The Thoughtful Home Tahn Scoon, 2015-07-01

Artful and inspirational, this delightful guide to home decorating offers a gentle nudge to those of us struggling to pull together an interior design scheme for our homes. In it, home decor and magazine stylist Tahn Scoon shows us how to look at our possessions and space anew and rekindle a love for all that is old, faded, and well-worn, with imperfections evident. Her philosophy marries new and old with natural materials, textures, and tones to create a style that offers layers of comfort and familiarity with practicality and a strong sense of individuality. If your budget is meagre or without restraint, there are treatments here for floors, walls, and windows that will help you plan anew, and for those with practical skills, there are projects to breathe new life into furniture and soft furnishings. Floral art brings color, scent, and texture into the home, breathing life into every area. Learn how with Tahn's simple instructions. Leading stylist and designer Tahn Scoon shares all the insider tips and tricks on how to create thoughtful, authentic, and beautiful interiors: homes that are kind to the purse, kind to the planet, and a pleasure to live in. Insider tips include how to incorporate built-in storage at a fraction of the custom cost, give children's rooms the vintage treatment, and how to professionally style your home so it's magazine shoot-ready. How-to projects include how to create a silk scarf curtain, crystal decanter, light fitting, and chalk paint a vintage frame.

Tahn Scoon Encyclopedia of Interior Design Joanna Banham, 1997-05-01

From ancient Greece to Frank Lloyd Wright's studio, from smoking rooms, chimney boards, to cocktail cabinets and papier mâché to tubular steel, the Encyclopedia of Interior Design provides a history of interior decoration and design from ancient times to the present day. It includes more than 500 illustrated entries covering a variety of subjects, ranging from the work of the foremost designers to the origins and function of principal rooms and furnishing types, as well as surveys of interior design by period and nationality, all prepared by an international team of experts in the field. Entries on individuals include a biography, a chronological list of principal works, or career summary, a primary and secondary bibliography, and a signed critical essay of 800 to 1500 words on the individual's work in interior design The style and topic entries contain an identifying headnote a guide to main collections a list of secondary sources and a signed critical essay

"Fashion, Interior Design and the Contours of Modern Identity " Alla Myzelev, 2017-07-05 Challenging the notion that fashion and furniture were or are separate enterprises and distinct material aesthetic traditions this collection focuses on three material and conceptual links central to understanding the relationship between interior design and fashion the body fabric and space The volume considers the changing visual material and spatial character methodological challenges posed by and formal political and historiographical significance of a wide range of British European and North American case studies since the eighteenth century The volume's eleven case studies allow the reader to understand connecting notions behind the formation of interiors and fashionable clothing The essays combine a wide range of significant and challenging new examples alongside powerful revisionary analyses of the various periods artists designers and their best and significant objects Fashion Interior Design and the Contours of Modern Identity is concerned not only with fabric but also with the body and the implications of embodiment in the practices of both design domains which are equally invested in the comfort aesthetic pleasure extension and support of the body in different and yet seemingly identical ways
