The Undergraduate's Companion to African Writers and Their Web Sites Miriam E. Conteh-Morgan, 2005-10-30 Now a firmly established part of world literature course offerings in many general education curricula African literature is no longer housed exclusively with African Studies programs and is often studied in English French Portuguese Women's Studies and Comparative Studies departments This book helps fill the great need for research materials on this topic presenting the best resources available for 300 African writers These writers have been carefully selected to include both well known writers and those less commonly studied yet highly influential They are drawn from both the Sub Sahara and the Maghreb the major geographical regions of Africa The study of Africa was introduced into the curriculum of institutions of higher learning in the United States in the 1960s when the Black Consciousness movement in the United States and the Cold War and decolonization movements in Africa created a need for the systematic study of other regions of the world Between 1986 and 1991 three Africans won Nobel literature prizes Soyinka Mahfouz and Gordimer and the visibility of African writers increased They are now a firmly established part of world literature courses in many general education curricula throughout North America African Writers is meant to serve as a resource for introductory material on 300 writers from 39 countries These writers were selected on the basis on two criteria that there is material on them in an easily available reference work and that there is some information of research value on free Web sites Each writer is from the late 19th or 20th century with the notable exception of Olaudah Equiano an 18th century African whose slave narrative is generally considered the first work of African literature All entries are annotated Sol Plaatje's Native Life in South Africa Janet Remington, Brian Willan, Bhekizizwe Peterson, 2016-10-01 Sheds new light on Native Life appearing at a critical historical juncture and reflects on how to read it in South Africa's heightened challenges today First published in 1916 Sol Plaatje's Native Life in South Africa was written by one of the South Africa's most talented early twentieth century black leaders and journalists Plaatje's pioneering book arose out of an early African National Congress campaign to protest against the discriminatory 1913 Natives Land Act Native Life vividly narrates Plaatje's investigative journeying into South Africa's rural heartlands to report on the effects of the Act and his involvement in the deputation to the British imperial government At the same time it tells the bigger story of the assault on black rights and opportunities in the newly consolidated Union of South Africa and the resistance to it Originally published in war time London but about South Africa and its place in the world Native Life travelled far and wide being distributed in the United States under the auspices of prominent African American W E B Du Bois South African editions were to follow only in the late apartheid period and beyond The aim of this multi authored volume is to shed new light on how and why Native Life came into being at a critical historical juncture and to reflect on how it can be read in relation to South Africa's heightened challenges today Crucial areas that come under the spotlight in this collection include land race history mobility belonging war the press law literature language gender politics and the state

Sol Plaatje's Mhudi Sabata-mpho Mokae, Brian Willan, 2021 Sol Plaatje's Mhudi is the first full length novel in English to have been written by a black South African and is widely regarded as one of South Africa's most important literary works Set in the 1830s it tells the tale of Mhudi and Ra Thaga a romantic story set against a violent backdrop of war between Barolong and Matebele complicated by the intrusions of Boer trekkers with whom the Barolong form an alliance It is notable among other things for the way Plaatje uses the past to explore the roots of the oppression and injustice suffered by his people a century later when the book was written Page 4 of cover

Decolonisations of Literature Stefan Helgesson, 2022-04-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library This book sets out to understand how the meaning of literature was transformed in the Global South in the post 1945 era It looks at institutional contexts in South Africa mainly Johannesburg Brazil S o Paulo Senegal Dakar and Kenya Nairobi and engages with critical writing in English Portuguese and French Critics studied in the book include Antonio Candido Tim Couzens Isabel Hofmeyr Es kia Mphahlele L opold Senghor Taban Lo Liyong and Ngugi wa Thiong o By reading these intellectuals of the Global South as producers of theory and practice in their own right the book attempts to demonstrate the contingency of what is her called the worlding of the concept of literature Decolonisation itself is seen as a contingent non linear process that unfolds in a recursive dialogue with the past In a bid to offer a more grounded approach to world literature a key objective of this study is therefore to investigate the accumulation of temporalities in institutional histories of critical practice To reach this objective it engages the method of conceptual history as developed by Reinhart Koselleck and David Scott demonstrating how the concept of literature is resemanticised in ways that dialectically both challenge and consolidate literature as a concept and practice in post colonised societies

