Teaching Equality:

Teaching Equality Adam Fairclough, 2001-01-01 In Teaching Equality Adam Fairclough provides an overview of the enormous contributions made by African American teachers to the black freedom movement in the United States Beginning with the close of the Civil War when the efforts of the slave regime to prevent black literacy meant that blacks associated education with liberation Fairclough explores the development of educational ideals in the black community up through the years of the civil rights movement He traces black educators connection to the white community and examines the difficult compromises they had to make in order to secure schools and funding Teachers did not he argues sell out the black community but instead instilled hope and commitment to equality in the minds of their pupils Defining the term teacher broadly to include any person who taught students whether in a backwoods cabin or the brick halls of a university Fairclough illustrates the multifaceted responsibilities of individuals who were community leaders and frontline activists as well as conveyors of knowledge He reveals the complicated lives of these educators who in the face of a prejudice based social order and a history of oppression sustained and inspired the minds and hearts of generations of black Americans

Teaching with Equity Aja Hannah, 2022-08-09 Bringing racial equity into the classroom doesn't have to be an intimidating task Teaching With Equity will help you take the first step in making your classroom a fun safe and fulfilling environment for all students First start off by establishing a baseline Where is racial equity lacking in your classroom and where are there opportunities for change Then learn about the common stereotypes that students of colour often face before finally diving into resources like interactive worksheets surveys grading rubrics lesson plans and more Envisioning Teaching and Learning of Teachers for Excellence and Equity in Education Xudong Zhu, Huan Song, 2021-08-14 This edited book is a collection of keynote speeches in the 3rd Global Teacher Education Summit in Beijing Normal University from October 14 to 16 2017 The speeches intend to raise international response in the field of teacher education to the enduringly changing education policy environment Multiple perspectives are needed in order to gain insights into teaching and teacher education for excellence and equity as well as disentangle from rigid inapplicable old paradigms This book on one hand provides typify global voices and on the other hand contributes Chinese stories to this field China's education manifests a tendency with stronger indigenous features related to the changing domestic climate and international geopolitical position Chapters included about teaching and teacher education in China can provide local evidence intelligence and relevance to global audience and even voice indigenous epistemes within the non Western platform This book aims to build such dialogs between global perspectives and Chinese insights for heteroglossia in content and methodology in the field of teaching and teacher education Education for Everyday Life Carl Anders Säfström, 2023-10-21 This book examines the role of teaching within public education It critiques its function in today's educational policies and theories and establishes an alternative way of understanding teaching It explores teaching from within a Sophist tradition of educational practice and thought The first part of the book discusses the vital link between public education and democracy the shifts in schooling's role in fostering competition and comparisons at the cost of social responsibility and democratisation It identifies the driving force of those shifts as forces of aggression and destruction central to a neoliberal ideology The second part of the book argues for a practice of Sophistical teaching rather than Socratic teaching It explores in depth what it could mean to be teaching in an up to date sophist tradition of educational thought and practice The book also includes insights for teaching to counter aggressive forces of nationalism racism and late capitalism s violence and the escalating climate crisis Readers will be able to understand teaching within educational thought and precisely how different teaching forms can contribute to education as democratisation      Teaching Social Equity in Public Administration Sean A. McCandless,Susan T.

Gooden,2024-03-05 Public administration education programs prepare students in the provision of important public and nonprofit services so it is essential that such programs help prepare administrators to advance social equity one of the pillars of the discipline This exciting new book from social equity authorities Sean McCandless and Susan T Gooden demonstrates how public administration faculty can teach social equity across the curriculum in practical terms This edited collection features chapters from authors experienced in both public administration and in teaching social equity Each chapter discusses teaching social equity in a particular class Introduction to Public Administration Organizational Dynamics and Theory Human Resources Policy Process Research Methods Capstones and more through distinct pedagogical practices that advance student learning including case studies community engagement projects and simulations The text captures an array of instructional approaches to social equity within public affairs education particularly at the graduate level It includes approaches from both established and newer instructors across a diversity of universities The book serves as an important resource to faculty who teach these courses as well as the students who take them Most importantly it is a resource to academics and practitioners alike who share a commitment to fairness in the implementation of public services      Gender

Equality and Women's Empowerment in Education Delfín Ortega-Sánchez,Esther Sanz De La Cal,Jaime Ibáñez

Quintana,Beatrice Borghi,2022-02-23      Towards an Ontology of Teaching Joris Vlieghe,Piotr Zamojski,2019-07-03 This book opens an original and timely perspective on why it is we teach and want to pass on our world to the new generation Teaching is presented in this book as a way of being rather than as a matter of expertise which is driven by love for a subject matter With the help of philosophical thinkers such as Arendt Badiou and Agamben the authors articulate a fully positive account of education that goes beyond the critical approach which has become prevailing in much contemporary educational theory and which testifies to a hate of the world and to a confusion of what politics and education are about Therefore the authors develop the idea of a thing centred pedagogy as opposed to both teacher centred and student centred approaches The authors furthermore illustrate their purely educational account of teaching by looking at the writing and the television performance of Leonard Bernstein who embodies what teaching out of love and care for a subject is all about This book is of interest to all those concerned with fundamental and philosophical questions about education and to those interested in music education      Social Justice in Teacher Education: Equity, Diversity, Inclusion Tara Ratnam,Elaine

Chan,Darlene Ciuffetelli Parker,2022-08-09      Open Minds to Equality Nancy Schniedewind,Ellen Davidson,2006 An educator s sourcebook of activities to help students understand and change inequalities based on race gender class age language sexual orientation physical mental ability and religion The activities also promote respect for diversity and interpersonal equality among students fostering a classroom that is participatory cooperative and democratic Learning activities are sequenced to build awareness and understanding First students develop skills for building trust communication and collaboration Second they learn to recognize stereotypes and discrimination and explore their presence in people's lives and in institutions Finally students create changes gaining self confidence and experiencing collective responsibility This book is an essential resource for teachers leaders in professional development and curriculum specialists
