Soviet Satire Of The Twenties:

Soviet Satire of the Twenties Richard L. Chapple, 1980-01-01 Soviet Satire in the Twenties with Specific Reference to Ilf and Petrov Oleh Janowsky, 1970 Noplace Like Home Amy C. Singleton, 1997-07-31 Noplace Like Home uses four masterpieces of Russian literature Nikolai Gogol's Dead Souls Ivan Goncharov's Oblomov Evgenii Zamiatin's We and Mikhail Bulgakov's The Master and Margarita to show the successes and failings in Russia's search for home and self Interdisciplinary in spirit Noplace Like Home introduces Russian culture for the first time to the field of home studies which explores human identity in terms of man's relationship with domestic space This broad social context together with general cultural patterns expressed in the novels encourages readers to consider even the most current events in Russian society where identity and stability are again key issues in terms of home homelessness and noplace Russian Tragifarce Julia Listengarten, 2000-06 The tradition of Russian tragifarce can be characterized by its strong links to Russian political and cultural history and by its significant role in the development of Russian dramatic literature and theater practice The book argues that the dualistic character of Russian tragifarce which is close in spirit and philosophy to Bakhtin's understanding of the medieval carnival embodies the ambivalent spirit of Russian culture and politics The book further argues that the tragifarcical perception of the world can be seen as a national characteristic of the self-doubting and ironic Russian sensibility under the influence of a repressive political regime BOOK JACKET Dutch Contributions to the Twelfth International Congress of Slavists, 2023-12-04 The BRILL series Studies in Slavic Literature and Poetics occupies a unique place in the academic and intellectual book market due to its emphasis on theoretically informed and interdisciplinary approaches to the study of Slavic literatures and cultures The series welcomes book proposals for monographs or edited volumes discussing questions of Slavic culture identity and history as expressed in literature film and other forms of cultural production Authors are cordially invited to submit proposals and or full manuscripts to the publisher at BRILL Masja Horn
