Promoting Social Justice for Young Children Beatrice S. Fennimore,A. Lin Goodwin,2011-04-05 This book explores important current social justice issues that confront young children in America A broad range of topics related to the fair treatment of young children and their families are approached with a fresh and hopeful energy The central argument of this volume is that a fair and just society must protect the basic needs of all children so they are able to reach their full potential to learn grow and ultimately become productive democratic citizens The book includes contributions from an impressive group of authors who have been consistent voices for the fair and equitable treatment of children in school and society Each chapter examines a critical issue in child social justice with a focus on the current problem historical importance of the issue potential solutions and a vision for the future The book has been developed to reach a wide audience of professionals whose work involves children and who have grown concerned about social forces that cause child suffering and threaten the well being or even the survival of children in the United States Readers will come away with up to date information and a renewed commitment to being life long advocates for children

Standing Up for Something Every Day Beatrice S. Fennimore,2014-05-01 Standing Up for Something Every Day is written for present and future teachers in the early childhood classroom who truly want to make a difference in the lives of children Exploring some of the most complex and pressing social and ethical dilemmas confronting early childhood educators the author provides concrete ways of addressing social justice concerns in practice Four model teacher guides accompany readers from chapter to chapter and demonstrate strategies for standing up for children through ethics respect for diversity and commitment to advocacy for children This book offers important insights encouragement and practical suggestions to early childhood educators who are committed to excellence and equity in their classrooms

The War Play Dilemma Diane E. Levin,2006 As violence in the media and media linked toys increases parents and teachers are also seeing an increase in children s war play The authors have revised this popular text to provide more practical guidance for working with children to promote creative play and for positively influencing the lessons about violence children are learning Using a developmental and sociopolitical viewpoint the authors examine five possible strategies for resolving the war play dilemma and show which best satisfy both points of view banning war play taking a laissez faire approach allowing war play with specified limits actively facilitating war play and limiting war play while providing alternative ways to work on the issues New for the Second Edition are more anecdotal material about adults and children s experiences with war play including examples from both home and school settings greater emphasis on the impact of media and commercialization on children s war play including recent trends in media programming marketing and war toys expanded discussion about the importance of the distinction between imitative and creative war play and summary boxes of key points directed at teachers or parents New information about violent video games media cross feeding and gender development and sex role stereotyping

Teaching the Dimensions of Literacy Stephen B. Kucer,Cecilia Silva,2012 Teaching the Dimensions of Literacy provides both the conceptual knowledge to support teachers instructional decisions in the reading literacy classroom and a multitude of instructional strategy lessons for classroom use with both monolingual and bilingual students It proposes that teachers need to help children become code breakers the linguistic dimension meaning makers the cognitive dimension text users and critics the sociocultural dimension and scientists the developmental dimension Acknowledging and addressing all four dimensions this text links literacy theory literacy research and literacy practice in a useable way Covering both reading and writing it features clear concise and useable reading and writing strategy lessons and ways to modify them for different types of students Changes in the Second Edition Entirely reorganized the text is more user friendly builds a stronger link between theory and practice and makes it is easier for teachers to locate appropriate strategy lessons to use with their students Academic literacy is addressed more fully

Born to Buy Juliet B. Schor,2014-08-19 Ads aimed at kids are virtually everywhere in classrooms and textbooks on the Internet even at slumber parties and the playground Product placement and other innovations have introduced more subtle advertising to movies and television Companies are enlisting children as guerrilla marketers targeting their friends and families Even trusted social institutions such as the Girl Scouts are teaming up with marketers Drawing on her own survey research and unprecedented access to the advertising industry New York Times bestselling author and leading cultural and economic authority Juliet Schor examines how a marketing effort of vast size scope and effectiveness has created commercialized children Schor author of The Overworked American and The Overspent American looks at the broad implications of this strategy Sophisticated advertising strategies convince kids that products are necessary to their social survival Ads affect not just what they want to buy but who they think they are and how they feel about themselves Based on long term analysis Schor reverses the conventional notion of causality it s not just that problem kids become overly involved in the values of consumerism it s that kids who are overly involved in the values of consumerism become problem kids In this revelatory and crucial book Schor also provides guidelines for parents and teachers What is at stake is the emotional and social well being of our children Like Barbara Ehrenreich s Nickel and Dimed Mary Pipher s Reviving Ophelia and Malcolm Gladwell s The Tipping Point Born to Buy is a major contribution to our understanding of a contemporary trend and its effects on the culture

Rebuilding Sustainable Communities for Children and their Families after Disasters Adenrele Awotona,2009-12-14 Disasters impose enormous misery on children the most vulnerable members of the community Records show that two million children have died as a direct consequence of armed conflict over the past decade Globally millions more have suffered death disease and dislocation as a result of such natural disasters as earthquakes droughts and floods And even when emergency relief is available permanent human damage remains all too often families fall apart women are assaulted and degraded and children are left to take care of themselves In November 2008 the Center for Rebuilding Sustainable Communities after Disasters at the University of Massachusetts Boston USA hosted an international conference to examine how to reconstruct sustainable communities that would be safe and secure for children and their families after disasters This volume collects some of the papers that were presented at the conference It is remarkable for the sheer assortment of topics covered These include the role of gender equality in alleviating poverty and assisting children their families and their communities after disasters war and child soldiers lessons from Hurricane Katrina and the Tsunami the nature of psychosocial resilience and its significance for managing mass emergencies disasters and terrorism and the promotion of human dignity in the creation of sustainable environments that empower families in the aftermath of disasters