New Trends in Psychobiography Claude-Hélène

Mayer,Zoltan Kovary,2019-08-06 This volume offers insights into contemporary trends and perspectives in psychobiographical research It applies new theoretical and methodological frameworks and presents discourses on psychobiography from transdisciplinary backgrounds and various socio cultural contexts displaying the new state of the art new trends and themes in psychobiography The book outlines psychobiography's outstanding contribution to psychology from 36 internationally reputable authors It also presents the ideas of five outstanding psychobiographers through interview excerpts This book is a must for researchers lecturers and practitioners in the field of psychology and social sciences interested in the use of new psychological theories and methodologies in life span research Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors,2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources Sol Plaatje Peter Midgley,1997 God's Interpreters: The Making of an American Mission and an African Church Les Switzer,2023-10-20 This study of the pioneer mission to the Zulu people differs from others in South African mission studies by offering a more nuanced understanding of the relationship between mission and church during the formative stages in the making of an African Christian community both in America and in British Natal Critical scholars continue to view the Western mission enterprise as an adjunct if not a tool of colonialism or at best a clash of cultures between white mission powerbrokers and powerless black Christian acolytes The author argues that they were partners from the beginning and in this endeavor the Christian identities of the missionaries as well as the Zulu were changed forever In India and East Africa E-Indiya nase East Africa Davidson Don Tengo Jabavu,Tina Steiner,Mhlobo Jadezweni,Catherine Higgs,Evan M. Mwangi,2020-02-01 A politician's journey to bring home Mahatma Gandhi's teachings home to South Africa in the wake of WWII In November 1949 Davidson Don Tengo D D T Jabavu the South African politician Methodist lay preacher and retired professor of African languages and Latin at Fort Hare University in the Eastern Cape set out on a four month trip to attend the World Pacifist Meeting in India The conference brought together delegates from over thirty countries to reflect on how Mahatma Gandhi's life and teachings could inform pacifist work in the post World War II era Jabavu wrote an isiXhosa account of his journey up the east coast of Africa and to different parts of India which was first published in 1951 by Lovedale Press His narrative contains wide ranging reflections on the fauna and flora of the changing landscape on intriguing social interactions during his travels and on the conference itself where he considered what lessons Gandhian principles might yield for oppressed South Africans engaged in struggles for freedom and dignity He incorporates accounts of chance meetings with important figures of post independence India and of the anti colonial struggle in East Africa as well as with members of the American civil rights movement His commentary on non violent resistance and on the dangers of nationalism

when coupled with militarism and racism enriches the existing archive of intellectual and political exchange between Africa and India from a black South African perspective This new edition includes Jabavu s travelogue in the original isiXhosa with an English translation by the late anthropologist Cecil Wele Manona Tina Steiner s introductory chapter examines the networks of international solidarity and friendship that Jabavu helped to strengthen in the course of his travels A chapter by Mhlobo W Jadezweni whose updating of the original isiXhosa orthography has made Jabavu s text accessible to new generations of readers considers the richness of Jabavu s isiXhosa style as a contribution to the archive of great African language literature Catherine Higgs provides biographical sketches of D D T Jabavu and Cecil Wele Manona which situate this travelogue within the broader context of their lives Evan M Mwangi s Afterword is a reflection on the historical and political significance of making African language texts available to readers across Africa

A Prophet of the People

Lauren V. Jarvis,2024-03-01 In 1910 Isaiah Shembe was struggling He had left his family and quit his job as a sanitation worker to become a Baptist evangelist but he ended his first mission without much to show Little did he know that he would soon establish the Nazareth Church as he began to attract attention from people left behind by industrial capitalism in South Africa By his death in 1935 Shembe was an internationally known prophet and healer described by his peers as better off than all the Black people In A Prophet of the People Isaiah Shembe and the Making of a South African Church historian Lauren V Jarvis provides a fascinating and intimate portrait of one of South Africa s most famous religious figures and in turn the making of modern South Africa Following Shembe from his birth in the 1860s across many environments and contexts Jarvis illuminates the tight links between the spread of Christianity strategies of evasion and the capacious forms of community that continue to shape South Africa today

