Toy-Making at Home: How to Make a Hundred Toys from Odds and Ends Morley Adams, 2021-05-18 In Toy Making at Home How to Make a Hundred Toys from Odds and Ends Morley Adams merges creativity with practicality offering a comprehensive guide that transforms mundane household materials into delightful handcrafted toys The book is structured as a hands on manual featuring meticulous instructions complemented by charming illustrations A reflection of the early 20th century ethos of frugality and resourcefulness it draws inspiration from the growing interest in DIY crafts during the era as families sought meaningful activities to bond and engage children in imaginative play Morley Adams an advocate for children s creativity and play based learning likely drew upon his own experiences and observations of childhood joy derived from simple handmade toys His background in education and craftsmanship informs his writing as he champions the importance of active participation in the crafting process Adams s reflections on childhood experiences are seamlessly integrated throughout the book ensuring a nostalgic yet instructive experience for both parents and children This book is an essential resource for parents educators and anyone seeking to cultivate creativity in children Its timeless approach to toy making fosters not only resourcefulness but also an appreciation for craftsmanship making it a worthy addition to any family s library

Australian National Bibliography ,1978

The British Toy Business Kenneth D. Brown,1996-01-01 At its height British toymaking was a significant industry with famous names such as Britains and Meccano known throughout the world While in essence a specialised form of small scale engineering its products and market have always been unique reflecting the current priorities of both parents and children Yet while individual toys and marques have been catalogued extensively no previous history of toymaking as a whole exists The British Toy Business provides a fascinating example of the development of a specific industry Many early early toys were home made From the eighteenth century with its growing recognition of children as something other than small adults date the beginnings of specialised toys usually produced by small workshops and sold by street sellers The nineteenth century with its industrial growth and middle class prosperity saw an expansion of toymaking The 1960s and 1970s were the most successful years of British toymaking with companies like Lesney making record profits Yet British toy makers failed to solve a number of fundamental problems Following an unexpected sudden downturn in sales at a time of high interest rates the major names in British toy making Lesney Airfix Mettoy and Dunbee Combex Marx all collapsed between 1979 and 1985 leaving the business to be dominated largely by importers
