PATEL,2015-09-17 English Language Teaching ELT especially English as a Second Language ESL and English as a Foreign Language EFL has been witnessing unprecedented changes in curriculum teaching methodology and the application of learning theories This has created a demand for teachers who can teach English to learners of varied cultural socio economic and psychological backgrounds The book in its second edition continues to discuss the modern trends innovations as well as the difficulties and challenges in teaching and learning ESL in a non native context The book with contributions from many experts each one specializing in a particular field from countries such as UK USA Australia New Zealand India Nigeria Sri Lanka China and Japan provides new methods strategies and application oriented solutions to overcome the problems in a practical way The book deals with all topics pertinent to English as a Second Language or English for the non native speakers and these are further reinforced by a large number of examples and quotations from different sources The new edition comes along with thoroughly improvised chapters on Narrative Inquiry for Teacher Development Chapter 13 and Mass Media Language Attitudes and Language Interaction Phenomena Chapter 23 to provide an insight on the innovative approaches in Teacher training and in classrooms and new approaches and changing language dimensions in the world of media and in general What distinguishes the text is its focus on modern innovations and use of technology in ELT CLT Communicative Language Teaching Postgraduate Students of English teachers teacher trainees B Ed M A Education M Ed and teacher educators who are concerned with teaching English as a Second Language ESL should find this book immensely helpful a The Art of Teaching English John Henry Fowler,1932 Glocalising Teaching English as an International Language Marcus Callies,Stefanie Hehner,Philipp Meer,Michael Westphal,2021-12-19 The worldwide spread diversification and globalization of the English language in the course of the twentieth and early twenty first centuries has significant implications for English Language Teaching and teacher education We are currently witnessing a paradigm shift towards Teaching English as an International Language TEIL that aims to promote multilingualism and awareness of the diversity of Englishes increase exposure to this diversity embrace multiculturalism and foster cross cultural awareness Numerous initiatives that embrace TEIL can be observed around the world but ELT and teacher education in Germany and other European countries appear to be largely unaffected by this development with standard British and American English and the monolingual native speaker including the corresponding cultural norms still being very much at the center of attention The present volume addresses this gap and is the first of its kind to showcase recent initiatives that aim at introducing TEIL into ELT and teacher education in Germany but which have applicability and impact for other countries with comparable education systems and traditional ELT practices in the Expanding Circle. The chapters in this book provide a balanced mix of conceptual, empirical and practical studies and offer the perspectives of the many stakeholders involved in various settings of English language education whose voices have not often been heard: i.e. students, university lecturers, trainee teachers, teacher educators and in-service teachers. It therefore adds significantly to the limited amount of previous work on TEIL in Germany and bridges the gap between theory and practice that will not only be relevant for researchers, educators and practitioners in English language education in Germany but other educational settings that are still unaffected by the shift towards TEIL.
