Sociology Of Education Possibilities And Practice:

Sociology of Education Jennifer Allen, 2001 Sociology of Education Jennifer Allen, 2004 Sociology of Education Possibilities and Practices inspires an interest in the sociology of education. It continues to break new ground in presenting a problem-based format to examine conventional and new developments in this area and provides a thoughtful and challenging examination of the societal, cultural, and historical context of education. Notable features of the book are that each chapter examines a scenario to explore pertinent sociological perspectives and related approaches to practice, and these are discussed in the Australian and global context. The book is written in language appropriate to those new to studying the sociology of education as well as those with a continued interest in new developments and provides a format that encourages ongoing discovery through research. The contributing authors represent a great deal of national and international experience and expertise in educational research and share a desire for a reflective and active approach to the study of the sociology of education. The team emphasises the living link of educational theory and practice and the need to excite the reader through the possibilities of the sociological perspective.

Educational Leadership through a Practice Lens Jane Wilkinson, 2021-12-15 This book provides the theoretical and analytical resources for an urgent rethinking of the social project of educating and educational leading. It examines what educational leadership is, namely the politics and power of leadership as a practice, and what it can and should be offering a pedagogical and praxis-informed approach to educational practice. Drawing on research conducted at various Australian schools and education districts, it argues for a reframing of educational leadership as pedagogical practice praxis to transform theorising and practice in the field. The book provides a rich account of educational leading through a practice lens, bringing into dialogue the theory of practice architectures with site ontologies, Bourdieu's thinking tools, and feminist critical scholarship. The book tracks the practices and praxis of educational leaders as they grapple with the changing landscape and forces of educational policies that have informed Australian education. It reimagines education leadership by integrating Continental and Northern European understandings of pedagogy and praxis as being morally and ethically informed, as opposed to the narrower Anglophone notions of pedagogy as teaching and learning. The book adds to the body of knowledge on the actual work of leadership as a distinct set of practices that is morally and ethically informed. Readers will find a more holistic understanding of educational leadership practice and praxis based on the everyday accounts of educational leaders, teachers, and students in schools and education districts.

Philosophy For, With, and Of Children Monica B. Glina, 2014-09-26 On one level Philosophy for Children P4C exists takes place and is understood as a set of relatively theory neutral practices we share a story or other kind of stimulus that is both meaningful and philosophically problematic we raise questions about it that will help us inquire into what is problematic we inquire together as a community of philosophical inquiry mostly through a process of dialogue we explore ways to experiment with these dialogical judgments in writing in works of art in action and in life and we self assess our own thinking and our work as a community of inquiry in order to collectively self correct On another level P4C exists takes place and is understood as a set of theory laden and agenda laden practices that are undertaken as means to certain kinds of desired outcomes These are the program s aims and objectives and they come from three places the core practices inherent in P4C those that have become obvious to practitioners or have developed out of extensive practice and those that have developed out of philosophical and empirical research in philosophy and education including epistemology learning theory argumentation theory and the politics of discourse and political theory This last kind of work presents the challenge to P4C to find out if there is such a thing as a core theory that justifies the core practices and if so whether the integrity offered by such a theory is either shored up or compromised by being pulled in any of these other directions The diversity of curriculum materials pedagogical protocols and grounding theories P4C has spawned signifies not merely different approaches to but different conceptions of what it means to teach philosophy to children or to engage children in philosophical practices The chapters in Philosophy For With and Of Children present a broad range of directions for P4C and illustrate the considerable diversity of agendas that can be brought to it as well as the ways in which these agendas sometimes complement and sometimes undermine one another

Global Directions in Inclusive Education
Matthew J. Schuelka, Suzanne Carrington, 2021-12-16 Global Directions in Inclusive Education pushes the conceptual boundaries of inclusive education and explores new ways to research and envision inclusion and diversity in education for all children This pioneering book problematizes inclusive education as a global currency as another form of deficit thinking and as a universal application The expert team of international contributors argue that much of the field of inclusive education needs a reinvigoration of new ideas critical introspection and ways of knowing that can overcome the well worn deficit paths of inclusive education study namely barriers to inclusion teacher attitudes policy practice gaps lack of resources and lack of teacher training Seeking diverse ways forward that represent new visions and innovations from around the world this text features voices and ideas from both early career and established scholars to enliven debate and promote a more positive and productive dialogue Global Directions in Inclusive Education is ideal for students researchers and scholars of inclusive education development practitioners seeking new ideas and practitioners seeking to gain a deeper and more global understanding of inclusive education both in theory and in practice

Silencing Refugees' Voices in Educational Practices
Menşure Alkiş Küçükaydın, Hakan Ulum, Ömer Gökhan Ulum, 2024-11-11 This book foregrounds silenced voices by correlating refugee experiences with educational practices while questioning how we address the educational rights of individuals affected by conflicts and wars Accordingly the book presents a novel perspective within the field of education Within the context of the most prevalent educational instruments textbooks this work endeavors to highlight the muted perspectives of immigrants in education and make significant advances towards resolving this problem Through extensive research and analysis of the relevant literature the authors shed light on the challenges refugee students face in their educational trajectories and offer innovative suggestions for adopting more equitable and inclusive approaches within our educational systems The book not only addresses an educational dilemma but also emphasizes humanity's shared responsibility Supporting the educational rights of refugees promotes not only their personal growth but also more tolerant compassionate and sustainable societies At the same time this work promotes a critical comprehension of refugee experiences in education by presenting both problems and solutions to the readership In this way it demonstrates how a more equitable and egalitarian approach to education can be adopted and it ultimately encourages readers to adopt a broader perspective on the world embracing humanitarian values and social responsibility

Discerning Critical Hope in Educational Practices Vivienne Bozalek, Brenda Leibowitz, Ronelle Carolissen, Megan Boler, 2013-12-04 How can discerning critical hope enable us to develop innovative forms of teaching learning and social practices that begin to address issues of marginalization privilege and access across different contexts At this millennial point in history questions of cynicism despair and hope arise at every turn especially within areas of research into social justice and the struggle for transformation in education While a sense of fatalism and despair is easily recognizable establishing compelling bases for hope is more difficult This book addresses the absence of sustained analyses of hope that simultaneously recognize the hard edges of why we despair The volume posits the notion of critical hope not only as conceptual and theoretical but also as an action oriented response to despair Our notion of critical hope is used in two ways it is used firstly as a unitary concept which cannot be disaggregated into either hopefulness or criticality and secondly as an analytical concept where critical hope is engaged and diversely theorized in ways that recognize aspects of individual and collective directions of critical hope The book is divided into four sub sections Critical Hope in Education Critical Hope and a Critique of Neoliberalism Critical Race Theory Postcolonial Perspectives on Critical Hope Philosophical Overviews of Critical Hope Education can be a purveyor of critical hope but it also requires critical hope so that it as a sector itself can be transformative With contributions from international experts in the field the book will be of value to all academics and practitioners working in the field of education
