Sow The Wind Contemporary Speeches:

Sow the Wind Neville Alexander, 1985 The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism Zachary Levenson, Marcel Paret, 2024-06-28 This book documents the emergence and development of the theory of racial capitalism in apartheid South Africa. It interrogates the specificity of this theory in the South African context and draws lessons for its global applicability. The volume was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies. Hierarchies at Work Karen Engle, Neville Hoad, 2025-06-10 This book challenges dominant understandings of both economic inequality and the future of work. Leading scholars in law, social sciences, and the humanities consider the production and reproduction of global hierarchies by revisiting and deploying three critical approaches that emerged in the late twentieth century: racial capitalism, world systems theory, and critical legal distributional analysis. They demonstrate that these methods, especially when brought together, offer new insights into the forces that entrench the asymmetries of power and wealth that are too often shorthanded as inequality. They also uncover elisions and erasures of the past and present in prevailing technological determinist narratives about the future of work. Hierarchies at Work features powerful grounded studies of the dynamics of work and livelihood in sites ranging from garment factories in Jordan and palm oil fields in Colombia to dairy farms in the United States. These studies underscore the necessity of thinking about the future of work and livelihoods through their racialized past and present and recognizing the systemic role of law in unequal distribution. Highlighting alternative imaginaries that contest systems of domination and subordination, this timely book offers resources to spur more just futures across local and global levels. Black Political Thought in the Making of South African Democracy C.R.D. Halisi, 1999 a comprehensive analytical survey of the multidimensional evolution of black political thought in South Africa's politicization process. Choice Many citizens experience a sense of reluctance to share a single national identity with all of those who are defined by law to be their compatriots. This problem can be explained and surmounted but it cannot be evaded by those who aspire to build a stable democracy in South Africa. Richard L. Sklar from the Foreword: What will it mean to be a citizen in the new South Africa? This penetrating study analyzes the issues of dual citizenship, black consciousness, populism, racial proletarianization, and their interaction with various political ideologies. Halisi's analysis has practical implications for the development of political identity in the new South Africa. Biko Lives! A. Mngxitama, A. Alexander, N. Gibson, 2008-07-07 This collection looks at the on-going significance of Black Consciousness, situating it in a global frame, examining the legacy of Steve Biko, the current state of post-apartheid South African politics, and the culture and history of the anti-apartheid movements. Pluralizing Humanism Slavica Jakelić, 2025-02-28 Humanism is appealed to today whenever we want to tackle the conditions of dehumanization in the contemporary world. But for humanism to be viable in the twenty-first century, this book argues, it needs to be pluralized. Employing theoretical, historical, and sociological arguments, this book moves beyond the discourse of critique. It engages theories of religion and secularism as well as postmodern, postcolonial, and decolonial critiques of Western humanist projects to uncover the ideas and practices of religious and secular humanisms when they challenge dehumanization in the pursuit of conditions of flourishing for all Through studies of the Solidarity movement in Poland and the anti apartheid movement in South Africa the book demonstrates the centrality of humanist traditions to the emergence of religious secular solidarities that transformed the political landscapes of the world By highlighting the instances in which humanisms functioned as checks on each other s absolutist claims the book contends that humanisms supply a constructive path for addressing the challenges of our time a time of radically divided societies and intolerant even violent forms of nationalism A challenge to the critiques of humanism that seek to identify it solely as the legacy of the West as anti religious discourse or relegate it to the domain of power constellations Pluralizing Humanism highlights the rich plurality of humanist discourses and the need for their mutual engagements It points to humanist ideals as constitutive of politics that can guide our human power because they are irreducible to it As such this book will appeal to social scientists social theorists religious studies scholars and ethicists with interests in religion secularism social movements and humanist thought and practice

A Future South Africa Peter L. Berger, 2019-08-22 This book identifies the key actors whose visions and strategies are crucial to the pattern which change will take in South Africa These actors their visions and strategic logic were subjected to a critique by their researchers in the light of contemporary South African realities

Race, Ethnicity And Nation Peter Ratcliffe, 2005-08-17 An international and comparative analysis of social division rooted in race ethnicity and national identity It provides an overview of the key issues underlying ethnic conflict which has now risen to the top of the international political agenda

Why Race Matters in South Africa Michael MacDonald, 2006 This book tells the story of how the transition to democracy in South Africa enfranchised blacks politically but without raising most of them from poverty Although democratic South Africa is officially non racial the book shows that racial solidarities continue to play a role in the country s political economy

Against Racial Capitalism Neville Alexander, 2023-07-05 Amidst all this talk of racial capitalism and abolition there is one thinker we should all be reading Neville Alexander He is a revolutionary intellectual for our times and for our planet For anyone committed to abolishing not just studying racial capitalism this is the book to read Robin D G Kelley author of Freedom Dreams Profound and provocative Grounded in history engaged with revolutionary theory and informed by a lifetime of practice Neville s intellectual acuity and passion for freedom shine through in every page Read learn and join the growing global struggle against racial capitalism Barbara Ransby historian activist author of Making All Black Lives Matter Alexander s beautiful writing patiently connects theory and method with purpose Against Racial Capitalism is absolutely necessary for all who struggle to understand and change twenty first century conditions Ruth Wilson Gilmore author of Abolition Geography As a revolutionary public intellectual activist and former political prisoner Neville Alexander is among the most important theorists of racial capitalism to emerge during the struggle against apartheid Alexander s writings engage with some of the important debates in South Africa from the last 50 years many of which have international resonance today An opponent of the neoliberal trajectory embarked upon by the post apartheid establishment in the 1990s Alexander was always reflective and humble but never wavered from his own self description a non dogmatic Marxist pan Africanist and internationalist This carefully curated collection brings his incredible body of work to an international audience for the first time It features a comprehensive introduction a timeline of key events in the life of Alexander selected articles speeches op eds book chapters and a bibliography of his writings Neville Alexander was a revolutionary scholar educator and activist in the struggles against apartheid and in post apartheid South Africa He spent ten years 1964 74 as a political prisoner on Robben Island alongside Nelson Mandela and others before emerging as one of South Africa s foremost public intellectuals
