Mengli Song, Tamara V. Young, 2007-12-01 The past decade saw heightened policy activism in the field of reading at both the federal level and across virtually all 50 states Initially sparked by disagreements about methods for teaching children to read the so called reading wars stirred heated debates on a variety of issues levels and trends of reading achievement pedagogy standards and assessment and education equity among others Embedded within these debates were the political agendas of state executives and legislatures the interests of advocacy groups and the ideologies of reading professionals which were collectively shaping state reading policy development Drawing primarily on interviews with 366 policy actors from nine states this book presents a comprehensive investigation of the state reading policy domain employing multiple theoretical frameworks and research methods Using social network analysis the authors examined the interplay among a plethora of policy actors embedded in reading policy networks They explored in depth policy actors divergent beliefs on key reading related issues the causal stories told and the policy solutions proposed In addition they examined the variety of lobbying tactics that interest groups utilized to gain influence over the policymaking process and to advance their policy agenda As the most significant research endeavor in the area of state reading policy to date this cross state comparative study sheds light on the multifaceted nature and the intricacies of the policy processes in reading and in education in general The findings of this study bear important implications for both policy actors and education professionals This study also makes a substantial contribution to policy research in education by demonstrating how theoretical frameworks and analytic methods that have not been fully utilized in education could serve as powerful tools for exploring educational policy processes An Introduction to Critical Discourse Analysis in Education Rebecca Rogers, 2011-04-06 Accessible yet theoretically rich this landmark text introduces key concepts and issues in critical discourse analysis and situates these within the field of educational research The book invites readers to consider the theories and methods of three major traditions in critical discourse studies discourse analysis critical discourse analysis and multimodal discourse analysis through the empirical work of leading scholars in the field Beyond providing a useful overview it contextualizes CDA in a wide range of learning environments and identifies how CDA can shed new insights on learning and social change Detailed analytic procedures are included to demystify the process of conducting CDA to invite conversations about issues of trustworthiness of interpretations and their value to educational contexts and to encourage researchers to build on the scholarship in critical discourse studies This edition features a new structure a touchstone chapter in each section by a recognized expert Gee Fairclough Kress and a stronger international focus on both theories and methods NEW Companion Website with Chapter Extensions Interviews Bibliographies and Resources for Teaching Critical Discourse Analysis Research on Educational Innovations Arthur K. Ellis, 2014-01-09 The fourth edition of this highly praised book includes coverage of evidence based education and No Child Left Behind Like the previous editions it offers authoritative and balanced overviews to help you make distinctions between innovative programs backed up by sound research support and faddish ideas which lack a research base Critical Essays on Resistance in Education David M. Moss, Terry A. Osborn, 2010 It is possible to say that resistance in education has always been resisted the point of course is who is doing the resisting Why they are resisting what they are resisting and whose interests are being served by these acts of resistance David M Moss and Terry A Osborn s provocative collection of essays on educational resistance gives new scope and meaning to the term resistance in the context of today s challenges to and on behalf of social justice education It is an important contribution to the field of critical education Peter McLaren Graduate School of Education and Information Studies University of California Los Angeles Book Jacket Dual Language Education Kathryn J.