The Changing Face of Colonial Education in Africa Peter

Kallaway,2021-07-29 The Changing Face of Colonial Education in Africa offers a detailed and nuanced perspective of colonial history based on 15 years of research that throws fresh light on the complexities of African history and the colonial world of the first half of the twentieth century It provides an analytical background to the history of education in the colonial context by balancing contributions by missionary agencies colonial government humanitarian agencies scientific experts and African agents It offers a foundation for the analysis of modern educational policy for the postcolonial state It attempts to move beyond clichés about colonial education to an understanding of the complexities of how educational policy was developed in different places at different times while giving credence to arguments that see schooling as a form of social control in the colonial environment It is essential reading for academics researchers and policymakers looking to better understand colonial education and contextualize modern developments related to the decolonizing African education It is intended to provide an essential background for policy makers by demonstrating the significance of a historical perspective for an understanding of contemporary educational challenges in Africa and elsewhere

The Scientific Imagination in South

Africa William Beinart,Saul Dubow,2021-05-20 South Africa provides a unique vantage point from which to examine the scientific imagination over the last three centuries when its position on the African continent made it a staging post for Portuguese Dutch and British colonialism In the eighteenth century South African plants and animals caught the imagination of visiting Europeans In the nineteenth century science became central to imperial conquest devastating wars agricultural intensification and the exploitation of rich mineral resources Scientific work both facilitated and offered alternatives to the imposition of segregation and apartheid in the twentieth century William Beinart and Saul Dubow offer an innovative exploration of science and technology in this complex divided society Bridging a range of disciplines from astronomy to zoology they demonstrate how scientific knowledge shaped South Africa's peculiar path to modernity In so doing they examine the work of remarkable individual scientists and institutions as well as the contributions of leading politicians from Jan Smuts to Thabo Mbeki

The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism Zachary Levenson, Marcel Paret, 2024-06-28 This book documents the emergence and development of the theory of racial capitalism in apartheid South Africa It interrogates the specificity of this theory in the South African context and draws lessons for its global applicability Racism and capitalism have a long history of entanglement Nowhere is this more evident than in South Africa where colonial and apartheid regimes used explicit systems of racial hierarchy to shore up profit It is therefore no surprise that South Africa has represented a key site for thinking about the role that racism plays in shaping state policy labor markets patterns of capital accumulation and working class struggle Illuminating these dynamics this volume develops a distinctive South African tradition of thought about the relationship between racism and capitalism The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism contributes to a burgeoning literature on the concept of racial capitalism the origins of which many commentators trace back to apartheid South Africa It pays particular attention to the crucial role of anti apartheid activists as theorists whose important insights remain relevant for scholars and activists around the globe This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magema Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa The 'Valiant Englishman' Andrew Manson, 2023-04-11 This book describes the career of an English aristocrat Christopher Bethell who arrives in southern Africa in 1878 as the classic remittance man despatched to the colonies to avoid a scandal at home Bethell an intelligence officer and later a border agent is the protagonist who facilitated the acquisition of arms for Montshiwa s Ratshidi Barolong to resist the depredations of freebooters mercenaries based mostly in the Transvaal In his alliance with Kgosi Montshiwa Tawana Bethell identifies with Kgosi Montshiwa s struggle to maintain political independence and economic security The alliance was further cemented by Bethell s marriage to a Morolong woman Tepo Boapile an unusual occurrence in nineteenth century southern Africa Surrounded by aggressive freebooters from across their eastern border with the Transvaal and the ambiguous forces of colonial advancement from the Cape colony and Britain Montshiwa and Bethell form an unlikely but enduring relationship aimed at safeguarding Rolong interests As the Bechuanaland Wars of the early to mid 1880s intensify in brutality Montshiwa and his Chief of Staff Christopher Bethell are forced to desperate measures to defend the Rolong and avoid outright dispossession Bethell s demise is the trigger for firm British imperial intervention the securing of the Road to the North and events that will determine the fate of Africans in south and central Africa The book is a reminder that in the author s words past relations between South Africa s different races were characterised as much by collusion and collaboration as they were by hostility friction and dissent Dintshontsho Tsa Bo - Juliuse Kesara William Shakespeare, 2022-12-01 Dintshontsho Tsa Bo Juliuse Kesara is a translation into Setswana of Shakespeare s Julius Caesar by the renowned South African thinker writer and linguist Sol T Plaatje who was also a gifted stage actor Plaatje first encountered the works of Shakespeare when he saw a performance of Hamlet as a young man it ignited a great love in him for the works of the Elizabethan dramatist Many years later he translated several of Shakespeare s plays into Setswana in a series called Mabololelo a ga Tsikinya Chaka The Sayings of Shakespeare Dintshontsho Tsa Bo Juliuse Kesara went to print five years after Plaatje s death in 1937 published in the Bantu later African Treasury Series by the University of the Witwatersrand Press His translations of Shakespeare s plays into Setswana helped to pioneer and popularise a genre the drama script that was previously not well known in Southern Africa It also showcased the rich range of Setswana vocabulary and served Plaatje s aim of developing the language Dintshontsho Tsa Bo Juliuse Kesara ke phetolelo ya Setswana ya Julius Caesar ya ga Shakespeare ka mokwadi moakanyi wa MoAforika le seitseanape sa puo Sol T Plaatje yo gape e neng e le modiragatsi yo o nang le bokgoni wa serala Plaatje o rakane la ntlha le ditiro tsa ga Shakespeare fa a bona tiragatso ya Hamlet e sa le lekawana mme seo se ne sa tsosa lerato le le boitsehang mo pelong ya gagwe la ditiro tsa mokwadi yoo wa MoElisabeta Dingwaga di le dintsi morago ga foo o fetoletse diterama tsa ga Shakespeare di balwa mo

