Sofia Poems:

Sofia Joan Logghe, 1999 Among the Spanish people who settled New Mexico four centuries ago were Jews forced into exile during the Inquisition This series of thirty poems reveals the life of one of these crypto Jews a Hispanic woman with a Sephardic background Drawing on the stories and lives of actual women as well as on the author's own life in the Española Valley these poems written in English and translated into Spanish are presented bilingually in this powerful book Poems Nikola Ćonkov Vapčarov, 1952 Modern Portuguese Poetry: Essays, Poems and Translations Paulo de Medeiros, Rosa Maria Martelo, 2020-11-04 The present volume assembles for the first time in English a wide range of poetic voices and critical perspectives that illustrate the vibrancy and richness of contemporary Portuguese poetry Special attention is given in seven chapters to the relations between poetry and the visual arts to questions of gender politics language and resistance While aiming to make a unique contribution to Portuguese Studies this book also invites scholars engaged in questions of Poetics across the board to enter into a fresh dialogue The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e g Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e g poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e g the Thousand and One Nights or writers e g Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e g Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e g Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators The New Doctrine of Sophia the Wisdom of God St. Seraphim (Sobolev), Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com/2023/01/book-inventory-vladimir-djambov-talmach.html> In recent years when it became possible to send books to Russia some publishing houses between their other publications sent there many works of a religious and philosophical direction Between them were the works of Archpriest Sergiy Bulgakov which contained his special heretical teaching on Sofia and on sophistry Since the Russian reader is not sophisticated in these matters and many are embarrassed by this doctrine which is clearly not in accordance with the church doctrine in this regard requests come from there to give a correct explanation of this direction Therefore our publishing house has taken steps to reprint a thorough work on this issue of Archbishop Seraphim Sobolev The New Doctrine of Sophia the Wisdom of God In this work His Grace Archbishop Seraphim skillfully and convincingly exposes the teachings of Archpriest S Bulgakov about Sophia the Wisdom of God The author shows in an exhaustive manner that the sophiology of Archpriest Sergius Bulgakov is not consistent with the Orthodox tradition This is his teaching of course in a rougher currently unacceptable form characteristic of almost all Gnostic sects starting from the first centuries of Christianity Through the Kabbalistic occult tradition and further through the Rosicrucians in the genus Jacob Boehme and through the Freemasons whose writings became widespread in Russia at the end of the 18th century these Gnostic tendencies also spread to Russia In the future this direction was resumed in the writings of V S Solovyov and prot Pavel Florensky Therefore now when they try to spread this false doctrine of neo Gnosticism among the inexperienced Russian reader by sending books Archpriest S Bulgakov or by printing the works of prot Pavel Florensky we believe that the work of Archbishop Seraphim is very necessary and will help many understand this anti church direction to which the writings of the mentioned philosopher writers lead

The Testimonies of Russian and American Postmodern Poetry Albena Lutzkanova-Vassileva,2016-06-30 This book challenges the belief in the purely linguistic nature of contemporary poetry and offers an interpretation of late twentieth century Russian poetry as a testimony to the unforeseen annulment of communist reality and its overnight displacement by a completely unfathomable post totalitarian order Albena Lutzkanova Vassileva argues that because of the sudden invalidation of a reality that had been largely seen as unattained and everlasting this shift remained secluded from the mind and totally resistant to cognition thus causing a collectively traumatic psychological experience The book proceeds by inquiring into a school of contemporary American poetry that has been likewise read as cut off from reality Executing a comparative analysis Vassileva advances a new understanding of this poetry as a testimony to the overwhelming and traumatic impact of contemporary media which have assailed the mind with far more signals than it can register digest and furnish with semantic weight Poems of Devotion
