The Heart Of Religion:

The religion of the heart, a manual of faith and duty Leigh Hunt, 1853 The Heart of Religion Matthew T. Lee, Margaret M. Poloma, Stephen G. Post, 2013-01-10 Drawing on a random survey of 1 200 men and women across the United States this book sheds new light on how Americans wake up to the reality of divine love and how that transformative experience expresses itself in concrete acts of benevolence The Religion of the Heart Leigh Hunt., 2013-06 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy The Renewal of the Heart Is the Mission of the Church Gregory S. Clapper, 2010-01-01 John Wesley has arguably influenced more American Christians than any other Protestant interpreter One reason for this wide influence is that Wesley often spoke about the heart and its affections that realm of life where all humans experience their deepest satisfactions as well as some of their deepest conundrums However one of the problems of interpreting and appropriating Wesley is that we have been blinded to Wesley's actual views about heart religion by contemporary stereotypes about affections or emotions Because of this it is rare that either Wesley's friends or his critics appreciate his sophisticated understanding of affective reality To make clear what Wesley meant when he emphasized the renewal of the heart Gregory S Clapper summarizes some recent paradigm changing accounts of the nature of emotion produced by contemporary philosophers and theologians and then applies them to Wesley's conception of the heart and its affections These accounts of emotion throw new light on Wesley's vision of Christianity as a renewal of the heart and make it possible to reclaim the language of the heart not as a pandering or manipulative rhetoric but as the framework for a comprehensive theological vision of Christian life and thought The book closes with several practical applications that make clear the power of Wesley's vision to transform lives today Religion and Art in the Heart of Modern Manhattan Aaron Rosen, 2017-07-28 When you're in New York the sculptor Louise Nevelson once said you're in perpetual resurrection She might have said the same thing about St Peter's Lutheran Church set in the heart of midtown Manhattan In the 1970s the church made a radical move scrapping its neo gothic building for a sleek modern structure in the shadow of a skyscraper The transformation was not just architectural Inside Nevelson created a shimmering chapel while over the years artists and designers such as Willem de Kooning Kiki Smith and Massimo and Lella Vignelli produced works for the sanctuary This fusion of modern art architecture and design was complemented by an innovative jazz ministry including funerals for Billy Strayhorn and John Coltrane and performances by Duke Ellington and other jazz legends For the first time this volume examines the astounding cultural output of this single church Just as importantly the story of St Peter's serves as a springboard for wider reflections on the challenges and possibilities which arise when religion and art intersect in the modern city Working from a wide range of disciplines including art history theology musicology and cultural studies a distinguished group of scholars demonstrate that this church at the center of New York City deserves an equally central place in contemporary scholarship *Revealed Religion: its claims on the intellect and on the heart impartially discussed in a series of letters from a Father to his Son. Gate of the Heart Nader Saiedi,2008-04-22 Co published with the Association for Bah Studies In 1844 a charismatic young Persian merchant from Shiraz known as the Báb electrified the Shi'ite world by claiming to be the return of the Hidden

Twelfth Imam of Islamic prophecy But contrary to traditional expectations of apocalyptic holy war the B b maintained that the spiritual path was not one of force and coercion but love and compassion The movement he founded was the precursor of the Bah Faith but until now the B b s own voluminous writings have been seldom studied and often misunderstood Gate of the Heart offers the first in depth introduction to the writings of the B b Taking an interdisciplinary approach the author examines the B b s major works in multifaceted context explaining the unique theological system mystical world view and interpretive principles they embody as well as the rhetorical and symbolic uses of language through which the B b radically transforms traditional concepts Arguing that the B b movement went far beyond an attempt at an Islamic Reformation the author explores controversial issues and offers conclusions that will compel a re evaluation of some prevalent assumptions about the B b s station claims and laws Nader Saiedi s meticulous and insightful analysis identifies the key themes terms and concepts that characterize each stage of the B b s writings unlocking the code of the B b s mystical lexicon Gate of the Heart is a subtle and profound textual study and an essential resource for anyone wishing to understand the theological foundations of the Bah religion and the B b s significance in religious history Revolution of the Heart Michel Leroux, 2013-03 If you were to travel the world you would quickly come to realize that the vast majority of humanity has the same list of wants and needs food shelter water education justice and safety to name a few Joys and sorrows hopes and desperations are also similar in many ways Even though it sometimes justifies our