Away is an autobiographical account of one man's 13 month adventure sailing across the Atlantic from Europe to the Caribbean and back single handed. It is a story of breaking away from the shackles of the office to work remotely from the boat. Breaking away temporarily from family and friends and embracing the isolation of the ocean. The book is written in diary format with a day by day account of the experience of being a solo sailor. The story starts in Dublin preparing the boat a 35 foot Hallberg Rassy 352 before setting sail December 2018 from the Canary Islands. Alone at sea for three weeks there were many high points as well as emotional lows. On arrival in the Caribbean read about the life of a liveaboard sailor sailing to nine exotic Caribbean islands and a near sinking when the boat ran into a fishing net. The return trip in May 2019 to Europe was via the Azores. A mid Atlantic swim nearly left the author stranded as the boat started to drift away. Another time during the night he was thrown off balance and nearly overboard. The Appendix section is packed with useful information and tips for anyone preparing for a major voyage. The author is 47 years of age. He lives in Dublin Ireland. Sailing the Atlantic is his second adventure. In 2003 he flew 25 000 miles around the world in the single engine light aircraft crossing the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. Flying was his passion until he made a switch to sailing in 2007. A complete novice to sailing he built his experience in incremental steps starting by learning to sail on a small day sailor boat. Cruising World ,1995-01
