Teaching Children To Paint:

Experience and Art Nancy R. Smith, Carolee E. Fucigna, Margaret Ann Kennedy, Lois Lord, 1993 The authors skillfully combine a philosophical and pragmatic approach exploring the cognitive processes behind children's painting To deepen children's understanding the book suggests meaningful tasks for each phase of imagery and offers methods for encouraging children to discuss the concepts involved in their work Focusing on children from 1 1/2 to 11 the authors include in this second edition a more detailed discussion about painting in the preschool an expanded description of techniques effective in motivating five and six year olds and a stronger emphasis on painting as a more central rather than occasional activity in all classrooms Experience and Art is a lean wise and useful book that speaks to those who teach children From the Foreword by Elliot W Eisner Teaching Children to Paint Karla Cikanova, 1993 Teaching Children to Draw Barbara

At-Risk Students to Read Elaine Clanton Harpine, 2016-12-10 This Brief provides the theoretical foundation of the Camp Sharigan program while discussing its practical applications and summarizing research studies. It addresses the question often raised in literature and in school based settings: What is the most effective way to teach children to read? Chapters explore a group centered approach to correcting reading failure and offers research based field studies to demonstrate the success of the Camp Sharigan method. The group centered theory combines learning and counseling into the same program to strengthen education and mental health. In addition, creative art therapy techniques are also explained and demonstrated. Featured topics in this Brief include Vowel clustering and its use in improving phonemic awareness. Why group centered prevention is better for teaching. The importance of cohesion and cohesive learning in group centered prevention. The use of individualized rotation to increase motivation and instruction in children who struggle to read. Teaching At Risk Students to Read is as an essential resource for psychology and educational professionals as well as researchers and graduate students who are interested in improving teaching methods with at risk students, reducing school dropout rates, increasing intrinsic motivation for struggling readers, changing to an effective method for teaching children to read, improving student engagement and strengthening self regulated learning. Jewish Every Day Behrman House, Maxine Segal Handelman, 2005-06 Written in a warm and understanding tone, this guide takes the best in secular early childhood education and applies it to Jewish early childhood education. With extensive bibliographies as well as background information for teachers, individual chapters review developmentally appropriate practice, anti bias education, storytelling, music, Jewish thematic units, reaching out to interfaith families, keeping kosher at school and much more.
