she bear an uncanny resemblance to the sculpted portrayals of a Javanese King and Princess in the depths of the Temple. It is as if they have been together and loved each other in another life. Even without speaking they both understand that this is what the Buddhists have always called The Wheel of Rebirth. And as together they face terrible danger it is immediately obvious that the attraction between them is too powerful to resist. It is all an essential part of the Divine power of the Temple of Love. The Prince and The Pekingese Barbara
