Soviet Military Power The Annotated And Corrected Version Of The Pentagon Propaganda:

Soviet Military Power Tom Gervasi, 1988 A Vintage original Verso t p Soviet Military Power Tom Gervasi, 1988 Kritisk gennemgang af Soviet military power udsendt rligt af U S A s forsvarsministerium Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals, 1989 Understanding Global News Jaap van Ginneken, 1998-01-23 Using the enormous number of available examples and a range of theoretical perspectives the author demonstrates the ways in which the news media are able to manipulate an individual s perception of the world Mastering Space John Agnew, Stuart Crobridge, 2002-09-26 For over two hundred years the domination of some countries by others has been intrinsic to international relations with national economic and political strength viewed as essential to a nation s survival and global position Mastering Space identifies the essential features of this state centredness and suggests an optimistic alternative more in keeping with the contemporary post Cold War climate Drawing on recent geopolitical thinking the authors claim that the dynamism of the international political economy has been obscured through excessive attention on the state as an unchanging actor Dealing with such topical issues as Japan s rise to economic dominance and America s perceived decline as well as the global impact of continued geographical change the book discusses the role of geographical organization in the global political economy and the impact of increasing economic globalisation and political fragmentation in future international relations The authors identify the present time as crucial to the global political economy and explore the possibilities of moving the world from mastering space to real reciprocity between peoples and places John Agnew is a Professor of Geography at the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs Syracuse University Stuart Corbridge is a lecturer in Geography at the University of Cambridge and a Fellow of Sidney Sussex College Changing Visions of East Asia, 1943-93 R.B. Smith, 2006-09-27 Ralph Smith was a highly respected historian who at the time of his death in December 2000 had nearly completed a manuscript chronicling changes in the East Asia region since 1943 This fascinating work completed and edited by Chad Mitcham one of Ralph Smith s former students himself a specialist and established author in this field draws together the product of Professor Smith s research at archives in Britain France Japan and the United States extensive reading and international travel from 1966 to 2000 The book also incorporates a distillation of ideas and themes explored in his earlier papers articles and books including Ralph Smith s pioneering three volume work An International History of the Vietnam War It shows how both Ralph Smith s thinking about the future course of the region and the broader context of regional prospects radically changed throughout this turbulent time As Ralph Smith s last major research project carried out from 1997 to 2000 the book has evolved from his 1997 paper Visions of the Future East Asia in 1943 and 1993 delivered in the Huang Hsing Foundation Distinguished Lecture at the Asian Studies Centre St Antony s College Oxford It is a vital contribution to post war Asian history Rocking The Ship Of State Adrienne Harris, Ynestra King, Carol Cohn, 2019-07-11 This book considers the experience of women as children and as mothers and feminist critiques of gender as important sources of insight into the conduct dynamics and motivation of a feminist peace politics examining the history the scope and the current condition of women s peace movements United States Naval Institute Proceedings ,1988 Greedy Science Michael D. Gordin,W. Patrick McCray,2025-02-18 On the transformative role of greed in global science and technology during the 1980s In the 1980s a transformative era emerged where profit driven motives and an entrepreneurial spirit dominated scientific research and technological innovation This collection of essays edited by Michael D Gordin and W Patrick McCray examines how greed reshaped the global scientific community through the relentless pursuit of money fame and celebrity Profiting off science and technology was not a new phenomenon nor were the soaring ambitions of some of its most fervent advocates However the global currents of knowledge production in the 1980s saw major cultural and scientific shifts the increasing frequency of university patenting the rise of academic entrepreneurship and collaborations between industries and academia for example Greedy Science seeks to survey and understand the full range of these changes Through insightful essays contributors examine case studies ranging from the biotech boom driven by early oil firm investments to the speculative market strategies in personal computing and alternative energy This period saw the rise of the celebrity status of scientists and raised questions about the moral complexities of scientific greed The authors argue that greed was an ever present and expansive trait of science during this time encompassing a host of behaviors such as covetousness acquisitiveness rapaciousness and conspicuous consumption Greedy Science provides a nuanced analysis of how market dynamics and the quest for personal gain profoundly influenced scientific advancements and public perception during a pivotal decade in science and technology Parameters ,1989
