The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Crusoes and Other Castaways in Modern French Literature Joseph Acquisto, 2012-08-31

Crusoes and Other Castaways in Modern French Literature Solitary Adventures by Joseph Acquisto examines the many ways in which the castaway particularly in the form of engagement with Robinson Crusoe has been reinterpreted and appropriated in nineteenth through twenty first century French literature The book is not merely a literary history of the robinsonnade in France rather Acquisto demonstrates how what he calls the genre of solitary adventure becomes a vehicle for exploration of much larger questions about the reception of texts modes of reading and the relationship between popular and serious literary traditions The heart of Crusoes and Other Castaways in Modern French Literature examines a crucial moment in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries when the history of cultural perspectives on reading and solitude intersect catalyzing a reconsideration of Defoe's tale Acquisto's philosophically inflected readings of works by writers from Rousseau to Balzac Verne to Gide Valéry to Tournier enhance intertextual and cultural approaches to the castaway myth and broaden our appreciation of the dynamic relation it has to modern French literature writ large

In case you're wondering this is not a love story The Catcher in the Rye for the digital age The Times My name is Tori Spring I like to sleep and I like to blog Last year before all that stuff with Charlie and before I had to face the harsh realities of A Levels and university applications and the fact that one day I really will have to start talking to people I had friends Things were very different I guess but that's all over now Now there's Solitaire And Michael Holden I don't know what Solitaire are trying to do and I don't care about Michael Holden I really don't This incredible debut novel by outstanding young author Alice Oseman is perfect for fans of John Green Rainbow Rowell and all unflinchingly honest writers

The Nature of Trauma in American Novels Michelle Balaev, 2012-06-11

This book examines literary trauma theory from its foundations to its implementations and new possibilities An analysis that reconsiders the meaning and value of traumatic experience by demonstrating the diversity of its forms in contemporary American novels in an effort to deepen the discussion of trauma beyond that of the disease driven paradigm in literary criticism today The author's model views trauma and the process of remembering within a framework that emphasizes the multiplicity of responses to an extreme experience and the importance of contextual factors in determining the significance of the event In order to demonstrate this new approach she focuses her discussion on late modern canonical and emergent American novels that deal with trauma In analyzing the narrative methods authors employ to portray suffering she found two major patterns the use of landscape imagery to convey the effects of trauma and remembering and the use of place as a site that shapes the protagonist's experience and perception of the world Introduction
