Spiritual Gifts Jennifer Anne Cox,2018-01-18 Spiritual Gifts A Christ Centered Perspective is just that centered on Christ It provides a new perspective on spiritual gifts seeing the person and work of Christ as the foundation for the gifts of the Spirit The coming of Jesus into the world opens the way for the whole people of God to be indwelt by the Holy Spirit and to share in God's work in the world. The book takes a broad New Testament approach to exploring the gifts carefully examining the meaning of the gifts by considering the Gospels, Acts and the epistles. The focus is on seeing each gift as an extension of what Jesus did in his ministry. The gifts of the Spirit equip the church to carry on Jesus' work. Every gift is a means of proclaiming the gospel. God gives his gifts with two purposes in mind: to build the church by bringing people to Christ and to build up the church by maturing each believer. Consequently, Pentecostals, Charismatics and conservative Christians alike must embrace spiritual gifts because God desires to transform the world through his equipped people. Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07. Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church. As a result, Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world, comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries. In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education, contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum, literacy, teacher training, outcomes and professional standards. This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe, illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy, home schooling, Sunday schools, women's education, graded schools, compulsory education of the deaf and blind, and kindergarten. With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors, The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1,200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries. These volumes cover a vast range of topics from Christian education history, spanning from the church's founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day; denominational and institutional profiles; intellectual traditions in Christian education; biblical and theological frameworks; curricula; missions; adolescent and higher education; theological training; and Christian pedagogy. Biographies of distinguished Christian educators. This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education. Evangelical Feminism and Biblical Truth Wayne Grudem, 2012-11-30. What does the Bible really teach about the roles of men and women? Bible scholar Wayne Grudem carefully draws on 27 years of biblical research as he responds to 118 arguments often levied against traditional gender roles. Grudem counters egalitarian and feminist critiques with clarity, compassion, and precision, showing God's equal value for men and women while celebrating the beauty in their differences. Leadership in Theological Education, Volume 2 Fritz Deininger, Orbelina Eguizabal, 2017-11-14. The ICETE Programme for Academic Leadership (IPAL) was officially established in 2010 and arose out of the need to provide training to theological institutions in different regions of the world. IPAL provides a three-year cycle of seminars for the professional development of evangelical academic leaders and administrators to help institutions in their pursuit of quality and excellence in theological education. This publication is the second of three volumes intended to accompany and support the IPAL seminars as well as independently providing wider access to the principles required by academic leaders for institutional and curriculum development Each chapter shares and illustrates the expertise and understanding the contributors have of education and curriculum design in the field of evangelical academic institutions With an intentional awareness of a wide range of non Western contexts this volume is a much needed guide for course administrators around the world The Credentials of the Gospel Joseph Agar Beet,1890 Paul's Witness to Formative Early Christian Instruction Benjamin A. Edsall,2014-04-08 Benjamin A Edsall re opens the old quest for the preaching and teaching of the early Church through a new approach that draws on ancient communication practices Given that ancient communicators relied explicitly on what they presumed their interlocutors to know the author reconstructs early Christian instruction through Pauline appeals to previous knowledge both explicit and implicit Commentary on the Gospel According to Luke ... James Stark (M.D.),1866 The Expositor ,1892 The Expositor Samuel Cox,Sir William Robertson Nicoll,James Moffatt,1892 The Christian Educator's Handbook on Spiritual Formation Kenneth O.
