Becker,2015-06-17 Silver grey manpower is a gold mine to society One by one the baby boom cohorts will reach the age of 65 starting from 2010 They are large cohorts relatively well educated and healthy with considerable pension and health care rights In short they are lucky devils As a result of ageing cohorts that were born in 1985 onwards and that enter the labour market as from approximately 2010 will be required to pay many additional taxes during the course of their entire working life spanning more than forty years They are in short unlucky dogs Redistribution of joys and burdens could trigger conflicts between generations A better solution is to identify and deploy society s hidden resources Taking this issue as a basis the book in hand explores strategies that enable senior citizens and young people to give meaning to solidarity among generations for a start in 2012 as the European Year for Active Ageing but also as part of Europe 2020 the European Commission s 2010 2020 strategy With these two strategies journalists and television producers will swing into action In secondary and higher education as well as in universities more papers on life courses and patterns of generations will be written than ever before Senior citizens unions but actually all social organizations will organize lectures Educated laymen will wish to go deeply into this issue Henk A Becker 1933 is Professor Emeritus of Sociology at Utrecht University in the Netherlands He has worked on a research project focusing on generations since 1985 Managing the Arts and Culture Constance DeVereaux,2022-12-30 Managing cultural organizations requires insight into a range of areas including marketing fundraising programming finances and leadership This book integrates practical and theoretical insights blending academic and practitioner voices to help readers speak the language in the creative industries Including coverage of the management of theaters dance companies galleries and performance spaces evaluation marketing fundraising activism and policy the book benefits from a range of features including Scenarios to help orient readers to common arts management problems Ethical dilemmas discussed in every chapter Study questions to enable students to review the skills learned Experiential exercises to gain experience and apply skills Emphasis on cross cultural and transferrable skills Integration of international perspectives Suggested additional readings and website links for each topic area With contributions from a team of international experts this book provides a one stop shop for students of arts and cultural management and will also provide a valuable resource for those currently in the field The Transnational and the Local in the Politics of Islam Delmus Puneri Salim,2015-02-26 This book explores the relationship between transnational and local Islam as expressed in public discourse and policy making as represented in the local press It does so against the background of local governments in majority Muslim regions across Indonesia promoting and passing regulations that mandate forms of social or economic behaviour seen to be compatible with Islam The book situates the political construction of Islamic behaviour in West Sumatra and in Indonesia more generally within an historical context in which rulers have in some way engaged with aspects of Islamic practice since the Islamic kingdom era The book shows that while formal local Islamic regulations of this kind constitute a new development their introduction has been a product of the same kinds of interactions between international national and local elements that have characterised the relationship between Islam and politics through the course of Indonesian history The book challenges the scholarly tendency to over emphasise local political concerns when explaining this phenomenon arguing that it is necessary to forefront the complex relationship between local politics and developments in the wider Islamic world To illustrate the relationship between transnational and local Islam the book uses detailed case studies of four domains of regulation Islamic finance zakat education and behaviour and dress in a number of local government areas within the province Resources in Education ,1987 Sociology ,1994 Durkheim, the Durkheimians, and the Arts Alexander Tristan Riley,William Watts Miller,W. S. F. Pickering,2013-08-01 Using a broad definition of the Durkheimian tradition this book offers the first systematic attempt to explore the Durkheimians engagement with art It focuses on both Durkheim and his contemporaries as well as later thinkers influenced by his work The first five chapters consider Durkheim s own exploration of art the remaining six look at other Durkheimian thinkers including Marcel Mauss Henri Hubert Maurice Halbwachs Claude Lévi Strauss Michel Leiris and Georges Bataille The contributors scholars from a range of theoretical orientations and disciplinary perspectives are known for having already produced significant contributions to the study of Durkheim This book will interest not only scholars of Durkheim and his tradition but also those concerned with aesthetic theory and the sociology and history of art

known sociologist from Sac City Iowa is likely not a name World War II historians associate with other stalwart men of the war such as Eisenhower Patton or MacArthur Yet Stouffer in his role as head of the Army Information and Education Division's Research Branch spearheaded an effort to understand the citizen soldier his reasons for fighting and his overall Army experience Using empirical methods of inquiry to transform general assumptions about leadership and soldiering into a sociological understanding of a draftee Army Stouffer perhaps did more for the everyday soldier than any general officer could have hoped to accomplish Stouffer and his colleagues surveyed more than a half million American GIs during World War II asking questions about everything from promotions and rations to combat motivation and beliefs about the enemy Soldiers answers often demonstrated that their opinions differed greatly from what their senior leaders thought soldier opinions were or should be Stouffer and his team of sociologists published monthly reports entitled What the Soldier Thinks and after the war compiled the Research Branch's exhaustive data into an indispensable study popularly referred to as The American Soldier General George C Marshall was one of the first to recognize the value of Stouffer's work referring to The American Soldier as the first quantitative studies of the mental and emotional life of the soldier Marshall also recognized the considerable value of The American Soldier beyond the military Stouffer's wartime work influenced multiple facets of policy including demobilization and the GI Bill Post war Stouffer's techniques in survey research set the state of the art in the civilian world as well Both a biography of Samuel Stouffer and a study of the Research Branch Samuel Stouffer and the GI Survey illuminates the role that sociology played in understanding the American draftee Army of the Second World War Joseph W Ryan tracks Stouffer's career as he guided the Army leadership toward a more accurate knowledge of their citizen soldiers while simultaneously establishing the parameters of modern survey research David R Segal s introduction places Stouffer among the elite sociologists of his day and discusses his lasting impact on the field Stouffer and his team changed how Americans think about war and how citizen soldiers were treated during wartime Samuel Stouffer and the GI Survey brings a contemporary perspective to these significant contributions Problems of Communism ,1972
