Closing the Circle Sean A. Walmsley, 2008-03-07 In Closing the Circle Sean Walmsley offers education practitioners at all levels district and school administrators curriculum supervisors staff developers literacy coaches classroom teachers and special education teachers a coherent framework along with practical advice for setting K-12 language arts expectations and for effectively guiding instruction assessment reporting and data analysis Distilled from the author's extensive experience working with schools and districts the framework enables educators to prioritize literacy learning and work together more productively to achieve better literacy outcomes for all students The innovative framework includes five major elements 1 a set of clearly defined literacy attributes concise expectations for what students should know do understand and experience in the language arts 2 instructional contributions that best support students including struggling learners in acquiring the attributes 3 appropriate assessments for tracking students progress 4 reporting practices that clearly explain the progress achieved and 5 rigorous analysis of data to inform instruction The model embraces a broad conception of literacy and includes expectations for reading writing listening and speaking as well as viewing and representing making it especially suitable for learning in the digital era Teaching Early Literacy Diane M. Barone, Marla H. Mallette, Shelley Hong Xu, 2017-02-13 Grounded in cutting edge theory and research about literacy development this book is filled with practical assessment and instructional ideas for teachers of pre-K through grade 3 Engaging vignettes show how everyday conversations and activities offer rich opportunities both for evaluating children's current level of knowledge and for helping them progress toward more sophisticated and rewarding interactions with reading and writing Throughout the book highlights ways to work effectively with English language learners and their families a theme that is the exclusive focus of two chapters Other timely topics covered include creative uses of technology and ways to incorporate popular culture into the classroom Over two dozen reproducible assessment tools and handouts enhance the utility of this volume as an instructional resource professional development tool or graduate level text Books That Teach Kids to Write Marianne Saccardi, 2011-05-05 This book provides a wealth of read aloud titles and related activities that provide busy teachers with the tools to help students in grades K-12 become successful writers Teachers can always benefit from new techniques that allow them to teach writing in a more engaging and enjoyable manner and a resource that identifies a plethora of excellent children's books that help students become successful writers would also be helpful. Books That Teach Kids to Write introduces busy educators to the finest in children's literature in all genres appropriate for readers in grades K through 12 and provides effective ideas for using those books to stimulate and improve student writing. This book discusses language use and other critical components of good writing showcasing the children's books and specific activities that can help both primary and secondary school students. Included reproducibles for the writing exercises make lesson planning simple while the sheer number of titles discussed and the extensive bibliographies provided minimize the time teachers must spend researching books to use with their students. An appendix includes more writing instruction resources such as children's books websites and professional texts.

100 Skill-Building Lessons Using 10 Favorite Books Susan Lunsford, 2001-12 Teacher Susan Lunsford shares her best book-based lessons in every subject area. Launch a measurement lesson with Amy Hest's The Purple Coat, discuss spelling strategies with Marc Brown's Arthur, explore multiplication with Tomie dePaola's The Art Lesson, and much more. Your students will love the connection to their favorite books and you'll love meeting standards while fostering a love of literature. For use with Grades 1-3.
