Acts of Modernity David Buchanan,2017-09-01 In Acts of Modernity David Buchanan reads nineteenth century historical novels from Scotland America France and Canada as instances of modern discourse reflective of community concerns and methods that were transatlantic in scope Following on revolutionary events at home and abroad the unique combination of history and romance initiated by Walter Scott s Waverley 1814 furthered interest in the transition to and depiction of the nation state Established and lesser known novelists reinterpreted the genre to describe the impact of modernization and to propose coping mechanisms according to interests and circumstances Besides analysis of the chronotopic representation of modernity within and between national contexts Buchanan considers how remediation enabled diverse communities to encounter popular historical novels in upmarket and downmarket forms over the course of the century He pays attention to the way communication practices are embedded within and constitutive of the social lives of readers and more specifically to how cultural producers adapted the historical novel to dynamic communication situations In these ways Acts of Modernity investigates how the historical novel was repeatedly reinvented to effectively communicate the consequences of modernity as problem solutions of relevance to people on both sides of the Atlantic

The Fourth Estate at the Fourth Wall Cary Hollinshead-Strick,2019-07-15 New media are often greeted with suspicion by older media The Fourth Estate at the Fourth Wall explores how when the commercial press arrived in France in 1836 popular theater critiqued its corruption its diluted politics and its tendency to orient its content toward the lowest common denominator July Monarchy plays which provided affordable entertainment to a broad section of the public constitute a large nearly untapped reservoir of commentary on the arrival of the forty franc press Vaudevilles and comedies ask whether journalism that benefits from advertisement can be unbiased Dramas explore whether threatening to spread false news is an acceptable way for journalists to exercise their influence Hollinshead Strick uses both plays and novels to show that despite their claims to enlighten their readers newspapers were often accused of obscuring public access to information Balzac s interventions in this media sphere reveal his utopian views on print technology Nerval s and Pyat s demonstrate the nefarious impact that corrupt theater critics could have on authors and on the public alike Scholars of press and media studies French literature theater and nineteenth century literature more generally will find this book a valuable introduction to a cross genre debate about press publicity that remains surprisingly resonant today

Twilight of Love Robert Dessaix, 2017-06-01 Winner of the Victorian Premier s Literary Award Winner of the Margaret Scott Prize For forty years until the day he died Ivan Turgenev one of the greatest novelists of Russia s Golden Age was passionately devoted to the diva Pauline Viardot He followed her and her husband around Europe even living with them amicably at times as part of their household Yet as far as we know the relationship with Pauline was chaste What then did Turgenev mean by love the word at the core of his life and work In a remarkable work of memoir literary biography and travel writing Robert Dessaix has found the pulse that still quickened Turgenev s age but has failed in ours Praise for Twilight of Love by Robert Dessaix The most inventive portrait of a writer s life and legacy since Flaubert s Parrot The Independent A marvellous and unusual book The Sunday Times

Accessories to Modernity Susan Hiner,2011-06-06 Accessories to Modernity explores the ways in which feminine fashion accessories such as cashmere shawls parasols fans and handbags became essential instruments in the bourgeois idealization of womanhood in nineteenth century France Considering how these fashionable objects were portrayed in fashion journals and illustrations as well as fiction the book explores the histories and cultural weight of the objects themselves and offers fresh readings of works by Balzac Flaubert and Zola some of the most widely read novels of the period As social boundaries were becoming more and more fluid in the nineteenth century one effort to impose order over the looming confusion came in the case of women through fashion and the fashion accessory thus became an ever more crucial tool through which social distinction could be created projected and maintained Looking through the lens of fashion Susan Hiner explores the interplay of imperialist expansion and domestic rituals the assertion of privilege in the face of increasing social mobility gendering practices and their relation to social hierarchies and the rise of commodity culture and woman s paradoxical status as both consumer and object within it Through her close focus on these luxury objects Hiner reframes the feminine fashion accessory as a key symbol of modernity that bridges the erotic and proper the domestic and exotic and mass production and the work of art while making a larger claim about the accessory status in terms of both complicity and subordination of bourgeois women in nineteenth century France Women were not simply passive bystanders but rather were themselves accessories to the work of modernity from which they were ostensibly excluded

BALZAC - Ultimate Collection Honoré de Balzac,2023-11-10 Honor de Balzac s BALZAC Ultimate Collection serves as a comprehensive anthology of the author s prolific works encapsulating the rich tapestry of French society in the early 19th century Balzac s distinctive literary style characterized by keen psychological insight and intricate character development offers a panoramic view of the social dynamics and class struggles of his time The collection includes key novels from his monumental series La Com die Humaine an ambitious project that traverses the lives of over a thousand characters artfully intertwining their narratives to reveal the complexities of human motivations and societal structures Balzac himself was a product of a rapidly changing France navigating the turbulence of the Restoration and the July Monarchy His experiences as a failed businessman coupled with his deep immersion in Parisian life as a struggling writer provided him with a wealth of material that informed his literary creations His relentless work ethic and desire to portray the truth of his era