Legends Matthew Blackman, Nick Dall, 2023-09-29 We have a lot to be positive about in South Africa With all our problems it s easy to feel bleak But hold those thoughts because Legends might be just the tonic you need to drive off the gloom This book tells the stories of a dozen remarkable people some well known others largely forgotten who changed Mzansi for the better Most South Africans are proud of Nelson Mandela and rightly so His life was truly astounding but he s by no means the only person who should inspire us There s King Moshoeshoe whose humanity and diplomatic strategies put him head and shoulders above his contemporaries both European and African And John Fairbairn who brought non racial democracy to the Cape in 1854 Olive Schreiner was a bestselling international author who fought racism corruption and chauvinism And Gandhi spent twenty years here inventing a system of protest that would bring an Empire to its knees Legends also celebrates Eug ne Marais s startling contributions to literature and natural history despite a lifelong morphine addiction Sol Plaatje s wit intelligence and tenacity in the face of racial zealots Cissie Gool s lifetime fighting for justice and exposing bigots and Sailor Malan s battles against fascists in the skies of Europe and on the streets of South Africa Legends also celebrates Eug ne Marais s startling contributions to literature and natural history despite a lifelong morphine addiction Sol Plaatje s wit intelligence and tenacity in the face of racial zealots Cissie Gool s lifetime fighting for justice and exposing bigots and Sailor Malan s battles against fascists in the skies of Europe and on the streets of South Africa And then there s Miriam Makeba who began her life in prison and ended it as an international singing sensation Steve Biko who shifted the minds of an entire generation and Thuli Madonsela the book s only living legend who gracefully felled the most powerful man in the land Engagingly written and meticulously researched Legends reminds South Africans that we have a helluva lot to be proud of Reappraising the Life and Legacy of Jan C. Smuts David Boucher, Bongani Ngqulunga, 2024-08-01 In this book the authors cover both familiar and unfamiliar themes One of the principal themes running throughout the book addresses head on the deficiency in the literature highlighted by Saul Dubow namely the question of racism and Smuts s reluctance to implement native policies that may have averted future problems rather than postpone them We see throughout a gap between the rhetoric and policy and between policy and practice in its implementation Amongst the familiar themes that are reappraised are Smuts s successes and failures in policies and leadership domestically and internationally This wide ranging volume re evaluates myriad aspects of Smuts life philosophy political career and legacy An important and timely book exploring one of South Africa s most consequential and controversial leaders Luc Andre Brunet Contemporary International History The Open University The book is a great contribution to South African cultural and social history With the military element covered in other publications the editors and authors have focussed on the less well trodden aspects of Smuts s history including but not limited to discussions on the atomic bomb counter revolution film early cabinets racialism trusteeship greatness political philosophy racial segregation and myth making The editors have skilfully continued the longer political discussion reflecting on the myth and legacy of a prominent South African Smuts Antonio Garcia Stellenbosch University coauthor of Botha Smuts and the First World War co founder Underground Strategy
