This text provides a comprehensive introduction to children's and young adult literature in EFL teaching. It demonstrates the complexity of children's literature and how it can encourage an active community of second language readers with multilayered picturebooks, fairy tales, graphic novels, and radical young adult fiction. It examines the opportunities of children's literature in EFL teacher education, including the intertextuality of children's literature as a gate opener for canonised adult literature, the rich patterning of children's literature supporting Creative Writing, the potential of interactive drama projects, and close readings of texts at the centre of contemporary literary scholarship, yet largely unknown in the EFL world. These provide an invaluable guide for teacher educators and student teachers, including works by David Almond, Anthony Browne, Philip Pullman, and J.K. Rowling. Introducing a range of genres and their significance for EFL teaching, this study makes an important new approach accessible for EFL teachers, student teachers, and teacher educators.

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Reading Perspectives and Practices Bethan Marshall, Jackie Manuel, Donna L. Pasternak, Jennifer Rowsell, 2020-10-15
Shortlisted for the UK Literacy Association's Academic Book Award 2021. The Bloomsbury Handbook of Reading Perspectives and Practices focuses on the experiences of reading from a young age to maturity and the different ways reading is encountered in other words, the processes involved as well as the outcomes. The international group of experts within both teaching and academia focuses on reading in school: how is it taught? What is taught? How is it assessed? Controversial issues are explored: the acquisition of phonics, teaching the canon, including or ignoring digital texts, the advent of standards-based tests. The contributions also consider people's biographies of reading, their memories of reading in school, and their current views on literature. Together, this well-edited volume provides a more complete view of reading than is currently on offer, exploring all aspects of what it means to be literate and how we define being literate.

Rethinking Kerouac Erik Mortenson, Tomasz Sawczuk, 2024-12-12. This long overdue reevaluation of Jack Kerouac gives fresh perspectives on his unique literary output, his vexed relation to issues of race, class, and gender, as well as his continuing cultural afterlife. This collection of essays by esteemed Beat commentators reassesses one of the 20th century's most emblematic but often misunderstood American writers. Despite amassing a substantial body of influential work and becoming a recognizable icon globally, Kerouac has often suffered critical neglect, and this volume seeks to offer a range of fresh perspectives on his unique artistic output as well as his continuing cultural afterlife. Through an examination of classic texts like On the Road to more obscure ones like Pic, these essays recalibrate our understanding of the writer by placing his creative output into dialogue with current cultural issues to provide a rethinking of how concerns such as race, gender, relations, artificial intelligence, populist rhetoric, and queerness inform his work and its contemporary reception. These essays also examine how the peculiarities of global circulation and social media influence the ongoing cultural appropriation of Kerouac in popular music, literature, and online. Through these varied approaches, Rethinking Kerouac: Afterlives, Continuities, Reappraisals provides an indispensable account of the continued relevance of both Kerouac the writer and Kerouac the cultural icon in the 21st
