Islam Jenny Berglund, Teaching Islam Brannon M. Wheeler,2003 The critical role of Islam in global affairs makes it an increasingly valuable part of the undergraduate curriculum Despite this very little consideration has been given to methods of teaching Islam This book brings together leading scholars to offer perspectives on teaching Islam to undergraduates

The teaching of the Qur'an Herbert U. Stanton,1989 The Teaching of the Qura'an H. Stanton,Herbert Udney Weitbrecht Stanton,1919 Islam and Christianity in India and the Far East Elwood Morris Wherry,1907 The Universal Islamic Education Methodology Roohi A. Ahmad,2023-08-28 Have we ever wondered why Allah swt uses His name as Allah some places and Rabb in the others Have we ever wondered what the difference between momin and muslim is Can we make an argument to prove their meanings from within the Quran Have we ever wondered why Allah swt uses the word zikar so extensively throughout the Quran or what the meaning of the word zikar is or how the meaning of zikar is different from talu qara and ratat and even why there are talu qara and ratat the three different words for reading the Quran Or have we ever wondered why we are plagued by all kinds of catastrophes Or why is there so much chaos and conflict in the world and how can we solve these problems If we have not wondered about such questions the reason is that we have not read the Qur'an in its true sense Today's Muslims have two main objectives for their children success in this world and triumph in the life hereafter Muslim children need natural and social knowledge but to fully enrich their minds they also need to learn about the Quran and Islamic traditions Many Islamic schools in North America are pursuing both of these objectives but educators often feel that merging these two goals is too difficult Having spent years teaching in Islamic schools and conducting a wealth of research Roohi A Ahmad has observed firsthand how complex the enterprise of Islamic education is She has also witnessed the void of learning outcomes teaching goals and most importantly a clear vision and methodology for Islamic education She has sought to remedy that situation in this book It provides a practical methodology designed to help Muslim educators create a state of the art Islamic education system that will lead to fully formed students who can function well in this world and ensure a positive outcome in the world to come Algerian Languages in Education Salim Bouherar,Abderrezaq Ghafsi,2022-01-03 This book examines the role of foreign languages and cultures in the Algerian educational system highlighting how cultural imperialism and supremacy persist through damaging language ideologies and the privileging of colonial languages such as French and English The authors challenge the claim that the Algerian educational system can be considered neutral arguing instead that it was and still is the outcome of a conflict between Arabised and Francophone elites serving strategic and ideological objectives rather than cultural or pedagogical goals This book will be relevant to students and scholars of language education language policy and planning and the history and politics of the Arab and Muslim world especially those interested in the influence of Western languages and cultures and the democratisation of educational systems A Comprehensive Commentary on the Quran: Comprising Sale's

Translation & Preliminary Discourse, with Additional Notes & Emendations...by the Rev. E.M. Wherry... ,1896

The Indian Philosophical Review ,1920 The Challenge of Teaching English in Indonesian's Muhammadiyah Universities (1958-2005) Dewi Candraningrum,2008 Curriculum Renewal for Islamic Education Nadeem A. Memon,Mariam Alhashmi,Mohamad Abdalla,2021-05-10 This book demonstrates why and how it is necessary to redesign Islamic Education curriculum in the K 12 sector globally From Western public schools that integrate Muslim perspectives to be culturally responsive to public and private schools in Muslim minority and majority contexts that teach Islamic studies as a core subject or teach from an Islamic perspective the volume highlights the unique global and sociocultural contexts that support the disparate trajectories of Islamic Education curricula Divided into three distinct parts the text discusses current Islamic education curricula and considers new areas for inclusion as part of a general renewal effort that includes developing curricula from an Islamic worldview and the current aspirations of Islamic education globally By providing insights on key concepts related to teaching Islam case studies of curriculum achievements and pitfalls and suggested processes and pillars for curriculum development contributors present possibilities for researchers and educators to think about teaching Islam differently This text will benefit researchers doctoral students and academics in the fields of secondary education Islamic education and curriculum studies Those interested in religious education as well as the sociology and theory of religion more broadly will also enjoy this volume The Indian Philosophical Review Ramchandra Dattatraya Ranade,1920

Teacher Training and Education in the GCC Naved Bakali,Nadeem A. Memon,2021-09-20 Schools of Education are emerging academic units in higher educational institutions in Gulf Cooperation Council GCC nations Most of these teacher training programs are in their infancy stages Modern day educational discourse across teacher training programs globally including the Middle East and in the GCC have predominantly focused on student centered approaches to teaching and learning This approach to teacher training is infused with critical scholarship and marks a shift away from positivist approaches to educational scholarship Integrating critical scholarship in GCC teacher training programs brings about a
