Sojourns In West Africa:

Sojourns in West Africa Steven Keenan, 2004-03 Sojourns in West Africa is a memoir of a young man's month long hitchhiking trip through West Africa and a tale of lasting relationships begun far from home. Join Steven Keenan on three separate West African journeys: Catch a ride on a four thousand mile hitchhiking trek across West Africa at the peak of the cold war; Return in 1998 with a refugee boy who following medical treatment in the United States is returning to his family in Ivory Coast; Visit a post war Liberia that westerners rarely encounter and the village Keenan served years earlier as a Peace Corps teacher; Witness the generosity of the people of a small African village; Join the crew of a freight truck crossing Nigeria; Come face to face with boy soldiers in Liberia; Meet people suffering unimaginable hardship who have not lost hope in Sojourns in West Africa. Sojourn: Emeritus Professor V.A. Oyenuga's Biography, Senegal Sojourn Kathleen M. Madigan, 2010-02-08

Senegal Sojourn Selections from One Teacher's Journal is a personal account of experiences while working with foreign language teachers and writers of fiction in Africa during an academic year. Affording glimpses into that stay whether in classrooms on the streets of the capital Dakar at concerts with writers and intellectuals or while sightseeing in Senegal and Mali, the journal offers a record of what the year held for a Fulbright Scholar learning from as well as contributing to a vibrant cultural scene. The diary is based on lived experience in a predominantly Muslim country in an effort to begin to interact with and learn from a part of the world which demands respect and challenges impositions yet continues to intrigue. While these experiences are set within the framework of a particular year, 2003-2004, stories are woven from them which suggest ongoing practices and traditions, changes and tensions, struggles and feats as well as a hint of what transcends this particular time. The result is an invitation to consider Africa and in particular the dynamics of life in Dakar in and out of the classroom. Reading from this journal before approaching theoretical analysis provides grounding and the opportunity to walk with the author into another space and rhythm. It is a diary that brings Africa out of the textbook and propels the reader body and soul into Senegal. Afro-Christian Convention Yvonne Delk, 2023-06-15

The story of the Afro Christian Convention, one story of many in the history of the independent Black Church, is the story of faith, survival, affirmation and empowerment in the hostile environment of racism. From 1892 to the 1960s, the Afro Christian Convention was composed of 150 churches and 25,000 members located primarily in North Carolina and Virginia. The tradition of the Afro Christian church, too long ignored and under celebrated, takes its rightful place in the canon of United Church of Christ history.