personal paradigm to believe differently WE ARE ALL FUNDAMENTALLY THE SAME If at the core we are all the same why then is it that we collectively are having such a hard time Essentially this last question is where the inspiration for this book comes from The content of the book comes from the author s decades of research observations and experiences gained while living and working in more than nine different countries visiting over sixty countries spread on six continents A love a passion and ultimately a belief that humanity has the power to choose to create a better life for all is the driving force behind this exploration of human suffering and how to ultimately rise above it This need for a better life for all has never been as apparent as it is now Our collective denial of the reality of suffering is being confronted We are starting to realize that there is no choice but to deal with it problems are not going away but rather they seem to be multiplying exponentially Perhaps we live in times where it has become luxurious thinking to believe that someone else will fix the environment the economy social injustices international conflicts human trafficking or poverty It is time for greatness on a mass level to be expressed This book is meant to appeal to the heart more than the mind The expression analyzing something to death couldn t be more appropriate than now All potential progress seems to be continuously stalled with the belief that there is a need to generate more data to really understand the problems Will we die as a species because of our mind s obsession for analysis or will our hearts see through the smoke of insanity put out the fires so that at some point hopefully sooner than later the mind will be able to see clearly through its confusion Ultimately the question is how will we individually and collectively deal with the problems currently facing humanity This question is essentially addressed to the vast majority of humanity as most are suffering from the excessive greed that has swept the planet There are countless ways one can contribute to the betterment of the world It always starts with people taking one small step to make a difference It starts with YOU Never underestimate the power that one person has to change the world The purpose of the book is threefold to bring about an awareness of the current situation on the planet so that people can start to question their current paradigm and see how they feed into the problems rather than help solve them to encourage a new level of personal responsibility that is necessary in any time of change or crisis and provide information and tools to help in the transformational process by empowering people The book is divided into three parts Part 1 It s All About Me Isn t It The Individual Part 2 What About the Others The Collective Part 3 Together The Individual and the Collective Each part has a different number of chapters The general book outline follows Foreword This part introduces why the book was written The foreword sets the stage for what is to come in the book and encourages the reader to read right through as some chapters are more challenging than others and that the solutions proposed are spread throughout the book Part 1 It s All About Me I The Heart of Catholic Social Teaching David Matzko McCarthy,2009-03-01 This accessible introduction covers the complete history and contemporary contexts of the church s involvement in Catholic social tradition giving distinctive attention to the Bible liturgy the thought of Augustine and Aquinas and recent theological developments Bringing together veteran teachers of Catholic Social Teaching who have worked together on the content this book is designed to set social questions within the Catholic tradition and contemporary life End of chapter application sections address practical concerns such as racism in the church charity consumerism and talking with neighbors and coworkers about moral issues Discussion questions case studies excerpts of church documents and suggestions for further reading enhance the book s usefulness It will work well for students of theology and ethics particularly Catholics but also Protestants who want to know more about the Catholic social tradition Straight from the Heart Ajaan Mahā Boowa Ñāṇasampanno, This collection of talks was originally given for the benefit of a lay disciple who had come to Ajaan Mah Boowa s monastery to receive his guidance as she faced her approaching death from bone marrow cancer These talks offer important lessons about how to learn from pain illness and death by seeing through to their ultimate nature and detaching the mind from the suffering associated with them Bernard Lonergan's Third Way of the Heart and Mind John Raymaker,2016-09-30 Today the world is confronted with many religious wars and the migrations of millions of persons due to these conflicts There is a need for informed dialog as to the roots of the conflicts and ways of addressing these in ways that speak to peoples minds and hearts This is what this book attempts to do from the viewpoint of major religious and ethical thinkers The book relies on Bernard Lonergan s foundational method to address problems systematically with a view to achieve breakthroughs in our openness to one another The book appeals to the teachings of the Buddha Jesus and Mohammad relying on the mystical and insights of these religious founders as well as those of dozens of their followers so as to find commonalities that can build
