Critical Perspectives in Canadian Music Education Carol A. Beynon, Kari K. Veblen, 2012-09-01 Music education in Canada is a vast enterprise that encompasses teaching and learning in thousands of public and private schools community groups and colleges and universities It involves participants from infancy to the elderly in formal and informal settings Nevertheless as post secondary faculties of music and programs are growing significantly academic books and materials grounded in a Canadian perspective are scarce This book attempts to fill that need by offering a collection of essays that look critically at various global issues in music education from a Canadian perspective Topics range from a discussion of the roots of music education in Canada and analysis of music education practices across the country to perspectives on popular music distance education technology gender globalization Indigenous traditions and community music in music education Foreword by composer R Murray Schafer

Critical Perspectives on International Education Yvonne Hébert, Ali A. Abdi, 2013-02-11 In rapidly globalizing spaces of life any research project on international education would necessarily have multi directional emphases with the quality of observations and analyses reflecting the expanding political economic and cultural intersections which characterize this potentially promising century To respond to these emerging learning and living contexts of our world this book brings together some of the most active and established scholars in the field As such the book represents important epistemic interventions that analyze and critique the institutional socio economic linguistic and pedagogical platforms of international education As the locus of international education cannot be detached from the pragmatics of social development the specific recommendations embedded in this book expand the debates and broaden the boundaries of learning projects that should enhance the lives of people especially those who are continually marginalized by the regimes of globalization Thus the book actively advocates for possibilities of human well beings via different formats of education in diverse locations of life Critical Perspectives on International Education offers a historically comprehensive intellectually honest and perspective rich scholarly exploration of a new education globalization dynamic This book courageously offers up diverse voices gathered into a robust and useful conversation regarding global education This book adds greatly to understanding why educational marketplaces must be driven by principles and practices that empower diverse peoples to secure sustainable knowledge benefits that contribute to personal local national and international well being This critical perspective reader will engage scholars researchers and citizens Jim Paul University of Calgary In the current intensifications of globalization and its resulting inequalities it is crucial to better understand the role of knowledge creation and knowledge dissemination Should knowledge be only a commodity to be sold in the market and a tool to increase economic capital or should it be a shared sociocultural capital aimed at improving democracy and the common good In Critical Perspectives on International Education Yvonne H bert and Ali A Abdi assemble an impressive array of contributions from all over the world that address this question from a variety of critical perspectives and case studies I recommend this book to everyone interested in the connections between education citizenship development and human well being Daniel Schugurensky Arizona State University

Recent Social Trends in Canada, 1960-2000 Lance W. Roberts, 2005 Canadian society has changed dramatically since 1960 This work captures the scope and range of these changes through a systematic documentation of seventy eight social trends The introduction summarizes and locates the major waves of change The authors then document each trend in relation to eighteen thematic groups that include age community women labour management stratification social relations the state mobilizing institutions social forces ideologies households lifestyle leisure education integration and attitudes and values In contrast to many recent works and journalistic reports Recent Social Trends in Canada concentrates on the trajectory of change rather than on current events It provides a longitudinal context in which unfolding events can be interpreted in a broader historical and international context Comparable volumes in the McGill Queen's Comparative Charting of Social Change series describe similar tendencies in the United States Quebec France Germany Italy Greece Russia and Bulgaria making it possible to situate the Canadian experience in a global context

Sociology of Education in Canada Lorna Erwin, David R. MacLennan, 1994 Diversity and Equity in Canadian Schools Cathlene Hillier, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2024-12-16 This edited collection introduces readers to the main concepts that comprise the spectrum of diversity and multicultural education in Canada with a particular focus on social justice and on what human flourishing might mean in these contexts Diversity and Equity in Canadian Schools blends theory and practice with each section containing one theoretical and one practical chapter devoted to each area of diversity including socio economic status gender and sexual orientation language religion geography disability ethnicity and race and Indigenous education with a continuous focus on intersectionality The first chapter in each section is conceptual providing thoughtful narrative of the historical and current concerns of the given area of diversity The second chapter then provides practical considerations for educators in the K 12 classroom building teacher capacity both to work against the structures policies curriculum and pedagogies that limit marginalized students flourishing and to build the capabilities for flourishing in all students Readers are provided with practical guidelines to help them approach each chapter with openness humility and critical engagement Diversity and Equity in Canadian Schools is well suited for Canadian university courses in Education that focus on critical multicultural education and equity diversity and inclusion in the classroom

Decolonization and Anti-colonial Praxis ,2019-06-07

Decolonization and Anti colonial Praxis presents research on contemporary forms of decolonization and anti colonialism in practice It pertains to the ways in which individuals groups and communities engage with the logic of epistemic colonial power within areas of citizenship migration education Indigeneity language land struggle and social work The contributions in this edited volume empirically document the conceptual and bodily engagement of racialized and violated individuals and communities as they use anti colonial principles to disrupt criminalizing institutional discourses and policies within various global imperial contexts The terms Decolonization and Anti colonialism are used in diverse and interdisciplinary academic perspectives They are researched upon and elaborated in necessary ways in the theoretical literature however it is rare to see these principles employed in applied forms Decolonization and Anti colonial Praxis provides a much needed contemporary and representative reclamation of these concepts from the standpoint of racialized communities It explores the frameworks and methods rooted in their indigeneity cultural history and memories to imagine a new future The research findings and methodological tools presented in this book will be of interdisciplinary interest to teachers graduate students and researchers Contributors are Harriet Akanmori Ayah Al Oballi Sevgi Arslan Jacqueline Benn John Lucy El Sherif Danielle Freitas Pablo Isla Monsalve Dionisio Nyaga Hoda Samater Rose Ann Torres Umar Umangay and Anila Zainub

Youth, Education and Wellbeing in the Americas Kate Tiliczek, Deborah MacDonald, 2022-11-04 This book explores ways in which education supports or negates the wellbeing and rights of young people in or from the Americas It shows how young people diagnose problems and propose important new directions for education A collective chronicle from researchers working alongside young people in Chile Dominican Republic Guatemala Honduras Trinidad and Tobago Jamaica and the Caribbean and Latin American diaspora in Canada the authors embrace the work in terms of justice intergenerational racial cultural and ecological with by for various groups of young people This book delves into the wide gap between the expressed rights of young people in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and the ways in which education operates In so doing it examines the entrenched colonial legacies which persist including systemic racism flabby curriculum hyper