Beyond Behavior Management Jenna Bilmes,2013-01-15 Why do children do the things they do What can teachers do to manage it all While there is not a simple method for understanding and managing all behaviors or all children teachers can give young children the social and emotional tools needed to grow and thrive on their own Developed and tested in the classroom Beyond Behavior Management is a strength based approach to guiding and managing young children s behavior by helping them build and use essential life skills attachment collaboration self regulation adaptability contribution and belonging into the daily life of the early childhood classroom As a result children will learn to exhibit more pro social behaviors work better as a community and become excited and active learners This edition includes two new chapters and content reflecting early learning standards new research cultural diversity and strategies to strengthen the home school connection Discussion and reflection questions exercises journal assignments child profile templates a planning worksheet and sample scripts are also included Jenna Bilmes is an early childhood consultant and an instructional designer for WestEd Child and Family Services She is a frequent presenter to teachers administrators and counselors nationally and internationally

Play Sandra Heidemann,Deborah Hewitt,2009-05-01 Play skills are life skills as children develop them they also learn important social skills that they will use throughout their lives Teachers will find successful strategies for implementing changes in the classroom to enhance the environment for play and techniques to help support children s development This is the revised edition of the well respected and relied upon handbook Pathways to Play

Play contains activity ideas that encourage play skills checklists to help identify where children are having problems specific teaching strategies and assessment options This new edition also examines how play theory translates into practice The Young Child in the Family and the Community Janet Gonzalez-Mena, 2006 This book examines socialization issues of young children during child rearing in child care facilities and in the early education system Child development as it relates to a child's first eight years to a healthy family and to a multicultural community is presented to students through personal stories vignettes pictures and a wealth of examples K 8 Teachers and Head Start Administrators Gender, Race, and Class in Media Gail Dines, Jean McMahon Humez, 2011 51 contemporary articles are new to this edition with 14 classic pieces retained from prior editions Kids Working It Out Tricia S. Jones, Randy Compton, 2002-12-03 Kids who understand how to manage conflict successfully can transform their schools into safer and kinder places to learn Kids Working It Out offers educators and parents a guide to the most current and effective school based conflict resolution programs and shows how these programs can make a positive difference in our schools Throughout the book students and teachers share their stories of what it's really like in today's schools and reveal how Conflict Resolution Education has shaped their experiences Kids Working It Out covers a wide range of topics curriculum integration peer mediation restorative justice and others and shows what it takes to implement an effective program in any school and any community Several Perspectives on Children's Play Jan van Gils, 2007 Creating Caring and Nurturing Educational Environments for African American Children Vivian Morris, Curtis Morris, 2000-01-30 The history of the education of African American children in one Alabama town is reconstructed over a period of 100 years from the First Reconstruction period to the Second Reconstruction period Governor George Wallace's stand in the schoolhouse door Lessons learned from this case study in addition to 15 years of desegregated education in the community provides a perspective for educational policymakers to consider as they attempt to plan effective schools in the 21st century for all children in America Many have viewed segregated schools for African American students as dens of educational pathology with poor teachers and administrators poorly operated academic programs and activities dilapidated school buildings and scarce resources Until the last two decades little had been written about the internal functioning of these schools or the positive impact of their efforts from the perspective of their students families teachers or administrators Despite being underfunded understaffed and issued second hand books and equipment this school and community worked together as did many other African American schools and communities to create effective schooling for children This study addresses four major questions 1 What kinds of educational experiences did teachers and principals view as important for the successful education of African American children 2 How did the school interact with parents and the community 3 How did the educational environment change when African American children began attending desegregated schools 4 What can we learn from this successful school for African American children as well as their experiences in the desegregated setting that will provide a perspective for educational policymakers as we plan effective schools for all children in this country The findings from this case study present a perspective on which educational policymakers can build as we plan caring nurturing and equitable learning environments for children in schools in all communities

Peace Education from the Grassroots Ian Harris, 2013-09-01 Historians often ignore the day to day struggles of ordinary people to improve their lives They tend to focus on the accomplishments of illustrious leaders Peace Education from the Grassroots tells the stories of concerned citizens teachers and grassroots peace activists who have struggled to counteract high levels of violence by teaching about the sources for violence and strategies for peace The stories told here come from the grass roots meaning the educators are close to the forms of violence they are addressing This collection of essays tells how citizens at the grassroots level developed peace education initiatives in thirteen different nations Belgium Canada El Salvador Germany India Jamaica Japan Mexico the Philippines South Korea Spain Uganda and the United States A fourteenth article describes the efforts of the International Red Cross to implement a human rights curriculum to teachers on the ground in the Balkans Iran Senegal and the United States These chapters describe a variety of schools colleges peace movement organizations community based organizations and international nongovernmental organizations engaged in peace education
