Critical Terms for Art History, Second Edition Robert S. Nelson,Richard Shiff,2010-03-15 Art has always been contested terrain whether the object in question is a medieval tapestry or Duchamp s Fountain But questions about the categories of art and art history acquired increased urgency during the 1970s when new developments in critical theory and other intellectual projects dramatically transformed the discipline The first edition of Critical Terms for Art History both mapped and contributed to those transformations offering a spirited reassessment of the field s methods and terminology Art history as a field has kept pace with debates over globalization and other social and political issues in recent years making a second edition of this book not just timely but crucial Like its predecessor this new edition consists of essays that cover a wide variety of loaded terms in the history of art from sign to meaning ritual to commodity Each essay explains and comments on a single term discussing the issues the term raises and putting the term into practice as an interpretive framework for a specific work of art For example Richard Shiff discusses Originality in Vija Celmins s To Fix the Image in Memory a work made of eleven pairs of stones each consisting of one original stone and one painted bronze replica In addition to the twenty two original essays this edition includes nine new ones performance style memory monument body beauty ugliness identity visual culture visual studies and social history of art as well as new introductory material All help expand the book s scope while retaining its central goal of stimulating discussion of theoretical issues in art history and making that discussion accessible to both beginning students and senior scholars Contributors Mark Antliff Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer Stephen Bann Homi K Bhabha Suzanne Preston Blier Michael Camille David Carrier Craig Clunas Whitney Davis Jas Elsner Ivan Gaskell Ann Gibson Charles Harrison James D Herbert Amelia Jones Wolfgang Kemp Joseph Leo Koerner Patricia Lighten Paul Mattick Jr Richard Meyer W J T Mitchell Robert S Nelson Margaret Olin William Pietz Alex Potts Donald Preziosi Lisbet Rausing Richard Shiff Terry Smith Kristine Stiles David Summers Paul Wood James E Young Modern Art and the Idea of the Mediterranean Wojtech Jirat-Wasiuty?ski,Anne Elizabeth Dymond,Vojt?ch Jirat-Wasiuty?ski,2007-01-01 The Mediterranean is an invented cultural space on the frontier between North and South West and East Modern Art and the Idea of the Mediterranean examines the representation of this region in the visual arts since the late eighteenth century placing the idea of the Mediterranean a cultural construct rather than a physical reality at the centre of our understanding of modern visual culture This collection of essays features an international group of scholars who examine competing visions of the Mediterranean in terms of modernity and cultural identity questioning and illuminating both European and non European representations An introductory essay frames the analysis in terms of a new spatial paradigm of the Mediterranean as a geographic historical and cultural region that emerged in the late eighteenth century as France and Britain colonized the surrounding territories Essays are grouped around three vital themes visualization of the space of the new Mediterranean varied uses of the classical paradigm and issues of identity and resistance in an age of modernity and colonialism Drawing on recent geographical historical cultural and anthropological studies contributors address the visual representation of identity in both the European and the Oriental the colonial and post colonial Mediterranean Seeing Through Paintings Andrea Kirsh,Rustin S.
